Welcome one and all!

26th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him.” - Mt 21:32

OUR MISSION STATEMENT
Know Christ, Love Christ, Serve Christ and Invite others to Christ through Word, Sacrament and Sacrifice!
It is a very foggy morning as I compose this bulletin message. When there is heavy fog, it always reminds me of how limited our vision is relative to what God sees. I know beyond the silhouetted trees there is a house and a barn, but my eyes cannot perceive it on this foggy morning. I know it’s there. And if I move in the direction of that place, it will become visible. I believe this is very similar to our lives with God. God sees and knows all. But we must move forward, trusting that as we move we will see more clearly what God has laid out before us. This is true in our daily living; it is true as we move forward as a parish community and as a country and it is ultimately true as we move from this life into eternity. We cannot see what is before us until we trustingly step forward.

We have no choice but to move forward. If we stand still, we forfeit our future. But if we move forward, trusting in the Lord, and doing everything we can to conform to his holy will and Gospel, we know we will come to the destination he has prepared for us.

This is a very foggy time in our history as a people. We can be unsettled by the pandemic, the political upheaval, the anxiety surrounding a presidential election. But we can trustingly and confidently move forward clinging to our faith in Christ who always offers us good news and tenacious hope!

This weekend it would be wise for all of us to prayerfully renew our trust in God. Recall all of the blessings in your life. We tend, too often, to focus on the trials and tribulations, the heartache and disappointments, but in the midst of all the commotion, the chaos and the fog, God is by our side, blessing us abundantly beyond all that we deserve. As we are blessed to celebrate the Holy Eucharist this weekend, whether inside or outside, let us truly be Eucharist! Let us be thankful, grateful and express heartfelt appreciation for the love of our God and the blessings he bestows upon us in countless ways each and every day. Filled with this confidence of God’s love for us, his presence with us, we can confidently move through these misty days and experience the warmth of His love and the brightness of His truth achieving His goal for us which is far beyond anything we could imagine!

God love you,
The Saturday 4:00 pm Mass will be celebrated in St. Camillus and St. Vitus churches.

On Sundays, Mass will remain at 9:00 am and 11:00 am in the former Sears store parking lot.

SEPTMBER 27, 2020

J. M. J. From the Desk of Deacon John:

This past week repairs were made to some of the sidewalks and steps at St. Camillus. Repairs will be started Monday, September 28th on the entrance steps at St. Vitus located at the alley off Maitland Street. (Across from the Gift Shop.) If you attend daily Mass at St. Vitus, please note that this entry will be closed for several days. We apologize for any inconvenience. These repairs will ensure better safety for all.

This coming week we are undertaking a major project in having all the air ducts cleaned at St. Vitus. Due to the scope of the work, which will take two days, please note the parish office will not be open on September 24th and 25th.

The staff will be working remotely, and phones will be answered as usual. Again, our apologies for any inconvenience you may experience during this time.

Our parish school has now been open for two weeks. Many thanks to our teachers and staff who worked so hard in preparing for the reopening of school, especially in having to deal with changes caused by the COVID-19 Virus.

Some of these changes now require our teachers to check the temperatures of our students prior to their entering the classroom each day. In order to streamline this process, students now enter the school building through multiple doors. The alleyway between the church and school buildings is now used for dropping off and picking up students. We ask when you are using the alleyway, take extra care, as students may be coming out of the building.

The most dangerous is the gym door, as it opens directly into the alleyway.

May your week be filled with God’s peace, grace and love.

God love you! Deacon John

EVANGELIZATION AND MUSIC

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Did you know that Jesus emptied himself when he took on a human body?

Jesus gave up his divine nature in part to take on a human nature so that he could fulfill the will of God. It is through his emptying that he was able to join human nature to the divine nature. The Greek word for emptied is kenosis. The kenosis of Jesus was a result of love for all mankind. It is an ultimate act of humility. Jesus sets aside all of his powers as the Second Person of the Trinity to save us.

St. Paul writes in Philippians 2:6-7 “His state was divine, yet He did not cling to his equality with God, but emptied Himself to assume the condition of a slave”. He emptying himself of his divine nature and of his own will to experience all of human nature including crucifixion. Jesus does this to be able to show the world the depth and greatness of God’s love.

We, too, are called to kenosis, to empty ourselves of selfish actions, words and thoughts so that we may be united with God and His divine will. We need to let go of all the things that keep us from accepting God’s grace and love. This is all part of God’s will.

Are you willing to answer the call?

Yes—it’s a REAL Job!

Over the years, it has come as a complete surprise to me when on occasion someone will ask me where I work. I bet you’re wondering what’s so surprising about that kind of question. Well, I’ll explain. That question has been posed by those who have seen me at the organ on Saturdays/Sundays, at funerals, weddings, Holy Days, Novenas and the list goes on. To some people, offering my musical talents to the Church may not seem like a real job, but just ask any Director of Music, organist or choir director and they’ll give you the low-down on being a church musician.

We may not punch a clock or have set hours five days a week but we put a lot of time and effort in being the best leaders of music we can be.

And that involves a great deal of preparation. Yes, we truly love sharing our talents with our fellow parishioners and if our efforts bring the faithful closer to Almighty God—well then it doesn't feel like work. It feels more like a vocation. However, it is a job—a real job (I even have an office with my name on the door!) and there is plenty of work that goes into it.

You may be surprised to know what it takes to select hymns for any given Sunday Mass. The Director of Music must carefully look at the readings, antiphons, and prayers for that day so that the hymns chosen will reinforce the message that Holy Mother Church wants to convey. That's not always easy when you take into consideration the diversity of parishioners from seven different former parishes who may have been used to certain hymns that they're familiar with. Some may prefer traditional hymns while others like the more contemporary ones. Some aren't keen on Latin hymns and others find them beautiful and reverent. So it's a balancing act.

When it comes to church music we're never going to please everyone—but first and foremost we hope to please God, because that's what the Mass is about—giving honor, glory and praise to God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

That covers one aspect of a church musician's job. There is much more to tell but I neither have the time nor the bulletin space, so I'll close with this: thank you from the bottom of my heart for your generous compliments, your kind notes and for expressing your appreciation for the work we do as parish musicians. It means more to us than you'll ever know!

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults 2020/21 has begun. The Inquiry Stage allows individuals to discern whether or not they truly want to move forward and become Catholic. Those individuals who have come forward are given our greatest blessing. The team is so proud to welcome you and encourage you as we travel this journey with you.

It is not too late to join us on Thursday nights in the Marian Room at the St. Mary site. We pray that others truly discern and hear God's calling to become part of his Church, experiencing the blessings of the sacraments and the nourishment of the true Body and Blood of Jesus at each Holy Mass.

Feeling a nudge from God? Wanting to inquire more about the Catholic Faith? Want to receive the sacraments and return to mass? Know someone interested in the faith? Join us on Thursday evenings. We would be blessed to have you. For more information about RCIA contact: Fr. Brendan Dawson at: bdawson@hsplc.org or by phone at 724-652-3422 ext. 2202

REFLECTION

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME & COVID-19 SAFETY

Mercy

Pope Francis celebrated Mass on Divine Mercy Sunday, inviting us to accept Jesus’s Mercy as the Apostle Thomas did, and to show Mercy to those around us. The Pope went on to talk about “Selfish Indifference”. He said this crisis is worse than COVID-19. This, in simple terms, is the thought that life is better if it is better for me and that everything will be fine if it is fine for me.

We need to consciously examine those around us and be merciful to those for whom things are not fine. This is a core part of our Christian Faith.

As we walk through this week, let us look around and be aware of what is happening to others. We must learn from the first Christian communities. Because they received Mercy and lived with Mercy, they shared that with those in need. Be merciful and live the faith. May God have Mercy on us all.

Word of the week: Mercy

—David Gettings, Finance Council

What’s Cookin’:
Steak & Cake!

Joe Mercurio has been cooking for more than 60 years. He began as owner of Luigi’s Pizza here in town in the 1970s as a transplant from Massachusetts, helping his father-in-law. Years later, he continues in that same spirit, cooking fundraising dinners for our parish for the past 15 years.

Earlier this month, you could find him cooking at the St. Mary’s site alongside a number of dedicated volunteers who helped make the Braised Steak Take-Out Dinner a success. The group sold 361 dinners!

In the past, Joe was a member of St. Camillus de Lellis Parish and worked mainly with fellow parishioners from that site. Now, he said, there’s a great mix of people and a lot of volunteers.

“Before it was all St. Camillus people, but now we’re working with all the people from the different sites,” Joe said. “Who washes dishes, who does the mashed potatoes, who bags the bread, who cuts the cake—it’s a fantastic feeling just working together for Christ.”

Ann Plonka is another long-time volunteer who can be found in the parish kitchen no matter what goes on. Ann started as a member of the Ladies Guild at St. Mary’s Church about 50 years ago, and has enjoyed watching our new parish grow into a united group of volunteers.

“I find it very thrilling, the fact that some of the churches will help one another,” Ann said. “I think it’s good, and I’ve gotten to meet new people.”

The dinner consisted of steak, mashed potatoes, corn, sliced bread, and a hearty piece of cake.

Bonnie Williams is one of the women who makes the cakes for these functions. For six years, she helped with monthly take-out dinners once held at St. Camillus as part of a group known as the “CCL”—Camillus Cake Ladies.

Bonnie, together with Mary Ann Thomas, Karen Madison, Mary Kay Gallano, and Barb and Sue Davis, bake in the parish kitchens in commercial-sized pans that serve up to 60 pieces of cake. Different flavors over the years have included chocolate, white or yellow vanilla, applesauce, sprinkles, and even cupcakes.

When they get together, Bonnie usually prepares something savory for the group. The ladies will bake and then enjoy a bite to eat while the cakes are cooling.

“It’s the camaraderie, the good friends that we’ve met while doing all of this,” Bonnie said. “We just have so much fun.”

From Easter bread to cabbage rolls to braised steak and more, this fundraising effort is yet another fine example of the Holy Spirit bringing our parish family together to help one another, inspire fellowship, and serve the community!

All Hail the Power of Jesus Name

All hail the power of Jesus name.
Let angels prostrate fall.
Bring forth the royal diadem
and crown Him Lord of all.
Bring forth the royal diadem
and crown Him Lord of all.

Hail Christ, you heirs of David's line,
who David, Lord did call.
The God made flesh, yet God Divine,
and crown Him Lord of all.
The God made flesh, yet God Divine,
and crown Him Lord of all.

Text: 86 86 86; Edward Perronet, 1726–1792, alt. Music: Union Harmony, 1793; Oliver Holden, 1765–1844

Psalm Response:
Remember your mercies, O Lord.
Remember your mercies, O Lord. (Ps 25)

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found
was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
and grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

Text: St. 1–4, John Newton, 1725–1807; st. 5, attr. to John Rees, b.1859 Tune: NEW BRITAIN, CM; Virginia Harmony, 1831; harm. by Edwin O. Excell, 1851–1921

We Remember

We remember how you loved us to your death,
and still we celebrate, for you are with us here
and we believe that we will see you when you come in your glory, Lord
We remember, we celebrate, we believe.

I Receive the Living God

I receive the living God, and my heart is full of joy.
I receive the living God, and my heart is full of joy.

If You Believe and I Believe

If you believe and I believe and we together pray
the Holy Spirit must come down and set God’s people free.
And set God’s people free,
and set God’s people free.
The Holy Spirit must come down and set God’s people free.

Text: Zimbabwean traditional Tune: Zimbabwean traditional; adapt. of English traditional; as taught by Tarasai; arr. by John L. Bell, b.1949

Our Parish Prayer

Lord Jesus, you told us,
"Where your treasure is, there your heart is also!
The parish of Holy Spirit treasures our faith in
You, our children, and every person who gathers here.
Help us to have the courage to sacrifice,
to love, and to build in Your name.
Guide us by Your Spirit of Wisdom, give success
to the work of our hands, and keep us
in your peace.
Saints, Martyrs, and Mary, our Mother,
pray for us.

Amen
