

IMPORTANT NOTIFICATION: A company called Center for Voter Information or Voter Participation Center from Washington D.C is mailing letters and voter registration cards throughout the country . Marshall County Clerk said, “do not respond and throw it away”. This group is causing concern throughout the country and the Commonwealth of KY. It can include partially pre-filled voter registration information. It may also state things like: “No one at this address is currently registered to vote” or “Recipient has moved.” Many offices around the country who deal with voter registration are getting a lot of calls from people who have voted and registered demanding to know why they were dropped, when they were not. If you have a question call the voter registration office of the Marshall County Clerk’s office at 270-527-4743. If you are not registered call the office immediately for assistance.
