“My food is to do the will of the one who sent me.”

As Jesus traveled with his disciples between Galilee and Jerusalem they stopped at Jacob's Well at Sychar (Shechem) in the center of Samaria, approximately thirty miles north of Jerusalem. They would have been walking since dawn. The hour was about noon, the hottest part of the day, a good time to stop for food and drink and to seek shade. The disciples go off in search of food while Jesus has a conversation with a woman at the well. He tells her of a “spring of water welling up to eternal life” and that those who drink will never thirst. Naturally, she wants such water. When the disciples return and offer him food, Jesus says, “My food is to do the will of the one who sent me.” Those are strange words indeed. But the woman understands that Jesus is the Messiah, that He is the wellspring of eternal life and that He is sustained by discerning and doing the will of God. Have we figured that out? Do we truly desire to drink from the spring of water welling up to eternal life? Do we earnestly try to discern and do the will of God?

BEING A PARTNER IN HOPE

Please know that Fr. Carlos is grateful for the response that St. Anthony parish has shown to the 2020 annual Bishop's Appeal. Thus far our parish has reached 25% of our parish appeal goal. The appeal is something that our parish supports and Father would like to see the support from our parishioners continue to grow. Your gifts are supporting our 13 seminaries, caring for our 17 retired priests, youth formation and religious education, and Catholic education. Vital ministries to our diocese that support each of us.

On behalf of Bishop Fabre, St. Anthony parish thanks all who have made their commitment and strongly encourages all of our parishioners to participate in such a worthy cause. If you have not yet made your commitment and would still like to do so, there is still time as you can return your commitment card in the offertory, or simply mail it to the diocese in the provided envelope, or you may also visit www.htdiocese.org/bishopsappeal to make your gift online.
