Do not fear what may happen tomorrow. The same loving Father who cares for you today, will care for you tomorrow and every day. Either He will shield you from suffering or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace, then, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginings.

14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven.”

Congratulations, this is the first bulletin of our new parish of Holy Spirit, Lawrence County! It is amazing that our original logo when we were first named a grouping of seven parishes by the Bishop was the symbol of the Holy Spirit and seven stars representing the seven parishes united as one in the spirit of God. Through your participation and the Bishop’s decision, we were officially named one parish of Holy Spirit on July 1. When we officially became Holy Spirit of Lawrence County, our logo could remain the white dove, but the stars have been transformed into seven flames. These flames symbolize the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. But we can also think of the seven flames as the seven gifts of the parishes that make up the one parish of Holy Spirit. All of you bring together your gifts, your talents, and your treasures to form this new community with the main goal of living our faith in Jesus Christ, and passing that faith on to the next generation and to future generations!

To celebrate our oneness in the Spirit, we are going to have all of our Masses again next weekend, like we did in October, at the New Castle High School Auditorium. We are very grateful to the New Castle School District for once again providing us this opportunity to gather and celebrate our faith in Jesus Christ as one community in one place. The Mass schedule will be the same as before. Because we are established as a new parish, the Bishop will be with us for the 11 am Mass on Sunday, July 14. During this liturgy, he will be the celebrant-homilist and install me as pastor and our pastoral team will be introduced and officially commissioned to serve all of you.

My sincere gratitude to our combined choirs and liturgical ministers for coming together and making our celebration pleasing to God and beneficial to all of us. This is again a wonderful opportunity for you to minister to your neighbors by offering to carpool and assist, especially the elderly, and those who might find it inconvenient to make the journey to the New Castle School Auditorium. Anything that you can do as a disciple of Jesus to bring others to the liturgies, I deeply appreciate your service. The last time we gathered, it was a beautiful celebration, my hope is that this time it will be even more enthusiastic and together we can fan into flame the Spirit of God in our midst, rejoicing that we are one in the Lord!

God love you,

Fr. Mac

Dear St. Vitus Parents and Guardians:

I am very excited to be a part of the revitalization of the St. Vitus School, which began over a year ago with the development of a strategic plan that forecasts growth in enrollment and sustainability in a thriving educational community. My decision to accept this awesome responsibility was based on two factors—the commitment and passion of the committee who put the plan together, and, knowing that with Fr. McCaffrey’s support, success is inevitable.

Our goal to be the “school of choice” in the Lawrence County community will be achieved by building on the outstanding tradition and the many successes of the school. In addition to enhancing the academic programs, we will be offering expanded spiritual, cultural, recreational, and social opportunities designed to develop well-rounded students to their full potential. While demanding academic rigor for all students in core subjects, we will have a comprehensive acceleration curriculum at each grade level to challenge the brightest and best. Students will have extensive opportunities for participation in performing arts programs, leadership classes, instrument lessons and numerous clubs. We are expanding recreational and athletic opportunities to the already highly successful basketball, archery, cheerleading, cross country and soccer programs. Swimming is planned as part of the physical education curriculum for next year for grades 2-4, woodworking for the upper grades, and a Financial Literacy program will be taught through Junior Achievement. I appreciate the value of fieldtrips to places like the zoo, museums, the science center and cultural events and I expect they will be a more common occurrence.

Our first initiative, already underway, is developing a state-of-the-art technology program. Each student in grades 3 through 8 will have their own Chromebook to support instruction driven by Google Classrooms. We are adding a new robotics and STREAM (Science-Technology-Research-Engineering-Art-Math) Lab for pre-K through 8 students, providing opportunities to learn coding, film/media, 3D printing, gaming and web design. I am most excited about the two excellent, highly qualified and certified technology teachers who will manage and ensure the success of this program.

We are also excited to announce our partnership with Duquesne University and Grove City College. They will be assisting us with Curriculum Development and Instructional Strategies through professional development for the staff. In addition, our vision is for each student in the school to have his/her own private tutor from these institutions—an education major who will collaborate with the teacher and be able to assist the student with homework and enhance their academic growth.

The most important offering at St. Vitus of the Holy Spirit is the faith formation that comes not only from religion classes but is infused in the curriculum and in everything we do. Justin Venasco has truly done an outstanding job this year. He has created a culture of faith and has empowered our students to live as disciples of Jesus Christ as they continue to grow spiritually every day. Justin will continue to fulfill those roles in which he so exceptionally performed. I look forward to working with Justin, having seen the many talents and gifts that he offers.

I look forward to seeing your child/children in the 2019-20 school year, and I hope you will promote the school to family and friends. While the smaller class size is another positive advantage of a St. Vitus Catholic education, our goal is to increase enrollment. Encourage people to take a serious look at St. Vitus to ensure they make the best and most informed decision regarding a matter so crucial to their child’s future success. Additionally, I ask everyone to be a part of this revitalization through his or her time and talents. I hope and pray that you will reach out to me to offer your support in whatever manner you see fit. If you have questions or concerns, please feel free to communicate with me accordingly. I look forward to meeting you.

God bless you and your family.

Sincerely yours,
Edward Sharbaugh

Our transition into forming our new parish has been a tremendous undertaking!

While we try to anticipate and plan for all possible scenarios, there is always something that comes up unexpectedly.

By this time, you should have received your new packet of parish offertory envelopes. This packet contains two months’ worth of offertory envelopes. The next mailing will be in the month of August for the months of September and October.

One of the unexpected items we have been made aware of is that some parishioners received two separate packets of envelopes, with two different I.D. Numbers. We discovered this was a result of families leaving one of the parishes in our grouping, and then joining another parish within the grouping. Subsequently when the seven parish data bases were merged, some parishioners ended up being added twice because of their former parish relationship.

If YOU received two packets of envelopes, please contact the parish office so that we may make the necessary corrections.

PLEASE REMEMBER:

- Mark your envelopes clearly.
- Make all checks payable to “Holy Spirit Parish.”

Thank you for your generosity and your patience!

As our young pilgrims leave Holy Spirit Parish for service work among the people in Missouri this weekend, we wish them well, fantastic experiences, and the chance to meet Jesus in others. We pray:

Lord you left your Mother in our midst that she might accompany us.

May she take care of us and protect us on our journey, in our hearts, in our faith.

May she make us disciples like herself, missionaries like herself.

May she teach us to go out onto the streets.

May she teach us to step outside ourselves . . .

May she, by her meekness, by her peace, show us the way. Amen.

Do you recognize God in your ordinary moments?
If you had $100 to give away, to whom would you give it? Perhaps you would choose someone you love. How about someone on the street at a corner stoplight? You could really make someone's day if you gave it to them as a tip after a modestly priced meal. There are so many possibilities. No matter to whom you give the $100, you are certainly being generous. No one can debate that.

Let's say you have narrowed it down to two different people. You know both of these people, and you suspect each person would be equally grateful. Does it make a difference who you give the money to in the end? What if I told you that one of the individuals just got a big raise at work, and the other person is at risk of having their water turned off because they have been late paying their bill. Does it make a difference now?

Discernment should always be an important part of any good steward's way of life. If we give simply for the sake of giving, that may not always be the best use of our gifts. In order to gain the most fruit from the seeds we plant, we must plant wisely. All we have been given has value, and we need be good caretakers of it all. If you ever do find yourself with $100 to spare, be sure to carefully consider all the options and make the wiser choice. In the meantime, pray for wisdom and reflect on how to best use all you have been given for the sake of the Kingdom of God.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Gospel Reflection
This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice.

"Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

"Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

"The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it over-burden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!
Evangelism story inspired by ChristLife

Aggie is one of our ChristLife team members. She had a fruitful evangelization experience at one of her small group meetings at Perkins in New Castle. Aggie had drawn a simple sketch of what salvation means to her on paper and was sharing this with her group. During the meeting she gifted the picture to one of the members. However, this friend forgot the paper on the table and left the restaurant without it. Two weeks later when the group returned to Perkins for their small group session, the waitress who had served them at their previous meeting walked up to them and said “I remember you. You left a picture of how Christ has saved us on the table. You were gone before I noticed it so I took the picture home and put it on my refrigerator. My children and I talk about it every night.”

What a wow moment! Who knows how Aggie’s picture will continue to center this waitress’s family in the life of Christ. Maybe over time, the picture may be taken down or even thrown away, but for now, this family is discussing what Jesus means for them. God doesn’t always reveal to us the outcome of our evangelizing efforts, but when He does, it inspires us to continue to share the good news even more.

If you were given the exercise to tell someone what salvation is, not through spoken word, but only through a picture, what would you draw? How could you describe what Jesus has done for you on the cross without using words? And even more, would you share it with others?

Looking for a fun activity for your kids this summer? How about Choir Camp?

There will be a Choir Camp at St. Alexis Parish in Wexford (sponsored by the Catholic Community of Wexford) on August 5-9 from 9:00 am until noon. The camp is open to children entering 1st grade through 8th grade. Yes, it’s singing, but there is much more! There will be bell ringing, instruments, games, crafts and more. To top it off, there will be Mass on Saturday, August 10th at 4:00 pm at St. Alexis where the participating kids can share their talents. High school students and adults are welcome to come and volunteer. Best of all, it is FREE!!! I can’t think of a better way to keep your kids close to the Church while having fun and learning!

Registration forms are available and due by July 26. Please let us know if you’re interested. We can organize car pooling! Maybe you’d like to stay and volunteer or maybe you’d like to arrange transportation for your child on your own and do some shopping or run errands during the camp. In any case, let us know who is interested in coming from Holy Spirit Parish. Please e-mail Brenda Kostial at bkostial@gmail.com.
As our new parish of Holy Spirit comes together and takes form, we will have many more opportunities to get to know one another and serve each other and the broader community as Catholic Christians. One of the means to that end is the forming of a Stephen Ministry at Holy Spirit Parish. The first step was enrollment as a Stephen Ministry congregation. Since St. James the Apostle enrolled in the Stephen Ministry in 2018, we were able to have the enrollment transferred to Holy Spirit Parish rather than pay the fee again. Both Christ the King and St. James the Apostle parishes have been using the Stephen Ministry Journeying Through Grief booklets. We will now begin using them at Holy Spirit Parish. Each funeral has a family who is grieving the loss of the individual. One person in the family will be chosen to receive the booklets which they then can share with other family members. The funeral director usually has an individual who is making all of the arrangements. This person will most likely be the one to receive the booklets unless another is identified by the family.

An Ombudsman is one who advocates for people in nursing homes and personal care homes. That means you visit them at least once a month, at your convenience, and that you spend at least one (1) hour a month visiting. There is some training involved. If this sounds good, peaks your interest, and you want to know more, please call Challenges @ 724 658 3729 and ask for Jerri Wilson.
