

Immaculate Conception Parish, St. Marys
 Holy Cross Church, Emmett
 St. Stanislaus Parish, Delia/Rossville/Silver Lake

Jesus said to his disciples "The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

Luke 16: 10-13

Marriage Minute:

The “Little Way” of Marriage
One of the most popular saints of the past 150 years is St. Therese of Lisieux. Therese’s spirituality made holiness accessible to all because she emphasized doing little things for Jesus. Jesus remarks to this wisdom in this week’s Gospel when he says, “The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones.”
In marriage, we build trust for the mission of marriage through small daily acts of love like:
• Validating our spouse’s feelings instead of trying to “fix” them
• Keeping the overall culture of the home light and romantic instead of surrendering to the heaviness of stress
• Cleaning the kitchen counter and loading the dishwasher before you are asked
Praying with your spouse before you head your separate ways for the day
The next opportunity for marriage growth is Worldwide Marriage Encounter, www.WWME.org October 3-5.
