“Everything the Father has is mine . . .”

The spirit of competition in our culture is strong. Some people find it difficult to acknowledge that they are not solely responsible for their achievements. We can be very presumptuous. The words and phrases we use, our tone and dialect, come from the people who raise us, or from teachers who help us learn another way. People who are successful in business or sports owe much to the parents, teachers, coaches, teammates, supervisors and co-workers who helped them on their journey to success. The intimate, albeit mysterious, union of the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity, and our union with Jesus, is reflected in the words of Jesus, “Everything the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.” Do we demonstrate in the way we live that everything we have comes from God, belongs to God and is intended to be used for ourselves and for others? Does our life reflect our gratitude to our Triune God and to all who helped us to be who we are?

PRAYER INTENTIONS & FOR THE SICK - Please remember in your prayers this week to pray for the sick of the parish, those who are in the hospital: the souls in Purgatory; the poor and suffering in the world; the special intentions in our Mass book; and Vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate and Religious Life.

“Terrebonne-Lafourche Right to Life would like to thank parishioners for their donations for Mother’s Day corsages. Your contributions will be used locally in promoting a respect for all life; especially protecting the lives of unborn babies and helping mothers choose life. Thank you for your generosity!”

SHARE THE JOURNEY CAMPAIGN – June 16th – 23rd marks the final week of Share the Journey campaign in the United States. You can join Catholics across the nation by raising our prophetic voices to bring welcoming comfort to immigrants around the world and in our neighborhoods. Today, more than 65 million people—more refugees and internally displaced people than at any other time in history—have been forced to flee their homes and homelands because of poverty and violence. In recognition of their plight, on Thursday, June 20, nations across the globe will observe World Refugee Day. Here’s how you can share their journey:

Encounter the stories of refugees: Their names and faces and stories remind us of our common humanity. Meet the people otherwise lost beneath headlines at our Share the Journey website.

Pray for refugees during Mass the weekend of June 23. Use our collection of prayers, videos, and Church teaching in support of those seeking a home.

Walk the walk by joining or registering a pilgrimage walk for refugees during that week. When you register you receive a free 7-foot banner!

Host an Encounter Dinner to better understand refugees’ hopes and fears while enjoying a meal together in your home or parish. These personal encounters can enrich our lives in sometimes surprising, always gratifying ways.
