Welcome one and all!

April 19, 2020 Divine Mercy Sunday

Jesus, I trust in you!

Our Mission Statement
Know Christ, Love Christ, Serve Christ and Invite others to Christ through Word, Sacrament and Sacrifice!
A very blessed Divine Mercy Sunday to all of you. We particularly wish to extend our sympathy and love to those who have passed during these days of isolation. Special Masses were celebrated and live streamed having contacted the families of the deceased and expressing our extreme sympathy and prayers. We have offered live streaming Masses for all of these parishioners who died from March 15 to April 13:

- Charles Masters, Jr. 4/3
- John J. Chmura, 4/4
- Patricia Ann Clobus, 4/4
- Joseph V. Bullano, Jr., 4/4
- Julia Florence Bovo, 4/7

On this day, in which we recall the Lord’s mercy and His Resurrection, we pray that all who have recently lost loved ones will find great comfort and peace. Our Catholic Christian faith reminds us that we are only passing through this life. We are created, as St. Paul says, for a new and other existence! This is not our home. We have a home in Heaven with our Savior and all of our loved ones. That’s why we work so hard and pray so faithfully that we might all find our way safely to that kingdom of eternal life and joy.

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, you may wish to pray as a family the Divine Mercy Chaplet found on our website or YouTube—go to www.hsplc.org, scroll down and click on the large banner across the page which reads “Holy Spirit Parish YouTube Channel.” Please take some time to remember your own loved ones who are now with the Lord. Please pray for them and rejoice in eternal life our Savior has won for us.

You can find a video explaining how Divine Mercy fits into history, both of the Church and war-torn Europe. The video is called Ocean of Mercy and is available at https://watch.formed.org/ocean-of-mercy/videos/ocean-of-mercy. FORMED is a Catholic web service available to Holy Spirit Parishioners for free at this time. If you need to sign up, see the instructions on page 8 of today’s bulletin.

Another resource is a presentation offered by the National Shrine of Divine Mercy featuring Fr. Chris Alar on his video, What to do on Divine Mercy Sunday for April 19 at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=btiU8-JeOag.

As I dictate this message, I do not know what the state of our corona virus restrictions will be when it is published, but I do know that our Savior, risen from the dead, gives us great hope and promise for better days ahead! Pastoral staff is continuing to plan together with our Finance and Pastoral Councils for the day when we will come out from under these restrictions and be able to worship in person once again. I’m sure that those of you who are reading this message feel the same as we do, we can’t wait to see you in person once again!

Wishing you all the warmth, love and encouragement of this Easter joy as we continue to celebrate our Savior’s resurrection and Divine Mercy.

God love you,

BEREAVEMENT IN CHALLENGING TIMES
We want to be attentive to parishioners' needs during this time when so much is not normal. You may have seen that our website www.hsplc.org contains the obituaries of those from the parish who have died. Please be sure to notify us even if there is no funeral service so we can add them to the rolls of deceased.

Our prayers are with you and for you at this challenging time. Please see pages 11, 12 & 13 for Catholic Prayers for the Dead and Dying. You may also find them on hsplc.org/obituaries.

I hope all of you had a blessed and happy Easter. How surreal it was this year not gathering with all our family due to the continued COVID 19 Virus. However, we still have great cause to rejoice in Jesus’ triumph over sin and death; which has opened the gates of paradise for us. In those times when we feel lonely, disconnected, anxious or even afraid, let us remember those words Jesus spoke to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary as they encountered Him on that first Easter; “Do Not Be Afraid.”

Let us always remember to place our trust in the Lord, especially today as we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, knowing of His love and care for us.

Last week I mentioned we would be applying for the federal funding available through the recent stimulus package. We have made application for the SBA (Small Business Administration) for both the parish and the school. Our applications are now in process; we have been told it may take up to 8 weeks before we receive funding. These funds will be forgiven provided we use them to pay salaries, benefits and utilities. We will continue providing updates as we receive them from the bank.

I would like to give a small shout-out to my in-laws, Jim and Rose Gagliano, who recently celebrated their 67th Wedding Anniversary. I am truly blest to have such great in-laws who continue to reflect the love of Christ for His Church through their bond of Holy Matrimony. God bless you Mom and Dad, and I wish you many more anniversaries!

We want to thank you for your continued financial support of our good parish, especially during these difficult times. Below you will notice in our financial report we had a good collection for Easter. May God continue to bless you and your families and keep you always in His care.

God love you,
Deacon John

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday!
Sunday, April 19, after the live-streamed Mass at 9 am, there will be Adoration and Fr. Brendan will lead the Divine Mercy Chaplet. You can access that on our website, hsplc.org and join in.

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is very beautiful when it is sung. April 19 at 3 pm, hear a recording of that chaplet by Geoff Measel and Doug McIlrout as an Ignite event. Please tune in to hsplc.org and use the YouTube banner for the recording. A live presentation will be on Holy Spirit Parish of Lawrence County Facebook page at 7 pm. If you don’t have internet access you can also find the chaplet on your television every day at 3 pm on EWTN.

During the Chaplet, instead of the Hail Marys, you pray: "For the sake of His sorrowful passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world." During this pandemic, each time I pray that, I meditate on a particular country or region, asking God to have mercy on the people there and heal them. On some of the beads, I’ll pray for our healthcare workers, essential workers, store clerks, truck drivers, our clergy, all who suffer from Covid-19 and all who have died, from the virus or other causes, for our Holy Spirit Parish parishioners and for my family. These are just suggestions. You pray for your own individual intentions. —Brenda Kostial

Evangelization via the Internet
As of this writing, our Easter Sunday Mass has had over 31,000 views on YouTube. That number will go up as people around the world pursue the internet. Actually, the number of people watching that Mass is much greater than 31,000 when you consider there may be more than one person watching the screen at one time.

With very little effort on my part, I had family members from three different states watching our Easter Masses. I sent out a group text to my brothers and sisters and also my children. I suggested if they were looking for a Mass to watch to tune in to ours. I had family in Kansas, Florida, and Georgia watching our Easter Masses. This picture is of two of my grandchildren in Georgia watching Deacon John proclaim the Gospel. Even at the young ages of seven and eleven, you can see how engaged they are.

During this time of quarantine, suggesting to others to tune in to the internet is a very effective tool for evangelization. It takes very little time and effort on our part to show someone how to find our Holy Spirit parish Masses and spiritual reflections online. Simply tell them to type in www.youtube.com in the search bar, then on the YouTube screen, type in Holy Spirit Parish in Lawrence County. Our parish's most recent announcements, prayer services, and Masses will come up for them to choose.

The power of suggestion accompanied by the breadth of the internet is a massive way to evangelize. Can you imagine how much faster Christianity would have spread if Jesus’ Apostles had the internet to use?

—Janet Crespi

Did You know that In the Jubilee Year 2000, St. Pope John Paul II declared the second Sunday of Easter the Sunday of Divine Mercy?

At this same Mass, he canonized the humble religious, Sister Faustina Kowalska of Poland. In one of her many visions, our Lord appeared to Saint Faustina and told her that we should exercise mercy toward our neighbors by deed, by word and by prayer. We are to love as Jesus loved and practice mercy towards others.

Then in 1931, Jesus appeared to Saint Faustina and asked her to paint His Divine Mercy image. In this image, Jesus has two rays of light coming from His heart, one red and one white depicting blood and water flowing from His pierced body. The red ray of light reminds us of the blood of the Cross and the blood of the Eucharist. The white ray of light reminds us of the waters of Baptism and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

In his Divine Mercy Sunday homily in 2001, Pope John Paul II stated, "Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity."

Divine mercy is the grace and merit won by Christ on our behalf in His Passion and Resurrection.

As we celebrate the Sunday of Divine Mercy, let us “give thanks to the Lord for he is good; his mercy endures forever.” (Psalm 118:1)

May the Lord help us to spread his mercy and bear witness of it to others!

JOURNEYING THROUGH GRIEF

We, as a parish, have 182 families who are receiving the four booklets in the Journeying Through Grief series published by Stephen Ministries. Seven families have completed the series which started in the former parishes. The booklets are sent at intervals of three weeks to eleven months after a death in the family.

Seventeen members of our Holy Spirit Parish family have come forward to serve in this ministry. Some of them have experienced their own challenges and have had to take a break.

We always need more volunteers. If you would like to serve in this important ministry contact Mary Ann Isaac at misaac@hsplc.org or 724-971-8539.

BEING NEIGHBORLY:

At times like this, when times are difficult, saints are made. Please consider contacting your elderly neighbors to see if they need help.

Perhaps they need groceries and you can volunteer to do shopping for them.

If you want to volunteer, or if you need help, please call Sister Annie at 412-728-2699 or 724-652-3422 x 2205, and she will connect people together.
Catholic Prayers for Death and Dying
In spite of the awful pandemic we are facing and all of the restrictions surrounding it, our loved ones and parishioners are still unwell; some are dying or will die. Whether or not these illnesses and deaths are related to the virus or not doesn’t matter.

We priests of the parish see it as one of our most important duties to visit and pray with the sick and particularly for those near death and after death. Current restrictions and the concern about the priest either spreading the virus to others or catching it himself means that visiting our parishioners is not possible at this time. For this reason, we want to share with you a selection of prayers that family members can pray with a loved one who is dying and after the person has died. These prayers can be prayed by anyone so, in the absence of a priest, you can say them with and for your loved one.

These words are intended to give some consolation and peace to all present. You will find them in this bulletin and also on our website. Visit hsplc.org\obituaries to view the full booklet.

At his “Urbi et Orbi” Blessing on March 27th Pope Francis extended what’s called a “plenary indulgence” to all members of the Church. This gift of God’s mercy mediated through the Church is given particularly to the faithful who will die during this time when a priest cannot visit to offer Last Rites. The indulgence means that God understands the situation, knows your loved one’s heart, and will not leave them hanging.

God’s grace cannot be limited, certainty not by this pandemic.

If a loved one is dying or has died, please let the parish know. Trust in God’s abundant mercy and His love for you.

Fr. Brendan Dawson
Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; there is nothing I lack.

In green pastures he makes me lie down; to still waters he leads me; he restores my soul.
He guides me along right paths for the sake of his name.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff comfort me. You set a table before me in front of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Indeed, goodness and mercy will pursue me all the days of my life; I will dwell in the house of the LORD for endless days.

Psalm 91

You who dwell in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shade of the Almighty, Say to the LORD, “My refuge and fortress, my God in whom I trust.”

He will rescue you from the fowler’s snare, from the destroying plague, He will shelter you with his pinions, and under his wings you may take refuge; his faithfulness is a protecting shield.

You shall not fear the terror of the night nor the arrow that flies by day, Nor the pestilence that roams in darkness, nor the plague that ravages at noon.

Though a thousand fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, near you it shall not come.

You need simply watch; the punishment of the wicked you will see. Because you have the LORD for your refuge and have made the Most High your stronghold, No evil shall befall you, no affliction come near your tent.

For he commands his angels with regard to you, to guard you wherever you go. With their hands they shall support you, lest you strike your foot against a stone. You can tread upon the asp and the viper, trample the lion and the dragon.

Because he clings to me I will deliver him; because he knows my name I will set him on high. He will call upon me and I will answer; I will be with him in distress;

I will deliver him and give him honor. With length of days I will satisfy him, and fill him with my saving power.

Psalm 121

I raise my eyes toward the mountains. From whence shall come my help?

My help comes from the LORD, the maker of heaven and earth. He will not allow your foot to slip; or your guardian to sleep.

Behold, the guardian of Israel never slumbers nor sleeps. The LORD is your guardian; the LORD is your shade at your right hand.

By day the sun will not strike you, nor the moon by night. The LORD will guard you from all evil; he will guard your soul. The LORD will guard your coming and going both now and forever.
John 6: 37-40

Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it [on] the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him [on] the last day."

As the time of death approaches:

Prayer of Commendation

Go forth, Christian soul, from this world in the name of God the almighty Father, who created you, in the name of Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who suffered for you, in the name of the Holy Spirit, who was poured out upon you, go forth, faithful Christian. May you live in peace this day, may your home be with God in Zion, with Mary, the Virgin Mother of God, with Joseph, and all the Angels and Saints.

Prayers Immediately after Death

The following prayers may be recited immediately after death and may be repeated in the hours that follow.

Saints of God, come to his/her aid! Come to meet him/her, Angels of the Lord! Receive his/her soul and present him/her to God the Most High. May Christ, who called you, take you to himself; may Angels lead you to Abraham's side. Give him/her eternal rest, O Lord, and may your light shine on him/her forever. Let us pray.

All-powerful and merciful God, we commend to you (name), your servant. In your mercy and love, blot out the sins he/she has committed through human weakness. In this world he/she has died: let him/her live with you forever. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

These verses/responses may also be used:

V/. Eternal rest grant unto him/her, O Lord.
R/. And let perpetual light shine upon him/her.

V/. May he/she rest in peace.
R/. Amen.

V/. May his/her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
R/. Amen.

HELP US KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOU!
Did you receive your parish census?
If you returned it to us already, THANK YOU!
If you forgot, it's not too late to send your census back to us.

But maybe your form didn't reach you! We still want to keep in touch!
Did you move? Have a new apartment number? Did you get a new e-mail address? Give up your landline for a cell?
Whatever the case, if you could e-mail Rhonda Dolin at rdolin@hsplc.org, she can update our records, and YOU can receive important updates from your parish.
