

New at Saint Ann School in 2020...
CHANGE OF DAY AND DATES UPDATED

Spanish Culture Club

WHO: 4th-8th grade students

WHAT: Our first Spanish Culture club for SAS 4th-8th grade students. Students will be learning how to interact in Spanish in different social settings. Over the course of 6 weeks we will come together at SAS, and participate in fun & engaging activities related to ONE topic. This first session will center around "Going out to a Restaurant" and on our 7th meeting we will be actually be going out to eat at a Spanish restaurant and students will order their own food and will interact with the restaurant staff in Spanish! The cost of the club is $50 & includes copies of the vocabulary booklet, their last class meal at a Hispanic food restaurant, and class snacks. Information about the restaurant, transportation to the restaurant and permission slips will be sent home after the sessions start.
