PENTECOST SUNDAY

Pentecost, our parish birthday

A glorious and happy feast day to all of you Holy Spirit parishioners on this day of Pentecost! This is our parish feast since it is the day the Holy Spirit descended on the Blessed Mother and the Apostles. It is the birthday of the Church and the birthday of our parish, named in honor of the Holy Spirit. May our patron, the Holy Spirit, fill your minds and hearts with the love of God and the peace of our Lord, Jesus Christ!

The Blessed Sacrament continues to be exposed in the lower level of St. Joseph the Worker site so that you might adore our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament on Sundays through Fridays from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm. Now, you also have access to St. Vincent de Paul site for personal private prayer before our Lord in the tabernacle from 7:00 am to 7:00 pm seven days a week.

On May 19, the pastoral staff met in the morning and the Pastoral and Finance Councils met in the evening to review the guidelines for our re-opening set forth by Bishop Zubik. In light of these guidelines, we are planning for public Masses beginning on the weekend of June 6 and 7. Please be patient and cooperative as we begin this arduous process of the public celebration of the sacraments. Due to the coronavirus restrictions and precautions, our Mass schedule will be unique and limited. But it is a beginning and a move in the right direction. Currently, we are working on all the details to ensure that our celebration of the Holy Eucharist will be safe and reverent. Since this is a dynamic process, and things change on a daily basis, please consult our website, Flocknotes, bulletin, YouTube and Facebook sites for the most current updates and developments. As soon as information is available, it will appear on our website and these other media outlets. Our friends at the New Castle News have also been very gracious in providing information regarding developments in our parish. I am very grateful for their coverage and for the assistance they provide in helping us keep all of you and the wider community informed.

The Diocese requested we establish a COVID 19 Safety Team. I am grateful to the following team members who have accepted this responsibility on our behalf: Dr. Sheila Burick (medical doctor), Dr. Joseph Ross (dentist), Marla Brown (Pastoral Council member), Rose Butch (parish staff), Jean Pascale (parish facilitator) and Father Brendan Dawson (clergy).

On this day, when the gift of the Holy Spirit enflamed the hearts of the faithful with wisdom and grace, we pray that the same Holy Spirit will do the same for us and our community and our world. It was a day of wondrous communication! People of many different cultures and languages were able to understand one another and embrace our faith in Jesus Christ. May the Holy Spirit help all of us to communicate the love of Christ and the salvation we have through Him. The key to a happy relationship, whether it be friendship, marriage, or even in the realm of our work life, is certainly communication. There has been a major breakdown in communication particularly in the political world, but also in the world in general. Let us all, on the Feast of the Holy Spirit, pray that the gift of the Spirit will help us, no matter what our shortcomings may be, to communicate honestly and respectfully.

God love you,

This weekend we celebrate Pentecost—the birthday of the Church—the pouring out of the Holy Spirit; so Happy Birthday Holy Mother Church! Today also is the Patronal Feast Day of our parish, so we have much to celebrate in the Spirit.

This past week we began some interior plaster repairs to the ceilings of the sacristy and sanctuary of St. Mary’s along with needed plaster repairs on the sacristy walls of the Adoration Chapel. The damages occurred over the winter months due to the poor conditions of the existing roofs. The roofs have now been replaced—now we can do the internal repairs. Unfortunately, the roof replacements were not covered under our insurance because the roofs were well past their life expectancy. However, the internal repairs are being covered under insurance. The total cost to replace the roofs was $30,000.00.

Two weeks ago, I made a special note regarding our weekly collections and how we were right at budget thanks to the generosity of all of you. In today’s financial report you will notice we are now again in the red. When we think about how things have changed in the last three months, we are still very blest to be where we are financially. When we factor in the Payroll Protection Program loan that we were able to obtain, we still are in good financial shape.

I know I have stated it many times before, but I will state it again, THANK YOU for your continued support of our good parish!

In the next couple of weeks, we will begin working on next fiscal year’s budget (2020-2021). With the recent sale of the St. Lawrence Church property, we will begin to realize monthly savings on insurance, electricity, water and sanitation. In addition, we will save on the property taxes. When you add it all up it is an annual savings of nearly $20,000.00.

Wishing you a “Spirit” filled week.

Blessings,
Deacon John

Evangelization: in this column, we have been talking about evangelization by sharing a spiritual outing with someone at a shrine in our diocese. The focus this week is not a shrine but a holy place in Gibsonia. It is not flashy. There is no gold, or marble, or grand entrance, or vast ceilings, or walls adorned with stained glass windows, but a very unassuming retreat center called The Ark and the Dove.

On a weekend in February of 1967, the retreat center became famous. A group of Duquesne college students and professors attending the center experienced vivid interaction with the Holy Spirit. Patti Gallagher Mansfield was one of the students who took part in the retreat. She said the Holy Spirit took hold of her and changed her life forever.

Preparing for the weekend, Patti prayed that God would send the Holy Spirit to be more at work in her life. She followed the instructions of the professors to prepare for the retreat by praying with great hope, to read The Cross and the Switchblade, and to read the first four chapters of the Acts of the Apostles. Throughout that weekend, they sang "Veni Creator Spiritus", meditated on the Blessed Mother, and repented of their sins in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Kneeling before the Blessed Sacrament in the Chapel in the upper room of the retreat center, Patti was filled with the Spirit as were most of the students who came into the room. Their faces radiated joy, they spoke in tongues, they found themselves face down on the floor in ecstasy, and they received the charismatic gifts of the Spirit. The Ark and the Dove is the birthplace of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal. So great was this encounter with the Holy Spirit that the charismatic movement spread to millions of Catholics worldwide.

The Ark and the Dove is not a place to go and "see". It is a meager setting in which to spend time immersed in expectant prayer. Make the call and share the experience. Call 724-444-8055 or go to info@thearkandthedoveWorldwide.org.

O Breathe on Me! O Breath of God!

I guess these days we don’t want anyone breathing on us and rightly so. We all need to take precautions in the light of Covid-19, but just think of the image of God breathing life into us! WOW! Just as He formed Adam and Eve from the dust of the earth and breathed life into them, He did the same for us when we were born. Not only life, but His very Spirit! We want that Spirit in our lives! That’s why we sing today at Pentecost “Come Holy Ghost, Creator blest, and in our hearts take up thy rest” as our opening hymn. It will not be done this year with a choir and trumpets, but I will be imagining it. During the preparation of the gifts, we sing “O Breathe on Me, O Breath of God, fill me with life anew.” In this song, we imagine that gentle breath that gives us life.

At communion, we will sing “We Are One—one in the Spirit of our God.” This is a beautiful song by composer Chris DeSilva that reminds us that as Christians, we are united by this Spirit that our God has bestowed on all who believe! How wonderful it will be to sing this together when things get back to normal. To close, we will sing “Send down the Fire”, a rousing hymn asking for God to set us afire and inspire us to live a fulfilling Christian life.

Sometimes the Spirit comes as a gentle breath or a refreshing breeze. (I think of Elijah when he went up to the mountain to meet God and there was a fire and a strong wind and an earthquake, and then quiet gentle breeze and God was in the quiet breeze.)

Sometimes He comes as blazing fire, as when He entered into the hearts of the disciples at Pentecost.

I would often use these 2 analogies of the Spirit when rehearsing with the choir. Sometimes you need to sound like the blazing fire and sometimes like the gentle breeze. Be attentive to the Spirit’s stirrings in your own life!

We were baptized “In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit!” not “In the NAMES,” but, “In the NAME.”

There is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son, and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity.

This Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of our faith. Throughout history, the revelation of the Holy Trinity to the world provides our salvation.

We confess that Jesus is consubstantial with the Father, meaning that the Father and the Son are of the same substance or essence.

Jesus announced that he would send another Paraclete, meaning advocate or advisor, the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit had previously spoken through the prophets and now teaches and guides us into the truth.

We as a church confess “one God and Father from whom all things are, and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all things are, and one Holy Spirit in whom all things are.”

Our lives should be lived in communion with each of the divine persons. We glorify the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit. We look forward to celebrating Trinity Sunday next week, on June 7th!
BEREAVEMENT IN CHALLENGING TIMES

You may have noticed that within the Diocese of Pittsburgh, Funerals were first suspended, and now, in exceptional circumstances, are only permitted with a strict limit of participants, including the priest or deacon. Cemeteries are still closed to public interments.

We want to be attentive to parishioners’ needs during this time when so much is not normal. There is a weekly Memorial Mass for those who have passed in the previous week. (See Page 4 for names.) You may have seen that our website www.hsplc.org contains the obituaries of those from the parish who have died.

Please be sure to notify us even if there is no funeral service so we can add them to the rolls of deceased.

Our prayers are with you and for you at this challenging time.

JOURNEYING THROUGH GRIEF

We, as a parish, have over 200 families who are receiving the four booklets in the Journeying Through Grief series published by Stephen Ministries. Seven families have completed the series which started in the former parishes. The booklets are sent at intervals of three weeks to eleven months after a death in the family.

Seventeen members of our Holy Spirit Parish family have come forward to serve in this ministry. Some of them have experienced their own challenges and have had to take a break. We always need more volunteers.

If you would like to serve in this important ministry contact Mary Ann Isaac at misaac@hsplc.org or 724-971-8539.

Prayer of the Elderly, Saint Pope John Paul II, 1999
Grant, O Lord of life, that we may savor every season of our lives as a gift filled with promise for the future. Grant that we may lovingly accept your will, and place ourselves each day in your merciful hands. And when the moment of our definitive "passage" comes, grant that we may face it with serenity, without regret for what we shall leave behind. For in meeting you, after having sought you for so long, we shall find once more every authentic good which we have known here on earth, in the company of all who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith and hope.
Mary, Mother of pilgrim humanity, pray for us "now and at the hour of our death." Keep us ever close to Jesus, your beloved Son and our brother, the Lord of life and glory.
Amen!

Prayer For Renewed Strength
O Lord, my God,
Please give me the grace to maintain my hope in you through all of life’s changes and to taste and see your goodness.
I praise you for the gifts you have showered on me for so many years.
Help me find joy in a renewed strength of spirit. Please bless me with good health, and inspire me to be a good example to others.
For you are Lord, forever and ever.
Amen.

Our Updated Prayer List is posted to the Holy Spirit website (hsplc.org) twice a week. Since the first post on April 30th, we have had 37 individual requests, about a dozen General Intentions from the Prayer Warriors, and 31 names from the weekly Memorial Masses. More names come in every day. They are added to the list as they come in.

We want to recognize those being prayed for as the individual children of God that they are. In a very long list of names, people might fail to see the individual names. So, as names are added to the top of the list, that list is trimmed from the bottom—but only for print. Every “In Our Prayers” is printed out for inclusion in a permanent book.
