The Most Holy Trinity Sunday

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. —John 3:16
Finally, the opportunity to celebrate Mass with you publicly! What a glorious weekend this is in the Diocese of Pittsburgh and particularly in Holy Spirit Parish. On this Holy Trinity Sunday when we reflect on the self-revelation of God, one God in three divine persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we are encouraged to be united in faith and love. As there is a divine unity within God Himself, so may there be unity among His people!

I am very grateful to McClure Realty for allowing us to use this parking lot in front of the former Sears building as a place for us to gather safely to worship God. We are also very grateful to all the tenants in this plaza for their acceptance of our presence here. Please express your own gratitude to the various businesses in this plaza. You may want to write them a note, or just say something to the store managers and certainly patronize their businesses as a sign of our gratitude for their acceptance of our presence here.

How good it is to be able to celebrate our faith and receive our Lord in this most Holy Sacrament of His Body and Blood. Thank you to all of you for your cooperation, your patience. And your deep faith!

Besides this exciting day, we also have the joy of congratulating Chris Baker (3rd from the left in the picture) of our parish, who has been accepted into St. Paul Seminary to study for the priesthood. Chris served as our mission trip coordinator at the former St. James the Apostle Parish in Pulaski. He is now a member of Holy Spirit Parish and has served our youth in various ways. He is known most for his youth fundraising hoagie sales across the parish. He also recruited and worked with our youth to be the excellent Ambassadors of Hospitality who served at Holy Spirit’s 1st Mardi Gras Celebration 2020.

On June 1, we welcomed Merv Knieriem. Merv is currently in graduate studies at St. Vincent Seminary in Latrobe, PA. He has been assigned to us for his pastoral year just as Deacon Matthew Hawkins was. Speaking of Deacon Matthew, he will be ordained a priest on June 27, at St. Paul’s Cathedral. Congratulations to Deacon Matt who will soon be Father Matthew Hawkins. Details about his celebration and first Mass will be forthcoming.

Merv’s home parish is Madonna del Castello Parish in Swissvale. In the past, he has studied Criminal Justice and Criminology at Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, and attended Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Before seminary, he held various jobs, including one at Continental Airlines. Having been accepted into the priestly formation program in the fall of 2016, his studies for the priesthood have taken him to St. Paul Seminary, Duquesne University, St. Vincent Seminary in Latrobe, University of Creighton in Omaha, Nebraska. Assigned to begin theological studies at Saint Vincent Seminary in 2018, Merv just completed his second year of theological studies there. Please welcome him and the many talents he has that he brings to our parish and ultimately to the priesthood.

God love you,

JUNE 7, 2020

From the Desk of Deacon John:

This Thursday, June 11th is a special day for me as it marks my 9th anniversary of ordination to the Permanent Diaconate. I can still so vividly picture the Ordination Mass. There were 43 of us ordained that day, and St. Paul’s Cathedral was packed! The Spirit was very palpable, especially as all of us lay prostrate on the floor during the Litany of the Saints.

There is a saying that if you want to make God laugh, make plans! Well, God certainly has had a few good laughs because the plans I made earlier on in my life did not include becoming a deacon. I had it all planned out. After college, I began my banking career, got married and was blest with children. In the years of working in banking I was able to climb the corporate ladder, figuring I would be able to retire by age 55!!

Well that is not exactly how it all worked out. In the early 1990’s I did begin to feel the calling to the diaconate. I had put my application in, but at the time was not accepted. Afterwards I just figured it was not meant to be.

However, in 2005 another class of deacons was called for. I was reluctant to apply. It was my wife who encouraged me to finally do so. I was accepted into the formation program in 2006 and began my discernment.

The formation process seemed so long, and I would think “I am never going to get through this.” At the time of my ordination I could not have imagined how my ministry would unfold. I was privileged to be assigned to my home parish of Christ the King, as well as St. James the Apostle. Never did I ever expect that in just 4 short years I would be the Deacon Administrator of those parishes. It was a wonderful experience and I am forever grateful to the parishioners and staff who helped support me in that assignment through their collaboration and prayers.

Through Divine Providence I am now grateful to be assigned to our new parish of Holy Spirit, and to be working for my former classmate Fr. Mac, working with our pastoral team, and working for all of you! What a tremendous blessing it is indeed. Without realizing it many of you have helped me through these years to grow and mature in my ministry. You have supported me with your prayers and with your encouragement, for which I am so grateful.

There are several other people who I would be remiss in not recognizing and thanking for their continued love and support. To my wife, Robin, who has supported me with her love, prayers and sacrifices. Believe me when I say, I could not carry out my ministry without her support. To my sons, Jonathan and Matthew, for their love and support. I am sure is not always easy being the wife and children of a cleric, but somehow in their own way they make it look easy.

May God continue to bless each of you and your loved ones as we work together in manifesting His Kingdom here in our tiny part of the vineyard.

Blessings,
Deacon John

On the Vigil of Pentecost in the year 2013, Pope Francis held a question & answer session with different ecclesial communities. In response to questions he received regarding the most effective contributions we can make to the Church and to society, Pope Francis cited the three most important things we can do. The first is to keep Jesus as the center of our work. The second is to pray, and even more importantly, to listen to God for He will give us strength in our work. The third is to go out and witness. In the words of Pope Francis:

Don’t shut yourselves in, please! This is a danger: if we shut ourselves in, with friends, in the movement, with those with whom we think the same things... do you know what happens? When the Church becomes closed, she gets sick, she gets sick. Think of a closed room for a year; when you go in, there’s a smell of dampness, there are so many things that are not on. A closed Church is the same thing: it is a sick Church. The Church must come out of herself. Where? To the existential peripheries, whatever they are, but go out. Jesus says to us: “Go into all the world! Go! Preach! Give witness of the Gospel!” (cf. Mark 16:15)... Go outside, go out! Think also of what Revelation says. It says a beautiful thing: that Jesus is at the door and knocks, he knocks to come in to our heart (cf. Revelation 3:20). This is the meaning of Revelation. But ask yourselves this question: how many times is Jesus inside and knocks on the door to go out, to go outside, and we don’t let Him go out, because of our securities, because so many times we are in obsolete structures, which only serve to make us slaves, and not free children of God? In this "exit" it is important to go to the encounter; this word is very important for me: encounter with others. Why? Because the faith is an encounter with Jesus, and we must do the same thing that Jesus does: encounter others. (May 22, 2013 Zenit.org)

Seven years later, in light of our nation’s racial and political unrest, we must heed Pope Francis’s advice. Have courage and trust in the One who has sent us—the Holy Spirit.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Holy, Holy, Holy!

In 325 AD, Church leaders convened in the town of Nicaea in Bithynia to formulate a consensus of belief and practice amongst Christians. What resulted was the Nicene Creed, a document passed on through the ages as one of the pillars of church doctrine. The primary function of this creed was to establish a firm belief in the Trinity, counteracting the heresy of Arius, who believed that Jesus was not fully divine.

It was this creed that inspired Reginald Heber (1783-1826) to write this great hymn of praise to the Triune God, with the intent that the hymn be sung before or after the creed was recited in a service, and on Trinity Sunday—eight weeks after Easter. The tune, composed by John B. Dykes for Heber’s text, is also titled NICAEA in recognition of Heber’s text. The words evoke a sense of awe at the majesty of God, and call on all of creation—humans, saints and angels, and all living things—to praise the Godhead three-in-one.

Using reverent and apocalyptic language, "Holy, Holy, Holy!" alludes to Revelation 4:6-11; 5:13; 15:2-4; and Isaiah 6:1-3 to sing the great majesty of the triune God. If you have time during the week, look up these scriptures so you can see the source of the text and meditate on it.

Though God’s holiness, love, and purity are cloaked in mystery, we can still experience God’s mercy and mighty power, and we can participate in praising God.

It is uncommon, when researching hymns to find one included in just about every hymnal, with almost universally similar text, and yet this is the case with Holy, Holy, Holy!

I can’t remember a Trinity Sunday when I didn’t play this hymn!

Did you know that a United States city is named after St. Anthony of Padua?

On June 13, 1692, the feast day of Saint Anthony, Spanish missionaries came across a small Indian community beside a river. The Franciscan Chaplin named the river the San Antonio River. He eventually built a mission nearby which grew in size and eventually became one of the largest cities in the country, San Antonio, Texas.

Many of you know to pray to St. Anthony for lost items, but, do you know how this originated? St. Anthony had an important prayer book which contained his thoughts and notes. This book was stolen. Anthony prayed so hard for the return of his book that the thief was struck with guilt and brought the book back.

Many lost items, lost people, and lost souls have been found due to the intercession of St. Anthony. He is also known as the saint for native Americans, amputees, animals, barrenness, and elderly people among many others.

Holy Spirit Parish has been making a novena to St. Anthony that will end June 9th at 7:00 pm—the Tuesday closest to his Feast day. This can be found on our website or YouTube. Additionally, there is a beautiful stained glass window of St. Anthony at our St. Anthony worship site.

BEREAVEMENT IN CHALLENGING TIMES

You may have noticed that within the Diocese of Pittsburgh, Funerals were first suspended, and now are only permitted with a strict limit of participants, including the priest or deacon.

We want to be attentive to parishioners’ needs during this time when so much is not normal.

There is a weekly Memorial Mass for those who have passed in the previous week. (See Page 4 for names.)

You may have seen that our website www.hsplc.org contains the obituaries of those from the parish who have died.

Please be sure to notify us of a death even if there is no funeral service so we can add your loved ones to the rolls of deceased.

Our prayers are with you and for you at this challenging time.
