THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. - Lk 9:16
Long before I was ever assigned to the seven parishes of Lawrence County, I was supporting St. Vitus School. The generous people of Sts. John & Paul were interested in supporting the less fortunate of the diocese. On our own and without any direction, guidance or approval of the diocese, I was privileged through their generosity to offer financial support to a number of struggling schools throughout the diocese. St. Vitus was top among them. Little did I know then that one day I would be responsible for these parishes and this very special school.

_Schools like St. Vitus can only survive through the generosity of other people beyond our community. And there are many who are supporting us of whom you may not even be aware._

It is important that you know I am serious about keeping St. Vitus School open and that means making it the school that this community wants and will support. This is a critical time and this coming school year will be a true test for all of us. I am very grateful to Mr. Justin Venasco who led the school through this past year and reintroduced many important aspects of religious devotion and community outreach which had been let go. I am very grateful to him as is the whole St. Vitus School family. However, as we enter into this very critical time, _I believe additional help and experience are needed_.

_That is why I have hired Mr. Edward Sharbaugh_ as our new principal. This is a tremendous win-win for our school and possibly for our future.

_Mr. Venasco will remain on our team_ and doing those aspects of education that are so critical with the gifts that he brings to our students. Mr. Sharbaugh will be an added benefit to our school bringing administrative experience, enthusiasm and the keen ability to think outside the box to solve problems and truly help increase enrollment and stabilize our enrollment for the future.

On my part, _as pastor of our new parish of Holy Spirit, I am doing everything I possibly can to pull this community together, to strengthen it by the bonds of our faith in Jesus Christ and to pass that faith on to the next generation_. We have hired a new youth director and a new middle school faith formation coordinator. We are developing a new faith formation program and we are serious about turning this ship around so that we are heading in the right direction. It will take some time and there will be some painful changes, but as the saying goes, the definition of insanity is to do the same thing over and over again and expect a different result. We have to make changes if we want a different result. We are not happy with the results we are getting and we have to do what we have to do to make things better.

I am extremely grateful to Mr. Venasco and all the gifts and talents he brings to St. Vitus School and will continue to bring in his own unique way. I am also extremely grateful to Mr. Ed Sharbaugh for his willingness to step forward and accept this enormous challenge with great enthusiasm and optimism. I am grateful to Patrick Neve, our new youth director, and our new middle school faith formation coordinator, Maggie Bahm, and I am grateful to all of you, the parishioners of all seven parishes, as we become one parish in the Holy Spirit! _Please join me in being of one mind and one heart with the determination to do whatever we can and must to build this faith community and to pass on the salvation Jesus offers us to the next generation._

God love you,

CATHOLIC TRIVIA QUESTION

How well do you remember some of the things you learned about our Catholic religion? For your fun and enlightenment test yourself today on this question and then check your response by asking your neighbor ... or look for the answer online on St. James website ... or continue reading in today’s bulletin.

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. What is the traditional Latin name of this feast?

A) Ave Maria
B) Venite Adoremus
C) Kyrie Eleison
D) Agnus Dei
E) Corpus Christi
F) Adeste Fidelis
G) none of the above
Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

So where do we begin with this idea of allowing Jesus to be the teacher of our children? How do we help them to learn to listen to God in prayer? What exactly is the religious potential of our children? You might be amazed to know! Discover for yourself on July 8, 22, August 5 6:30-8:00 PM @ the atrium in St. Camillus Religious Formation Center. We will begin to discover what the religious potential of our children really is. The cost of the book is $25, and you may come and join our discussion at any point. Please contact Vicki Pavalko for more information at 724-498-0904.

Come, Holy Spirit!
Trivia Answer: E) Corpus Christi

The feast of the Body and Blood of Christ is traditionally known as Corpus Christi in Latin. Aren’t you glad your remembered (or learned) some Latin?

On this feast day, we hear Scripture readings that speak of eating and drinking. Isn’t it interesting that Jesus chose eating and drinking as the principal way to remember him! He was building on a long tradition. In the book of Genesis, we learn that the offering of bread and wine celebrated God’s victory over enemies. In the book of Isaiah, the glorious day of the Lord is envisioned as a great banquet with rich food and over-flowing goblets. What could be a more appealing picture of being in complete union with our God than a grand feast!

The celebration of Corpus Christi reminds us that Jesus feeds us through the medium of the body – his body and ours. Christ becomes what we eat and drink so that we might become what he is – beloved Child of God. Just as truly as the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus, so also do we. Think about what that actually means. Truly, awesome!

At every liturgy, the sacramental presence of Jesus in bread and wine enables us to be fed spiritually and physically. Then, like Jesus’ first disciples, our commission as the Body of Christ is to go out and “feed others” with the Body of Christ. Do people recognize Jesus in what we “feed” them in our lives? Do our lives really feed others with the values and actions of Jesus? If I answer honestly, that surely makes me squirm! How about you?
An unlikely inspiration for evangelization?

Rain. Rain. And more rain. This has been our daily experience throughout the month of June. It’s beginning to feel like the monsoon rainforests of the Khasi Hills of Northeast India. While monsoon rainforests normally get between 100 to 200 inches of rain annually, Cherapunji, India holds the record for the greatest one-year precipitation total anywhere – 87 feet from August 1860 to July 1861. North of Lawrence County in Smethport, Pennsylvania, the American record is held for the biggest 12-hour rainfall amount. Nearly three feet of rain (34.30 inches) fell in just 12 hours on July 18, 1942.

You may be asking, “What does rain trivia have to do with evangelization?” It makes for a perfect segue for striking up a conversation with someone about faith and Scripture. Actually, trivia of any kind can be the icebreaker needed for talking about more important things. An example of a segue you may have in a conversation with someone might sound like this:

“It is raining so much I can’t even mow my grass. The flooding from all this rain is beginning to make me feel like I need to build an ark like Noah did. Did you know in Kentucky someone built an ark according to the dimensions given in the Bible? How do you think Noah was able to get two of every animal on the ark? Do you think this is a true story?”

That conversation starter may sound a little lame, but you get the idea. Don’t be afraid to turn an ordinary conversation into something that may lead to sharing about the wonder and awe of our Catholic faith. You never know what will grow from your conversation. The outcome just may be as fruitful as the rising grass in our yards.

Parents, are you looking for a fun activity for your kids this summer? How about Choir Camp?

There will be a Choir Camp at St. Alexis Parish in Wexford (sponsored by the Catholic Community of Wexford) on August 5-9 from 9:00 am until noon. The camp is open to children entering 1st grade through 8th grade. Yes, it’s singing, but there is much more! There will be bell ringing, instruments, games, crafts and more. To top it off, there will be Mass on Saturday, August 10th at 4:00 pm at St. Alexis where the participating kids can share their talents. High school students and adults are welcome to come and volunteer. Best of all, it is FREE!!! I can’t think of a better way to keep your kids close to the Church while having fun and learning!

Registration forms are available and due by July 26. Please let us know if you’re interested. We can organize car pooling! Maybe you’d like to stay and volunteer or maybe you’d like to arrange transportation for your child on your own and do some shopping or run errands during the camp. In any case, let us know who is interested in coming from Holy Spirit Parish. Please e-mail Brenda Kostial at bkostial@gmail.com.

Dear St. James Parishioners,

It is with mixed emotions that I share with you my decision to leave my ministry position at St. James Parish. After serving as Director of Religious Education and Adult Faith Formation for 21 years, I am very thankful for the opportunity I have had to minister with you, my friends, the beautiful and faith-filled parishioners at St. James. When I look back over the years, I recall so many wonderful memories of sharing joys and tears with you and your families. I truly have been blessed by you in countless ways. You have touched my life with love and acceptance and for that I am most grateful. I hope that you will be able to stop in the Social Hall after Mass next Sunday, June 30, so that I can thank you personally.

Some of you have been asking what the future will hold for me. That is a question I have been pondering also! I plan to continue living in Youngstown, but that is all I know at this time. I am still discerning what ministry God is calling me to next and hope that the answer will simply drop in my lap effortlessly. However, I must admit that I’m praying it does not come real soon, as I am also looking forward to some down time this summer to rest and relax.

I ask that you please remember me in prayer and I will certainly continue to pray for you, as you will always be in my heart.

With love and gratitude,

Sr. Zoe Ann

“I give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in my prayers.”
1Thessalonians 1:2

Sister Zoe Ann Reiter, HM is leaving us!

Maybe you attended GIFT at St. James or Bible study. Perhaps you’re a fellow Notre Dame fan or a JOY renewalist. Your children could have gone through CCD or VBS, or were baptized at St. James in the last 21 years. You may have prepared for marriage or completed RCIA. Whatever the case may be, you met Sister Zoe Ann and benefitted from her expertise in our Catholic faith. Even if you merely enjoyed the trivia questions in the bulletin or read the emailed prayer requests and death notices, we invite you to come to the 8:45 am Mass at St. James on June 30 and the reception afterward in the Social Hall to thank Sr. Zoe Ann for her many years of service. All parishioners in the grouping are invited.
Dear ALL of Holy Spirit Parish,

As Pastor of Holy Spirit Parish, it is my responsibility, moving forward, to do the difficult task of assessing the needs of this new parish configuration. One such area being evaluated is parish staffing.

To that end, please be advised that I have carefully considered, with my Pastoral Team, all the staffing needs of our new parish configuration. New job descriptions have been created. The former positions will not exist; therefore, all positions will be posted. People from within the parish as well as in the broader community may apply for any of the positions. These positions will be rolled out over the next three months.

Beginning with Faith Formation, we have studied current staffing responsibilities and determined that, at this time, our needs would be best served by the following positions:

- Director of Primary Faith Formation Grades K–5 (full-time)
- Director of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (part-time)
- Coordinator of Primary Faith Formation Grades K–5 (part-time)
- Faith Formation Support Staff for Primary Grades K–5 (part-time)
- Faith Formation Support Staff for Middle School (part-time)

We have recently hired the positions of Director of Youth Ministry and Coordinator of Middle School Faith Formation. Additionally, we are posting for:

- Manager of Facilities and Grounds
- PDS/Sacramental Records

Please keep this process in your prayers to guide us in hiring the people God has chosen for these jobs and ministries.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Father Joseph McCaffrey
Holy Spirit Parish
Pastor/FBI chaplain
