God's Perfect Peace

On days when I feel shackled, let me not forget I'm free...that You took my sins and nailed them to the cross at Calvary.

My old ways and bad habits were washed clean the day You died. Forgive me when I cling to them, for that's the sin of pride.

And when I try to run my life instead of trusting You, again, forgive me, Jesus, for that's not the thing to do.

You said Your yoke is easy and that Your burden's light. So, there's no valid reason why I should get uptight.

So, help me, Lord, to rest in You; may others always see Your abiding perfect peace pouring out of me.

Marriage Minute

How can Easter impact your marriage?

After the sacrifice of Lent and the gloom of Holy Week, we can sometimes arrive at Easter like someone who has finished a dreaded chore, and we resume regularly scheduled life. However, if this is our approach, we miss the gift Easter can be for our marriages.

The first message of the Resurrection is "Don't be afraid!" This phrase is proclaimed to all who approach the empty tomb, and to us as married people as well. We should not be afraid:

- ... of serious illness, financial or relationship problems. He has conquered even death, so He can bring good out of any evil we face.
- ... of facing our own or our spouse's sin. He loved his disciples after they abandoned him. He can help us love each other with that same love.
