

Immaculate Conception Parish, St. Marys

Holy Cross Church, Emmett

St. Stanislaus Parish, Delia/Rossville/Silver Lake

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible but not for God. All things are possible for God."

Mark 10: 17-30

Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, then come follow me.

Marriage Minute ~

Rules or relationship?
The Church gives us some pretty specific guidance on how to live out our sexuality, but if we look at them as just a list of “do’s” and “don’ts”
or burdensome rules, we miss out on the whole meaning behind them, and risk being like the “Rich Young Man” in this weekend’s Gospel.
The Church’s teachings on sexuality are meant to guide us into a deeper relationship with our spouse, just as the commandments were meant to guide the “Rich Young Man” into a deeper relationship with God. We can do this by:
• Admitting they are difficult and asking God for the grace of courage to live them out.
• Seeking clear teaching on “why” the Church
teaches what she does before rejecting them.

• Ask a trusted friend or priest to help you understand the teachings you struggle with the most.
