

Simon, the Mouse, in the Stable:

The story of what this little creature saw.

(Template on next page)

You need:

Contrasting Felt

Small Black & White Pompoms

String

Candy Cane

Glue – preferably Glue Dots you can get at a craft store.

Use the template to cut out pieces of felt.

Knot three short lengths of string together.

Cut four slits in the body where dash lines show on the template.

Thread the long, narrow piece of felt through the vertical slits; add round felt pieces to ears.

Place the pom-pom nose and eyes, and the string whiskers.

Slide the candy cane through the horizontal slits, starting under the body.

Use glue, or preferably, glue dots, to secure all the pieces.

Template: Candy Cane Mice

from Martha Stewart Living | www.marthastewart.com

