32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury." - Mk 12:42-43
When we celebrated our united parish Masses at the New Castle High School Auditorium on the weekend of October 20 and 21, we had five Masses. They were all very well attended and the music and vibrancy of the celebrations were exciting and contagious with the spirit of unity and hope. On October 27 and 28, we celebrated Masses in all seven parish churches and there were 13 Masses! Now think of this. Most of you will attend one Mass on the weekend, but the priests have to celebrate a multitude of Masses, particularly when we are going to seven different places. This is not a long-term solution to our problems.

Practically speaking, it can be very confusing for you and for us. In fact, on more than one occasion, one of us, myself included, thought we were to be at one place celebrating Mass at a particular time when, in fact, we were scheduled to be at a different church at a different time. The end result is that a communion service has to be celebrated, the priest feels terrible for getting confused about the schedule, and the people are annoyed.

I said at one of my Masses in a homily that if we have seven pencils, anyone, even a child, could break a single pencil with one hand; but if we hold all seven pencils together, not even the strongest person among us could break those seven pencils with one hand, and probably not with two hands. It is obvious that we are so much stronger when we are combined as one than being single entities. Think how strong we will be financially and as a spiritual community when we all come together as one! Keeping the main thing the main thing is a must. Our faith in Jesus Christ and passing that faith on to the next generation is our goal, our quest, our purpose!

God love you,

FR. MAC

Every Day Stewardship

What does sacrifice look like? I think of those who serve in the Armed Forces. They have sacrificed much for my freedom and to work towards real peace in our world. I think of those in service to our Church: priests, deacons, and religious. Their lives are dedicated to prayer and good works so that the Good News might not only be preached but be seen in the love they display toward God and their fellow brothers and sisters. I think of parents who stay up long nights with sick children and then one day find themselves staying up even longer as they wait for them to return home. I think of teachers who work hard, with low salaries and little respect, to educate the next generation of citizens.

I can see sacrifice all around me. I think you can see it, too, if you look. However, I also see too many seeking to get ahead at the expense of others. I see those who have so much and only crave for more. I see those caught up in themselves to the point where families fall apart, friendships disappear, and people literally die from a lack of compassion. I see many who have forgotten where all their gifts in this world came from, if they even knew in the first place.

I think of all those who sacrifice and see all those who do the opposite. May our eyes see more of those who are generous. May we never focus on those who have forsaken others more than those who have given freely to others. May the witness of true sacrifice show us the way to the Father and to a world full of His love.

Catholic parishes take collection for Tree of Life Synagogue

Bishop David Zubik has asked every parish in the Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh to take up a special collection to aid the three Jewish congregations that worship at Tree of Life synagogue in Squirrel Hill. Families associated with the three congregations face expenses associated with the deaths of 11 members and the wounding of other members. The building itself suffered damage that will require repair and renovation. “This collection is a gift of love and solidarity from one religious community to another, to say that the Catholic people of Western Pennsylvania suffer with you and we are here to support you,” Bishop Zubik said. “The congregations at Tree of Life are free to use these donations in whatever way they believe is right, to help their members recover and to restore their house of worship.”

Donations will be taken up as second collections at all Masses Saturday, November 10th and Sunday November 11th.

TRIVIA ANSWER: G) All of the above

Elizabeth was born in 1207, the daughter of the King of Hungary. She married royalty at the age of 14 and had three children. But rather than living a life of luxury as was expected, she chose a simple lifestyle and plain clothes and sought to become one with those who were poor. She devoted herself to giving food and alms to those in greatest need and caring for the sick and suffering.

After 6 years of marriage, her husband, Louis, died in the Crusades leaving her grief-stricken. She joined the Secular Franciscan Order and founded a hospital to care for the sick. Her health declined and she died in 1231 living only a brief life, but manifesting great love for those poor and sick.

St. Elizabeth is often pictured with a basket of bread or a basket of roses. Legend gives us a story of her carrying bread to the poor in secret. Once when she was noticed by a relative and her basket was opened, it was filled miraculously with roses. Elizabeth understood well the message of the Gospel to serve the humblest needs of others. Never lording it over others nor considering someone unworthy of help, she saw Christ in each person and responded with compassion and love. Her life is an example to all of us to reach out to others, with no exceptions.

How appropriate that St. Elizabeth Hospital in Youngstown is named after this gentle saint. May Elizabeth’s story inspire us to take seriously the words of Christ, “As long as you did it for one of these, the least of my sisters and brothers, you did it for me.” Matthew 25:40

- Goal: $38,976.00
- Received: $46,487.30
- PS Overage/Transferred to Savings: $7,511.30
In order to meet the goal of the parish
"To deepen our own faith in Jesus Christ in order to bring it to and share it with others"
We set goal of "titheing" our income to Charitable Contributions.
Because of the generous donations of many we were close to our expectations.
