TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

God of might, giver of every good gift, put into our hearts the love of your name, so that, by deepening our sense of reverence, you may nurture in us what is good and, by your watchful care, keep safe what you have nurtured. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL MEDIATION St. Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

In today's encounter with the Pharisees, Jesus tells them that they are hypocrites:

"they honor God with their lips but their hearts are far from God." He tells them that it is not legal or cultic uncleanliness that matters, but cleanliness of the heart before God. The main reason why the Pharisees opposed Jesus so bitterly was His mercy, kindness and understanding for sinners. Jesus never uttered a hard word against any sinner. He had come, as He said, to call sinners to Himself and to repentance. He forgave sin and promised forgiveness to all who would repent of their past misdeeds. Not only that: for He left to His followers for all time His Sacrament of mercy and forgiveness, by means of which they could have their sins forgiven by His minister, acting in His Name. Should we ever forget all He has done for us and disobey His commandments, let us remember that we are not excluded from His Company as the sinners were excluded by the Pharisees: we have banged the door on ourselves but He has given us the key to reopen it. Let us never be so foolish as to fail to use that key.

ST. GREGORY THE GREAT

St. Gregory, senator and prefect of Rome, then in succession monk, cardinal and pope, governed the Church from 590 to 604. England owes her conversion to him. At a period when the invasion of the barbarians created a new situation in Europe, he played a considerable part in the transitional stage, during which a great number of them were won for Christ. At the same time he watched over the holiness of the clergy and preserved ecclesiastical discipline, as well as attending to the temporal interests of his people of Rome and the spiritual interests of the whole of Christendom. To him the liturgy owes several of its finest prayers, and the name "Gregorian chant" recalls this great Pope's work in the development of the Church's chant. His commentaries on Holy Scripture exercised a considerable influence on Christian thought, particularly in the Middle Ages. Together with St. Ambrose, St. Augustine and St. Jerome, he is one of the four great Doctors of the Latin Church.
