A huge thank you once again to everyone who helped to make our new parish of Holy Spirit’s celebration an amazing time at the New Castle High School Auditorium. It was an enormous amount of work for many people setting up the auditorium for Mass and cleaning up afterwards. My sincere gratitude to Deacon John Carran for heading up this effort and making sure everything ran very smoothly from the liturgy and the coordination of ministers to the refreshments, the clean-up, and the money counters. Thanks to the music ministers, Brenda Kostial, Vickie Onufrak, Marcia Miot, Ed Petrus and Linda Rapone and the combined choirs and musicians who all did an amazing job. Thank you to our children singing, our bell choir under the direction of Marcia Miot. Thanks to Doug McIlrrot and Ken Pavalko who worked the sound system and recorded our liturgies. And, of course, sincere gratitude to our greeters, ushers and Bo DeCarbo for coordinating security. In addition, a grateful thanks to Bob Lennox and his crew for all the moving they did—equipment, the altar, and many liturgical accessories.

Our First Holy Communion children, the newly confirmed, and all who participated in our five liturgies, your presence was deeply appreciated and truly enhanced our celebration! Most of all, thank God for all of you who participated and came to our liturgies and were so supportive of Holy Spirit Parish. God has blessed us with an amazing pastoral team. With each of the priests, religious women and professionally trained staff, sharing their gifts and talents so generously and working so well together, amazingly good things are bound to happen!

So what’s next? In anticipation of us becoming one parish, six months ago we did a job analysis of all of our employees in all seven parishes. The reason was to get a handle on exactly what jobs are being done and what jobs still need to be done as we become one parish. With this information, we then analyzed what full-time and part-time positions were necessary to staff the one parish. In June and July, we have been publishing these job openings, both internally and externally and have conducted job interviews. This process will take some time before it’s complete, but so far, we have hired several positions such as youth director, Patrick Neve, and middle school religious coordinator, Margaret (Maggie) Jackson. As this process unfolds, we will continue to publish the name and title of those whom we hire. Please watch the bulletin and log onto our website, www.hsplc.org, to keep up with all that is happening.

Please pay special attention to our Holy Spirit Parish Family Gathering on July 28, the brain-child of parishioners who want to pull together our young families from across the parish. The gathering is to introduce them to one another and to show that there is a wealth of young ones, from babies through their parents and singles, of whom their fellow parishioners may not be aware. There are details in today’s bulletin and on the website, www.hsplc.org under the Coming Events picture on the Home page.

God love you,

PARISH SACRAMENTAL RECORDS:

From time to time parishioners have need to obtain information about the sacraments they have received, such as getting a Baptismal Certificate. With the founding of Holy Spirit Parish, we have been instructed by the Diocese to transfer the sacramental records of the former 7 parishes to the Diocesan Archives & Records Center. This helps maintain the integrity of those records, keeping them all together in one place rather than being distributed over multiple buildings.

Please note these records were transferred to the Archives as of July 10, 2019.

In the future, should you need a sacramental record which was recorded at any former parish, you will need to contact the Diocesan Archives by calling 412-456-3158 or by e-mail: archives@diopitt.org.

They will be happy to assist you.

Evangelization must: rest when you are weary

Every one of us has, at least once in our life, felt the sense of being too tired to do the work we have to do. When this happens, our work suffers, and those we serve suffer. We are not as joyful or enthusiastic as we could and should be. On Facebook, there is a story circulating about an employer who gives free vacations to their employees because they understand a well-rested employee is so much more productive than a tired, burned-out employee. They feel the money spent is well worth recharging the physical and mental state of their employees. The company prospers as a result. Jesus understood the importance of rest.

We see this in Mark 6:31 when after his Apostles returned from their work of teaching and healing, Jesus told them to “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” The Apostles were so busy with all the people seeking them out that they did not even have a chance to eat. Just like Jesus and the Apostles, we too as evangelizers must recharge our spiritual energy along with our mind and physical bodies. We must take care of our spiritual wellness if we are to lead others to Christ.

Have you been able to find some time this summer to rest in Christ for a while? For some of us, this may mean time spent in nature at places like Moraine State Park or on the beach at Lake Erie, for others, a daily visit to the Blessed Sacrament, or a retreat at the Villa Maria. Even if our personal circumstances make it difficult to find the time, we still need to do something that will revive our spiritual pep. The work we do to evangelize depends on it. Our efforts in building the Kingdom will be fruitful if we are renewed and energized in Christ.

Thinking about the message in today’s Mass and music

Our readings today have a theme of hospitality. In Genesis 18, Abraham is visited by three men. He doesn’t know these men, but he entreats them to stay and rest awhile. (I guess he didn’t get many visitors in the desert.) He brings them water to bathe their feet and food and drink.

In the gospel, Luke 10, Jesus is welcomed by sisters, Martha and Mary, who serve him, although Martha seems to be the one doing most of the work. Well, I’m sure that everyone was fed.

In both of these readings, the people who showed hospitality were greatly blessed and so shall we be if we show hospitality to others.

The song “All Are Welcome” by Marty Haugen shows this hospitality. Parts of the lyrics say “Let us build a house where love can dwell, where prophets speak, where love is found, a banquet hall, a place where all can safely live. All are welcome in this place.”

Another welcoming song is “All Who Hunger” by Bob Moore and Sylvia Dunstan. “All who hunger, gather gladly. Holy manna is our bread” or “We Come to Your Feast” by Michael Joncas. “We come too your feast the young and the old, the frightened, the bold, the greatest and the least.”

Let us all be a welcoming people! Show your hospitality, in food and drink, in love and friendship, in worship, in prayer and in song!
NEW HOMES BEING BUILT IN NEW CASTLE

Our team at DON (Disability Options Network) and our community partners had a vision to revitalize the Lower East Side of New Castle.

A large part of this project is the new homes being built in the Court Street area. These homes are costing between $120,000 to $140,000 to build but with the help of a grant from Federal Home Loan Bank of Pittsburgh, will be sold for between $40,000 and $50,000.

These homes have two to three bedrooms, based on family size, and are universally designed and energy efficient with attached garages!

We are looking for buyers for these homes.

If you are interested in learning more, please feel free to contact me.
