Palm Sunday

As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. - Lk 19:36, 37b

A very blessed Holy Week to all of you and your loved ones. Hopefully, everyone will be able to set aside some time for reflection on our Lord’s Passion, Death and Resurrection. These are the highest holy days of the year for us Catholic Christians. Please try to make every effort as a family to participate in the sacred Triduum: Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter. For your convenience and participation, liturgy times are posted below.

In addition, our parishioner, Angelo Perrotta, has been live streaming our weekend Mass and will be doing some of these special liturgies on his tv station NCTV 45. You can access this broadcast in a number of ways. If you have Comcast Xfinity on your smart phone or other device, press the Xfinity button, go to apps, choose YouTube, go to NCTV 45 on your search. You will see the Mass labeled just like it is on our parish websites. If you have any questions, call the station at 724-510-7345 and they will assist you.

We also have the Masses and homilies available on our parish websites: www.catholicnewcastle.org/, www.stjamesetheapostle.org/homilies, www.stcamillusparish.org and www.xpthekingparish.com

God love you,

TRIVIA ANSWER: D) Passover

The Jewish feast of Passover is a holiday that commemorates the Jewish people being freed from slavery in Egypt. After over 400 years of slavery, Moses told Pharaoh that he must "Let My People Go." Each time Pharaoh refused to release the Israelites, another plague was brought upon the Egyptians. There were 10 plagues in all (Blood, Frogs, Lice, Beasts, Cattle Disease, Boils, Hail, Locusts, Darkness, Slaying of the Firstborn) sent down upon Egypt, but still the Pharaoh would not let the Israelites go.

In the final plague, the Angel of Death ‘passed over’ the homes of the Jews, because they had been forewarned and instructed to put lamb’s blood on their doors, so that death would spare their first born child. Finally, after the 10th plague, Pharaoh relented and the Israelites were released from bondage. (See Exodus chapter 12 for more on this.)

For centuries the Jewish people have celebrated the feast of Passover, remembering God’s enduring faithfulness despite the unfaithfulness of the Israelite people. (This year the festival of Passover will be April 19-27.)

We, as Christians, continue to celebrate Passover, our passing from slavery to freedom because of God’s extravagant, merciful love for us in Christ Jesus. The English word ‘passover’ comes from the Hebrew word ‘pesah’ which refers to death passing over the homes of the Israelites when the rest of Egypt was struck down.

Our term ‘paschal’ comes from the same derivation. At Passover time Christians celebrate Easter and the ‘paschal mystery’ of Jesus, his death and rising to new life. Through his blood shed on the cross, we are saved and “passed over” to live the glorious eternal life of the Risen Christ.

For us Jesus Christ is the new Passover. This is what our feast of Easter is all about!

‘Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.’ (Colossians 3:16)
Seven themes of Catholic Social Teaching

The Church’s social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through a tradition of papal, conciliar, and episcopal documents. The depth and richness of this tradition can be understood best through a direct reading of these documents. In these brief reflections, we highlight several of the key themes that are at the heart of our Catholic social tradition.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching.

In our society, human life is under direct attack from abortion and euthanasia. The value of human life is being threatened by cloning, embryonic stem cell research, and the use of the death penalty. The intentional targeting of civilians in war or terrorist attacks is always wrong. Catholic teaching also calls on us to work to avoid war. Nations must protect the right to life by finding increasingly effective ways to prevent conflicts and resolve them by peaceful means. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.
This week’s Outreach profile of the Knights of Columbus is to remind parishioners that familiar Catholic organizations also practice social ministry.

The Knights of Columbus is an international Roman Catholic fraternal organization started by Fr. Michael McGinney (1852-1890). His purpose was to help Catholic men maintain their assets for their families. In other words, to help their widows and their children since, during this era, the men of Catholic faith were very poor. To do so, an insurance plan for the Catholic workers was developed to protect their families. This continues to be a goal of the modern Knights of Columbus who are also charitable to all Catholic organizations and who serve their communities.

The Knights’ stated mission is to promote and conduct educational, charitable, religious and social welfare works, render mutual aid and assistance to sick and needy members and their families and provide insurance products and annuities to benefit members, wives and children.

Knights of Columbus is the world’s largest Catholic fraternal service organization, with over two million members worldwide. Charity is the first principle of the Order. Members of the Knights of Columbus have an opportunity to help their families through the assets of the insurance program which has over a billion dollars through a vast number of policies. The Knights are also a community service organization whose members participate in a variety of projects. In addition, they are a close fraternal group which encourages members to help one another. The Knights promote faith in God, his son, our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit.

The Knights are in charge of numerous charitable activities such as the Bishop’s Project. The Knights of Columbus strive to support the needy, the underprivileged, the right to life, and above all support our Brother Knights and their families.

There is a social meeting on the 4th Wednesday of the month on the lower level of St. Mary’s Church. This month’s meeting is April 24th at 7:30 p.m. All Catholic men in good standing 18 and over are welcome. For more information please contact Brian Frank at 724-658-8132 or Frank Ludovici at 724-654-3059.

SEVEN CHURCHES VISIT
The Seven Church Walk has its roots in the latter half of the 16th century. On the Wednesday of Holy Week, St. Philip Neri and his companions would set out to visit the four major basilicas of Rome, as well as the three most significant of the minor basilicas. They would pack picnic lunches, sing songs and pray litanies along the way, pausing at each of the seven basilicas for catechesis and prayer.
It has been part of the Roman Lenten tradition ever since.

A bus will leave from St. Camillus Church,
314 W. Englewood Avenue, following the 7:00 pm Mass of the Lord’s Supper there on Thursday, April 18th.
Other churches visited will be Villa Maria, St. James the Apostle, Mary, Mother of Hope, St. Joseph the Worker, St. John Maronite and St. Vitus.
Once back at St. Camillus, light refreshments will be served in McGurk Hall.

Please call Sheryl at 724-698-7136 to reserve your seat.

There is no cost. Please join us!
