THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

“Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.” - Jn 6:56

OUR MISSION STATEMENT
Know Christ, Love Christ, Serve Christ and Invite others to Christ through Word, Sacrament and Sacrifice!

CLP
On Saturday, June 27, at St. Paul’s Cathedral in Oakland, our own deacon, Matthew Hawkins, will be ordained a priest for the Diocese of Pittsburgh. This past summer we were privileged to host Deacon Matthew’s diaconate ordination at St. Mary’s Church in Holy Spirit Parish. What an honor and privilege that was for our parish. Now we are looking forward to hosting a day when Fr. Matthew Hawkins will return to celebrate Mass for the first time in our parish. He has chosen the site of St. Mary’s for that Mass as that’s where he was ordained a deacon and will announce the day and time when it is scheduled.

Please join me in congratulating Deacon Matthew on his upcoming ordination and thanking him for his pastoral year of service which he provided for our parish. Deacon Matthew was with us during a very historical time of tremendous change. His priestly ordination and first Mass will be affected by the ravages of coronavirus restrictions. But when he arrived in Lawrence County, there were seven parishes and now as he leaves us to begin his life as a priest there is one parish of Holy Spirit.

For the rest of my article, I would like to invite Deacon Matthew to share a few thoughts of his own. I have also invited him in a later bulletin to elaborate much further on his experience. But for now, I would like to give him this space to say something to all of you in his own words.

God love you,

FR. MAC

To everyone at Holy Spirit Parish,
The Prophet Jeremiah said: “The word of the LORD came to me thus: ‘Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you...’” (Jer 1:4-5). Life has its strange and unexpected twists and turns. We all have work that God is calling us to do even if it is unclear to us at the outset.

When I first visited Lawrence County to conduct in-depth interviews on behalf of the diocese, back in 2008, I had no idea that one day I would be living here. Now, Lawrence County feels like home. The LORD is full of surprises. This is reassuring because it means that our lives are not accidental; God has an intention and a plan for all of us. Nothing is ever wasted. This also means that we must be vigilant so that we may respond to the voice of God when we least expect it.

As I prayed in the pew once occupied by Saint John Paul II during my final night at St. Mary’s Seminary and University in Baltimore, I felt an unworldly sense of peace offering me reassurance that God would be with me no matter what might lie ahead. I wish to share that peace with you. Each of us is called. Each of us is chosen. The LORD will accompany us every step along our journey of faith.

May God Bless you. —Deacon C. Matthew Hawkins

FINANCES

J. M. J.  From the Desk of Deacon John:

With everything starting to re-open over the last couple of weeks we finally are getting repairs completed that had been placed on hold due to COVID 19. You may recall that over the winter months we had some roof issues both at the offices at St. Vitus and the sacristy and sanctuary of St. Mary’s. These issues caused some internal water damage. We were fortunate to get the exterior repairs made prior to the onset of the COVID 19 Pandemic.

This past week the plaster repairs have been made in St. Mary’s sanctuary and sacristy. We are hoping to have the affected area in the sanctuary repainted this week. Work has also begun on the repointing of the chimney and the west wall of St. Vitus Offices. Over the years the weather has taken its toll on this particular side of the building, and as a result water has begun making its way into the inside walls causing damage to the plaster. Once the repointing is completed the internal repairs can be made.

Another area needing attention is our Adoration Chapel at St. Mary’s. The back sanctuary wall was damaged due to a leak from the roof, thus plaster repairs are needed. Additionally, we decided the entire chapel area is in need of some sprucing up. We are looking to replace the carpeting in the chapel and entrance area. The present carpeting is wearing out and it does not clean well. When the Adoration Chapel reopens it will have a fresh new look.

God love you!
Deacon John

Weekend Masses

Last weekend we resumed our Masses—outdoors—in the parking lot of the empty Sears building in Union Township. To prepare for this, Fr. Mac obtained permission from McClure Realty and the surrounding businesses to let us have our Masses there. Could you have ever imagined that we would be celebrating the greatest prayer of the Church in such a place?

Just as Jesus found it necessary to preach and feed the people with no exclusions (John 6:1-14), so too has Fr. Mac acknowledged the importance of not turning anyone away. If we had used any one of our church buildings, with social distancing, we would have had to turn some of our parishioners away. The use of the Sears parking lot has afforded us the ability for everyone to hear the Gospel and receive the Eucharist. This is evangelization and Fr. Mac is our master evangelist. He is showing us the Holy Spirit does not stay confined to a little box but flows out to where God wills it to flow. When we let the Holy Spirit hold the reigns and guide us to where God wants us to evangelize, great possibilities can transpire.

Our presence in this parking lot is indeed evangelizing business owners, their customers, and anyone who may be driving through at the time of Mass. We are showing them how important the Eucharist is by having our Masses there. They may even become curious and want to come over with us to see what we are doing.

As Fr. Mac suggested, if you are shopping in one of the stores or eating in one of the restaurants at this location, please make sure you tell them “thank you” for letting us celebrate Mass. That in itself is an act of evangelization.

I Am the Bread of Life

Today is Corpus Christi Sunday and we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. What hymn better reflects this gift than “I Am the Bread of Life”?

(#945 in the hymnal)

In 1964, Sr. Suzanne Toolan of the Sisters of Mercy was teaching in a high school and began writing this song during her free period. She writes: “When the bell rang for the next class, I decided I didn’t like the music, so I tore it up and threw it in the waste-paper basket. My classroom was next to the infirmary, where the girls who didn’t want to take tests or were otherwise unprepared for class went for a period or two until they were tracked down by an exasperated teacher. As I left my classroom, a freshman girl came out of the infirmary and said, “What was that? It was beautiful!” I went back into my classroom, took the manuscript out of the basket and taped it together. It has had a life of its own ever since.”

Today, the hymn has been printed in many hymnals and even translated into different languages all over Europe and Asia.

As the hymn became popular, a number of liturgists gave talks on why it shouldn’t work. They said it was too high. Others that it was too low. Some objected because they felt by placing the words of Jesus into the mouths of the assembly, those words were being attributed to the assembly.

It has a great message of resurrection, which is so strong in the words of Jesus. Much of the text comes from the 6th chapter of John. Please read it and ponder this great mystery and the gift our Lord has given to us! What great hope is in those words!

“I Am the Bread of Life. You who come to me shall not hunger and who believe in me shall not thirst. No one can come to me unless the Father beckons. And I will raise you up on the last day!”

God, give us grace to accept with serenity the things that cannot be changed, Courage to change the things which should be changed, and the Wisdom to distinguish the one from the other.

Living one day at a time,
Enjoying one moment at a time,
Accepting hardship as a pathway to peace,
Taking, as Jesus did, This sinful world as it is,
Not as I would have it,
Trusting that You will make all things right,
If I surrender to Your will,
So that I may be reasonably happy in this life,
And supremely happy with You forever in the next.

Amen.

Did you know that Corpus Christi means the Body of Christ?

When you think of the term “Body of Christ” do you think of the literal body of Jesus, be it the living body or the body on the crucifix, the Eucharist, or the Christian followers of Jesus? The term can have many meanings and all are correct. Let’s take a look at these three “definitions”. Jesus was a living human body, who walked this earth just as you and I do. Jesus was truly human in his actions: eating, sleeping, hygiene, etc. Jesus also died, just as each of us will do, though the reasons for his death are a bit different than for each of us. These two aspects of life and death of the body of Christ are very clear as it relates to each of us on a level that we can understand completely.

We hear the words “The body of Christ” or “The blood of Christ” every time we receive the Eucharist. This is a completely different aspect of the term. Why would we celebrate the Eucharist so soon after we just celebrated the Institution of the Eucharist on Holy Thursday? Holy Thursday is about the institution of not only the Eucharist but also the priesthood, it also has the somberness of what is to come on Good Friday. But the Feast of Corpus Christi holds the celebration of the fulfillment of Easter Sunday, the fulfillment of the salvation of the world, the fulfillment of Jesus’ words “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.” (Jn 6:56).

Christians are often referred to as the body of Christ, each of us is to be Christ to one another, we are to imitate Him, spread the Gospel message, feed the poor—we are to be His body. When we come together in prayer or worship, we are one and even if we are apart we are still one. “If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share in its joy.” (1 Corinthians 12:26) Let us remember that we must remain united and that even though we may suffer we can also share in the joy of being the body of Christ.

COMMUNITY SERVICE AT FEED MY SHEEP

Holy Spirit Parish has resumed our service at Feed My Sheep Outreach Ministries in New Castle.

On the first Tuesday in June, members of the former Bingo Crew from the St. Mary’s site prepared their famous sandwiches and packed take home lunches which included chips, an apple from Dawson’s Orchards, homemade cookies, and a candy bar for clients who utilize the agency at 540 E. Long Avenue, New Castle.

When we delivered the food to waiting volunteers at the Feed My Sheep kitchen area, the sound of joyful singing could be heard coming from the sanctuary upstairs. “Yes, they will know we are Christians by our love!”

God bless all those who help with this effort. If your group would like to serve on a future first Tuesday, contact Mary Ann Isaac at 724-971-8539 or misaac@hsplc.org.
