Father's Day: June 21, 2020

While not a liturgical observance, Father's Day is an appropriate time to recall the essential role of fathers in the life of the family and in building a culture of life. It is also an opportunity to highlight spiritual fatherhood, which all men are called to embrace. All men are called to the vocation of spiritual fatherhood; some are also called to live this out as fathers of biological, adopted, or foster children. The societal observance of Father's Day, in addition to the traditional observance of the holiday, is also an opportunity to highlight the spiritual fatherhood of godparents, priests, deacons, uncles, and other men who often serve as fathers in important ways within extended family, parish communities, or individuals' lives.

*****

Fatherhood has its origins in God, who chose to reveal Himself to us as Our Father, sending his only Son for the sake of our salvation. Fathers therefore have a special role "in revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God" (Familiaris consortio 25). Indeed, the role of the father "is of unique and irreplaceable importance" (FC 25).

Although society increasingly tells fathers that they have no say in the lives of their children before birth and fails to recognize the dynamic and critically important role of fatherhood, it is both a biological and spiritual reality. Pope Saint John Paul II said fathers are called to exhibit "generous responsibility for the life conceived under the heart of the mother" (FC 25). They are uniquely entrusted with the protection and defense of both mother and child and, in this way, in safeguarding the sanctity of human life. Yet research continues to show that the top reasons women seek abortions include lacking support from the child's father and financial challenges, which are only exacerbated by a father's absence.

As a Church community, we need to encourage and support men to follow the example of St. Joseph and embrace their various roles as father. Even if a man is not a parent, he is still called to spiritual fatherhood—a fatherhood that fosters others' relationship with God, protecting them from evil and providing an example of Christ's love.

St. Joseph, himself, was unexpectedly called to both practical and spiritual fatherhood, and amid very difficult circumstances. But despite all obstacles, Joseph was faithful. He welcomed life, offering care and protection to Mary and Jesus. We pray that each expectant father will find courage in the example of St. Joseph and offer loving, life-affirming support to the mother of his child.

*****

This Father's Day weekend, we invite you to join us in offering a spiritual bouquet honoring St. Joseph, patron of fathers, and seeking his intercession. We invite you to share with us your prayer intentions to be entrusted to St. Joseph. There is a basket below the statue of St. Joseph in the church. We ask that you write your intention on a piece of paper or note card and place it in the basket.

We also encourage you to offer a spiritual bouquet to St. Joseph in your own homes using or adapting the suggestions in the sample activity guide at www.respectlife.org/fathers-day-activity.

If you participate from home, please consider sharing pictures with our parish family. We would love to see them! Tag us on Facebook @CCSHouston or email them to office@sacredheartouston.org

As we celebrate the gift of fathers and honor St. Joseph, we also recognize that Father's Day can be a difficult holiday for some. We hope this spiritual bouquet provides an opportunity to pray for the intentions brought to your heart by Father's Day.

Pray for the Deceased

For the repose of the souls of our faithful departed:

Mary L Morado†, mother of Mary Helen Schmidt
Everette Yates†, Father of Alice Walker

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
—And let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace. —Amen.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
—Amen.

For consolation & God’s healing graces upon the family and friends of the deceased. Heal their pain and dispel the darkness and doubt that comes from grief. —Amen.

Catholic response to racism

“For Catholics, this is particularly an issue of faith because of our principles of social justice. The sin of racism is a pro-life issue. All human life is made in the image and likeness of God without regard to race, national origin, culture, or religion.” Cardinal DiNardo

Freedom

Two men separated by 100 years are united in their search for freedom. In 1856 a slave, Samuel Woodward, and his family escape from the Monroe Plantation near Richmond, Virginia. Hunted like a dog and haunted by the unthinkable suffering he and his forbears have endured, Samuel is forced to decide between revenge or freedom. A hundred years earlier in 1748, John Newton, the captain of a slave trader, sails from Africa with a cargo of slaves bound for America. On board is Samuel's great grandfather, whose survival is tied to the fate of Captain Newton.

Ways to contribute

Stewardship Notes

Over the past week we were able to install an upgraded network in the Cathedral. This network gives us a stronger and higher quality connection to reach you at home.

Thank you for your financial support and prayers for this endeavor.

Stewardship Reflection

Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak?

Do you share your Catholic faith with others?

Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent?

Do you pray in public before meals?

Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!

"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." Matthew 10:32

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive
You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from
You.

Amen.

12° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Jesús dijo a sus apóstoles: “No teman a los hombres. No hay nada oculto que no llegue a descubrirse; no hay nada secreto que no llegue a saberse. Lo que les digo de noche, repítanlo en pleno día, y lo que les digo al oído, pregónenlo desde las azoteas.

No tengan miedo a los que matan el cuerpo, pero no pueden matar el alma. Teman, más bien, a quien puede arrojar al lugar de castigo el alma y el cuerpo.

¿No es verdad que se venden dos pajarillos por una moneda? Sin embargo, ni uno solo de ellos cae por tierra si no lo permite el Padre. En cuanto a ustedes, hasta los cabellos de su cabeza están contados. Por lo tanto, no tengan miedo, porque ustedes valen mucho más que todos los pájaros del mundo.

A quien me reconozca delante de los hombres, yo también lo reconoceré ante mi Padre, que está en los cielos; pero al que me niegue delante de los hombres, yo también lo negaré ante mi Padre, que está en los cielos”.

Palabras del Papa Francisco

La Ternura de Nuestro Padre Celestial

Dejémonos contagiar por la santidad de Dios. Cada cristiano está llamado a la santidad y la santidad no consiste ante todo en hacer cosas extraordinarias, sino en dejar actuar a Dios. Es el encuentro de nuestra debilidad con la fuerza de su gracia, es tener confianza en su acción lo que nos permite vivir en la caridad, hacer todo con alegría y humildad, para la gloria de Dios y en el servicio al prójimo. No perdamos la esperanza en la santidad, recorramos todos este camino. El Señor nos espera a todos con los brazos abiertos; nos espera para acompañarnos en este camino de la santidad. Vivamos con alegría nuestra fe, dejémonos amar por el Señor... pidamos este don a Dios en la oración, para nosotros y para los demás. La Iglesia, que es santa, no rechaza a los pecadores; no nos rechaza a todos nosotros; no rechaza porque llama a todos, les acoge, está abierta también a los más lejanos, llama a todos a dejarse envolver por la misericordia, por la ternura y por el perdón del Padre, que ofrece a todos la posibilidad de encontrarle, de caminar hacia la santidad.

«Padre, yo soy un pecador, tengo grandes pecados, ¿cómo puedo sentirme parte de la Iglesia?». Querido hermano, querida hermana, es precisamente esto lo que desea el Señor; que tú le digas: «Señor, estoy aquí, con mis pecados». ¿Alguno de vosotros está aquí sin sus propios pecados? ¿Alguno de vosotros? Ninguno, ninguno de nosotros. Todos llevamos con nosotros nuestros pecados. Pero el Señor quiere oír que le decimos:

«Perdóname, ayúdame a caminar, transforma mi corazón». Y el Señor puede transformar el corazón. En la Iglesia, el Dios que encontramos no es un juez despiadado, sino que es como el Padre de la parábola evangélica. Puedes ser como el hijo que ha dejado la casa, que ha tocado el fondo de la lejanía de Dios. Cuando tienes la fuerza de decir: quiero volver a casa, hallarás la puerta abierta, Dios te sale al encuentro porque te espera siempre, Dios te espera siempre, Dios te abraza, te besa y hace fiesta. Así es el Señor, así es la ternura de nuestro Padre celestial.
