Reflecting on the Word - John 2:1-11

In today's Gospel, we see Mary summon Jesus to solve a dilemma at a wedding feast. Mary is, in effect, calling Jesus to start his ministry. When Jesus turns the water into wine, Jesus is not only solving what seems to be a problem but beginning the work for which his Father sent him. His hour had come. Sometimes we do not realize that we are being called to do the work of God. We must always be open to the mystery of being called and allow God to transform us for the work we must do.

What can you give to the world? What might happen if you do so?

How can you encourage another to follow the will of God?
