

Saint Ann School

Where Faith & Knowledge Meet

Sixth Grade Reading List 2021

Required Reading

The Magician's Nephew by C. S. Lewis

Book and assignment must be completed by the start of School

Assignment:

C.S. Lewis used the genre of fantasy to create a world in which characters must regularly confront issues of good and evil, right and wrong.

- Write your own fantasy about a kingdom.
- Create a world based wholly on your imagination, filled with fanciful creatures facing conflicts that test their strength, courage and morality.
- Decide how you would run your kingdom.
- Decide on the name of your kingdom, what laws you would put into effect, and how you would divide responsibilities among you.
- What would you like to be called: just, valiant or magnificent?

Your essay must be at least 3 paragraphs.

Be ready to share your essay with the class.

Choice Book

Bring in one of the following books as an independent reading book. You do not have to read the book you have chosen over the summer, but you must bring it to school on the first day of school.

Please choose one of the following books:

The Lightning Thief (Percy Jackson and the Olympians) by Rick Riordan

Things Not Seen by Andrew Clements

All Creatures Great and Small by James Herriot

The Orphan of Ellis Island by Elvira Woodruff

Matilda by Roald Dahl

The Winger by Jerry Spinelli