SUNDAY READING

Wisdom 18 : 6-9
 Psalm 33 : 1, 12, 18-19, 20-22
 Hebrew 11 : 1-2, 8-19 or Hebrew 11 : 1-2, 8-12
 Gospel Luke 12 : 32-48

Reflecting on the Word – Luke 12 : 32-48

We are called not just to wait idly for God's coming but to be in an active state of readiness. The disciples believed that GOD could be coming at any moment for the final days of earth. There was an excitement and expectancy to everything they did. In this day and age, surrounded by so much technology, the immediacy of God's ever present love among us can seem to be lost. It is worthy to reflect on whether we are alert to God's presence. What are you waiting for currently? What is the value of being bored? When was the last time you let yourself experience boredom?

***

Estamos llamados no sólo a esperar ociosamente la venida de Dios sino a estar en un estado activo de preparación. Los discípulos creían que DIOS podría venir en cualquier momento para los días finales de la tierra. Había una emoción y expectativa en todo lo que hacían. En esta época, rodeada de tanta tecnología, la inmediatez del amor siempre presente de Dios entre nosotros puede parecer perdida. Es digno de reflexionar sobre si estamos alerta a la presencia de Dios. ¿Qué estás esperando actualmente? ¿Cuál es el valor de ser aburrido? ¿Cuándo fue la última vez que te dejaste llevar por el aburrimiento?
