Where did the summer go? As our children and teachers begin back to school and many vacations come to an end, we are all gearing up for another exciting time of work in progress! Although the summer is often viewed as a time for rest and relaxation, an enormous amount of work and progress has been going on since October 15 of 2018! See our new website at www.hsplc.org to follow our progress in pictures. Under the Welcome tab on the website, look for Parish Life which has several albums of pictures from the October 15th joint Masses through our Holy Spirit Festival.

The coming together of seven parishes into one has been no small task. And with that monumental event many other tasks have been necessitated. One of the most important has been consolidating our work force. Interviews of all of our employees have taken place to understand exactly what jobs they were fulfilling. An analysis of what jobs we needed to fulfill as we move forward was also a major undertaking. New job descriptions and interviews for these positions also had to take place. Some of our employees decided to take this opportunity to retire or to do something different. Others have chosen to stay on board and are enthusiastic about the future. It is my pleasure to introduce some of our new employees to you as we move forward.

One of the most important jobs we have put in place is the director of facilities and maintenance. It’s my pleasure to introduce Ted Burke, who will now take on that great responsibility. We will have some additional information about Ted and the duties for which he will be responsible in the coming bulletins.

Our next step then is to interview the other maintenance and cleaning positions that will be necessary. These interviews and decisions will take place in the next few weeks.

God love you,

Reprinted from Letters to the Editor, New Castle News, Wednesday, August 7, on love counters violence in New Castle:

In the midst of incomprehensible acts of violence, something beautiful and miraculous happened in New Castle. As the sun was setting on July 31st, hundreds of people gathered in Riverwalk Park to sing, pray, share stories, and comfort the families of our community. The gathering itself transcended all boundaries of race, class, religion, culture, ethnicity, and political affiliation. It was a gathering of diverse people into one body. The people of New Castle became living witnesses that the love that comes from God, and is shared with each other, is even more powerful than death itself.

Those of us who were sitting on the speakers’ platform could not help but be moved by the faces of members of the Mason, Jevcak, Jones, Eisenhuth, and Keller families. It was an evening to recall losses, but also for reconciliation and healing. As the skies grew darker under the setting sun, the community participated in a candlelight vigil. Flickering lights filled the park, dispelling the darkness and witnessing to the preciousness and fragility of human life. The glowing candles provided a visual testimony that death and tragedy would not have the final word and that through faith we have every reason to be so bold as to hope that the young lives that have been lost so suddenly and tragically will yet be resurrected for all eternity.

As night descended on our community, members of each of families released sky lanterns as, one-by-one, each of the victims was named: Markie Mason, Jazmyn Keller, Darren Jevcak, and Alissa Jones. Each lantern represented a vibrant life. As the flickering lanterns drifted above the grieving town and disappeared into the darkness, the community of New Castle celebrated its faith, its hope, its resilience, and its love. On that night we all witnessed the true face and the true spirit of New Castle.

— Deacon C. Matthew Hawkins
This weekend parishioners are asked to support two important programs of the Church in the United States: the Catholic Communication Campaign and the Catholic University of America.

The Catholic Communication Campaign, in partnership with our diocesan communications office, has been our voice in the national media: educating, entertaining, inspiring and informing the public about Gospel values. This collection helps to support our weekly televised Masses and a variety of catechetical video programs.

The financial sacrifices made by Catholic parents to provide a Catholic college education today are significant. The funds collected for the Catholic University of America Campaign will help to defray these costs in the form of financial aid through scholarships to students who would not otherwise be able to attend.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Do you know someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic? Or maybe someone who was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist? Maybe that “someone” is you!

Our RCIA program offers an opportunity to come together in a small group to explore their relationship with Jesus while learning more about the Catholic faith. Jesus asks: “Who do people say that I am?“ the RCIA session will explore this question using our personal experiences as well as exploring what the Catholic Church teaches. Through this exploration, individuals may choose to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season.

You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm accepting setting. Our RCIA program begins with an informational meeting on Thursday, September 12th at 7:00 pm in the Marian Room on the lower level of Mary, Mother of Hope worship site at 124 N. Beaver Street. For additional information, please contact Fr. Brendan Dawson at 724-652-3422 x. 202 bdawson@hsplc.org or Michele Lagnese at mlagnese2@gmail.com.

Stephen Ministers: The After People

People often ask, “What exactly is a Stephen Minister?” One way to put it is that Stephen Ministers are the After People.

Stephen Ministers are there:

... after the phone call you hoped you'd never get.

... after the funeral, when everyone has left and the emotions you've held at bay come crashing in on you.

... after the relationship falls apart and the bottom falls out of your life.

... after the doctor says, “I'm sorry, but there's nothing more we can do.”

... after the nursing home director shakes your hand and says, “Welcome to your new home.”

... after the last child honks the horn, waves, and drives away—and the house suddenly seems empty.

... after the gavel comes down, the handcuffs go on, and your loved one is led away.

... after the baby arrives, demanding more of you than you ever dreamed possible.

... after you find a pink slip with your final paycheck.

... after your family and friends have heard your story one too many times, but you still need to talk it out.

Stephen Ministers are the After People. They are ready to come alongside you—or your friends, neighbors, coworkers, or relatives—and provide comfort and support for as long after as needed.
