Palm Sunday

Reflecting on the Word – Luke 19:36-40

As we take our palm branches before the procession today, we enter into the holiest of weeks in the liturgical year. Palm Sunday begins with our joining with disciples of Jesus' time in rejoicing that the Messiah has come. The Gospel at the procession is clear that even creation knows that Jesus should be praised. When the Pharisees told Jesus to rebuke his disciples, we hear that if the followers do not praise Jesus, then the stones will do so.

- What did it mean to you to carry the palm branch last year?
- Why do we rejoice today even before Jesus rises from the dead?

A medida que tomamos nuestras ramas de palma antes de la procesión de hoy, entramos en el más sagrado de las semanas en el año litúrgico. El Domingo de Ramos comienza cuando nos unimos a los discípulos de la época de Jesús al decir que el Mesías ha venido. El evangelio en la procesión es claro que incluso la creación sabe que Jesús debe ser alabado. Cuando los fariseos le dijeron a Jesús que reprendiera a sus discípulos, escuchamos que si los seguidores no alaban a Jesús, entonces las piedras lo harán.

- ¿Qué significó para ti llevar la rama de la palma el año pasado?
- ¿Por qué nos regocijamos hoy incluso antes de que Jesús resucite de entre los muertos?

Every catholic is to be a missionary disciple, and agent of Evangelization. And the evangelically alert Catholics must be well formed Catholics. This splendid series will prepare Catholics to enter mission territory every day, offering others its friendship with Jesus Christ.

MEMORIAL BELLS OF ST. MARK'S CHURCH

In memory of the former St. Mark Church, I am planning to build a memorial in honor of the Church and it's former parishioner living and deceased. The Mermorial Bells (from St. Mark) will be built in front of the Divine Mercy Rectory. Please support me in this effort, especially the former members of St. Mark's Church.

Sincerely,
Rev. Alexeander T. Cruz

THE PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

Pope Francis has asked our Parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land.

Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic Schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the Sacred Shrines. The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the World in Solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

Thank you!
