Corpus Christi

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, known by its Latin name: Corpus Christi. On this day, we give special thanks and praise to God for this sublime gift of his Body and Blood (the Eucharist) that Christ left us at the Last Supper, which has enriched our lives in many ways.

Firstly, the Body and Blood of Christ is a living memorial of his Passion, death, and Resurrection which brings us its sacrificial saving power until the end of time. Secondly, it is the great sacrament by which we encounter the living risen Christ and receive strength for our daily life so that all peoples may come to walk in the light of one faith, in one communion of love. Thirdly, it is a sacred banquet in which all are fed at God's table and grow in the holiness of the risen Christ.

The early followers of Christ held onto this sacred banquet and grew in holiness by constantly gathering around God's table and breaking bread together. This action of breaking bread around the table of God became a sign of unity for them. They were held together by the Body and Blood of Christ.

This same action happens also in our time whenever we gather as a parish to celebrate Mass together. Our gathering is an expression of faith in the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) that heals and unites us. During Mass, the breaking the host after the Our Father, when the Sign of Peace is completely finished and the Lamb of God is being sung, signifies that the Eucharist is a sign of unity and charity because one bread is being distributed among the members of one family.

As Catholics, today is a day to ask ourselves what the Body and Blood of Christ mean for us. When you receive the Eucharist, does it mean anything to you?

May the grace and nourishing power of the Eucharist fill our hearts.

Fr. Anthony Ahamefulé
Pastor

Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus - June 11

The Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus recalls Christ's love for us. The feast of the Sacred Heart is celebrated on the Friday after the octave (eighth day) of the feast of Corpus Christi, the 19th day after Pentecost.

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque had multiple visions of the Sacred Heart between 1673 and 1675. However, it wasn't until 90 years later in 1765, that the feast was officially celebrated in France. In 1856, Pope Pius IX made the feast of the Sacred Heart into a universal celebration.

Mea Culpa from the Bulletin Editor:

Last weekend's bulletin for May 30 was incorrectly dated May 23. More importantly, one of our parishioners was omitted from the June birthday list: Corrine Clifton, on June 26. Have a wonderful birthday, Corrine!

Jesus made 12 promises to those who honor the Sacred Heart to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque:

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state in life.
2. I will establish peace in their families.
3. I will comfort them in their trials.
4. I will be their secure refuge during life, and, above all, in death.
5. I will shed abundant blessings on all their undertakings.
6. Sinners will find in My Heart an infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Lukewarm souls will become fervent.
8. Fervent souls will rapidly grow in holiness and perfection.
9. I will bless every place where an image of My Heart shall be exposed and honored.
10. I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.
11. The names of those who promote this devotion will be written in My Heart, never to be blotted out.
12. I promise thee, in the excessive mercy of My Heart, that My all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on the First Friday of nine consecutive months, the grace of final penitence; they shall not die in My disgrace nor without receiving their Sacraments; My Divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment.

For Children

The Golden Legend of Young Saints

The young saints' lives of simple virtue described in this book remind us that "valor does not wait on years," nor does holiness. To live in the love of God, in obedience to His commandments, to practice the noblest Christian virtues, and even to offer our lives in sacrifice--we don't have to be grown up. Christ is calling you to cultivate in yourself what you know is best: kindness, courage, perseverance, faith, charity, and absolute trust in God. The example of these bold young saints will help you do so. Age 10 and up.
