Highlights this Week

- Weekday Mass Schedule: Father Anthony is here, and weekday Masses will return to their regular schedule, including Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday at Holy Trinity and Thursday at St. John the Baptist as listed above. Welcome back, Father!
- Sunday Mass Dispensation: From our shepherd, Archbishop Alexander Sample: "Effective July 16, 2021, the dispensation from obligation to participate is revoked, and the faithful are obliged from that day forward to participate, in person, in Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation, beginning with the observance of the 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time." Please be sure to read the pastoral letter inside this bulletin entitled "The Church draws her life from the Eucharist." You will be blessed.
- COVID-19 Guidance: Please see the Pastor's Corner message inside this bulletin, which includes our new parish guidelines.
- FORMED: Our current FORMED recommendations are found on the back of this bulletin. Getting started with FORMED is easy: Download the app to your phone or go to holytrinitybandon.formed.org. Click on our parish from the drop-down menu and enter your email address to create an account. Then go to your inbox, click the link in the message generated by the request, and start watching!

Pastor's Corner

Drawing Life from the Eucharist

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I am glad to return back to Holy Trinity and to parish life centered on the Eucharist with few restrictions - something we have anticipated for many months! At this remarkable time I would like to encourage us to remember the goal of parish life is to enter into an encounter with Christ with our whole selves, convinced of God's power in the Eucharist. What part is God calling you to play in the eucharistic life of his people in our parish?

Here are the general principles and guidelines going forward:

- All indoor liturgical celebrations will return to normal practice - without capacity limitations, social distancing, sign-up systems, or segregation between those vaccinated and those unvaccinated. Masks may be worn but are not required.
- All previous liturgical restrictions are lifted, except for the following:
 1. The Precious Blood will not be offered to the faithful.
 2. The Sign of Peace will not be exchanged through physical contact.
- Cleaning after Masses will continue to take place.
- Coffee and donuts will resume as soon as it can be coordinated.

Effective Friday, July 16, 2021, Archbishop Sample rescinds the dispensation from the obligation to attend Holy Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation. Canon Law still allows those who are vulnerable, sick, or who have other grave reasons, to miss Holy Mass if necessary. Those unable to attend the Sunday Eucharist for such reasons are asked to honor the Lord in another way that day by watching a livestreamed Mass, praying the rosary, reading sacred Scripture, or otherwise setting aside time to be with the Lord.

Let us proceed with renewed faith and hope in our Eucharistic Lord.

In Christ,

Father Anthony Ahamefula
Pastor

Independence Day Prayer

This weekend as we celebrate the blessing of freedom, won for us by so many brave patriots of the past and present, let's pray together:

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being. Help us to continue the good work begun long ago.

Make our vision clear and our will strong: that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth.

Turn our hearts toward the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in the common good of all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Feast of Saint Elizabeth of Portugal - July 5

Saint Elizabeth was the daughter of King Peter III of Aragon. She was named after her aunt, Saint Elizabeth of Hungary. Under the good influences surrounding her early years, Elizabeth learned self-discipline and acquired a taste for spirituality. Thus prepared, Elizabeth was able to meet the challenge when, at the age of 12, she was given in marriage to Dionysius, king of Portugal. She adopted a pattern of life conducive to growth in God's love through her exercises of piety, including daily Mass, and through her acts of charity by which she was able to befriend and help pilgrims, strangers, the sick, the poor. At the same time she remained devoted to her husband, whose infidelity to her was a scandal to the kingdom.

Elizabeth long sought peace for her husband with God, and was finally rewarded when he gave up his life of sin. She repeatedly sought and effected peace between the king and their rebellious son Alfonso. She acted as peacemaker in the struggle between Ferdinand, king of Aragon, and his cousin James. Finally, as a widow and Franciscan tertiary at the monastery of the Poor Clares, Elizabeth set out and was able to bring about lasting peace between her son Alfonso, now king of Portugal, and his son-in-law, the king of Castille.

Reflection

The work of promoting peace is anything but a calm and quiet endeavor. It takes a clear mind, a steady spirit and a brave soul to intervene between people whose emotions are so aroused that they are ready to destroy one another. This is all the more true of a woman in the early 14th century. But Elizabeth had a deep and sincere love and sympathy for humankind, an almost total lack of concern for herself, and an abiding confidence in God. These were the tools of her success.

For Children

Maria Goretti: The Patroness of Modern Youth (Feast Day July 6)

The story of Saint Maria Goretti is retold in this beautifully made film from Italy. It explains the plight of the poor laborers of the time, struggling to survive in a swampy area with rampant malaria and extreme poverty. Luigi and Assunta Goretti keep their faith despite the hardship, and they instill in their children a deep love for God. Their daughter Maria is especially devout. But tragedy strikes more than once: sickness and death affects the Goretti family, and then their young neighbor Alessandro does the unthinkable. 1 hr 36 min

For Adults

FORMED Now! Sacred Art: Sts. Peter and Paul

Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp sit down with different pieces of Sacred Art to discuss their theological meanings and how they can speak to us today. In this episode, an image of Saints Peter and Paul is discussed – an icon full of symbolism and beauty – to help us learn about and further appreciate these two founders of the Church. 19 min
