

Catholic Schools Week 2020

January 26th to February 1st 2020

Santo Niño Regional Catholic School Daily Catholic Schools Week Themes:

Monday: Celebrating Families

Parents, guardians and other family members play a vital role in Catholic education. Not only do they volunteer at the school, they instill values and expectations for academic excellence in their children at home. We acknowledge the role of families in Catholic education and celebrate their contributions to the success of our schools all year long.

Dress code: Spirit Dress/ School colors-Students and staff can come dressed in their spirit dress and show off their school colors.

Inspiration and ideas: Students will write thank you notes to their own parents and grandparents.

Tuesday: Celebrating Our Community

A central aspect of Catholic education is learning the importance of service to others. When students take part in service activities-both local and beyond-they demonstrate the values and Faith they gain through their Catholic education and learn how to make the world a better place. When they observe how others serve the community, they gain an appreciation for how they can continue to serve others their entire lives.

Dress code: Sports Day –Students and staff can come dressed in their favorite team jersey.

Inspiration and ideas: We will be inviting members in our community at 8:30, for a Prayer service in the gym (police, fire, military and ambulance) to come and visit our school. Students can write letters draw pictures or make posters thanking them for their service.

Wednesday: Celebrating Our Students

Schools celebrate students during National Catholic Schools Week by planning enjoyable and meaningful activities for them and recognizing their accomplishments. They encourage students to reflect on the benefits of Catholic education and how the grounding in Faith, knowledge and service it provides will help them throughout their lives.

Dress code: Crazy hat/crazy sock day-students and staff can wear their crazy hat and socks to school. Crazy/Hat Hair day-no hair dyes allowed.

Inspiration and ideas: Plan a fun activity for your students to do in your classroom.

Thursday: Celebrating Vocations

By focusing on Faith, Knowledge and Service, Catholic schools prepare children to use their God-given talents to the fullest later in life. National Catholic Schools Week offers an opportunity for students to explore the many life paths that enable them to use their talents well in the service of God and others.

Dress code: Super Hero Day-Students and staff can come dressed in their favorite Super Hero t-shirt. Super hero day-No villains(Joker, IT, Deadpool, Venom, Harley Quinn, Black Panther) Only super hero T-shirts are allowed/no costumes.

Inspiration and ideas: We will have a Prayer Service in the gym at 8:30a.m. All Priests, Deacons, and Sisters will be invited to celebrate with our students.

Friday: Celebrating Faculty, Staff and Volunteers

Teachers are the backbone of Catholic schools. On this day, schools honor teachers, as well as administrators and staff who support teachers in their important work, and thank the parents, grandparents, alumni, and parishioners who provide volunteer service.

Dress code: Pajama Day- Students and staff can wear their comfy pajamas to school.

Inspiration and ideas: Recognize teachers, principal, staff on social media for their dedication and hard work. Thank the parents, grandparents, alumni, and parishioners on social media for their support.
