Whoever welcomes
one such child
in my name
welcomes
me. Mark 9:37

Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me!

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them, "The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise." But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him.

They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

Marriage Minute ~

Can I "take" your order?

Since the fall of Adam and Eve, we have a view of God that he wants to take from us instead of give to us. We can think he wants to take freedom instead of give it.

God is pure gift, so all he does is ordered to our good. When we adopt God's "order" of life, we receive the gift of peace. St. James reminds us this week that when we treat God like a loving Father instead of a despot, his peace flows abundantly.
If you need some of God's gift of peace,
try prioritizing:

- family Mass attendance above all else on Sunday
- your marriage and family above outside commitments
- time for prayer above entertainment
- family meals above 30 more minutes at work

As we seek God's priorities, He gives us his peace ☐: www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
