Pastor's Corner

You Are Called to Tend God's Flock

1st Reading: Jer 23:1-6    2nd Reading: Eph 2:13-18    Gospel: Mk 6:30-34

GROW: Portrayals of Jesus as a shepherd who cares for sheep often depict him carrying a sheep on his shoulders or holding a lamb in his arms. Those images are a source of great comfort, as is today's psalm: "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want." But they don't quite capture just what hard work being a shepherd involves: tending to the flock in all kinds of weather, when the pastures are anything but verdant; waking in the wee hours to care for ewes and newborn lambs; watching some thrive and others die; not to mention being the poster child for the oft-quoted "smell of sheep." The crowd in today's Gospel lacked such a shepherd to tend and care for them, and thus "[Jesus'] heart was moved with pity for them." There are times when circumstances and events can trick us into thinking that an earthly power or perfectly-principled worldview will save us. That is when we need the Lord as our shepherd the most. Only he can save us; only he has saved us. So, in those times when we may feel lost, we can bring it all to Jesus in prayer. He is the Shepherd who knows what we need.

GO: Imagine how exhausted Jesus and the disciples must have felt when, because crowds followed them day and night, they had "no opportunity even to eat." Even when they tried to get away and rest awhile, a vast crowd appeared. Rather than turn away, however, Jesus began to teach them – for they were hurting and in need of his care. Today's Gospel encourages us to be shepherds to one another, keeping others close. Pope Francis said it well during Holy Week 2013: "Following Jesus means learning to come out of ourselves ... to be the first to take a step toward our brothers and our sisters, especially those who are the most distant, those who are forgotten, those who are most in need of understanding, comfort and help." As we ourselves have been led by the Shepherd, we reach out to others who are in need of care.

ACCOMPANY: Find ways, large or small, to "tend the flock" of your family, parish, workplace or community: Write a note to a person who is grieving, invite a quiet co-worker to lunch, provide a listening ear to children or aging parents, introduce yourself to a newcomer in the parish.

New Parish Health & Safety Guidelines - Sunday Obligation

- All indoor liturgical celebrations will return to normal practice - without capacity limitations, social distancing, sign-up systems, or segregation between those vaccinated and those unvaccinated. Masks may be worn but are not required.
- All previous liturgical restrictions are lifted, except for the following:
  1. The Precious Blood will not be offered to the faithful.
  2. The Sign of Peace will not be exchanged through physical contact.
- Cleaning after Masses will continue to take place.
- Coffee and donuts will resume as soon as it can be coordinated.

Effective Friday, July 16, 2021, Archbishop Sample rescinds the dispensation from the obligation to attend Holy Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation. Canon Law still allows those who are vulnerable, sick, or who have other grave reasons, to miss Holy Mass if necessary. Those unable to attend the Sunday Eucharist for such reasons are asked to honor the Lord in another way that day by watching a livestreamed Mass, praying the rosary, reading sacred Scripture, or otherwise setting aside time to be with the Lord.

Holy Trinity: I would like to add my voice and thank Tom Stadelman, whose generosity has made the outdoor picnic area possible. It is a great gift and service to our parish that will help to bring our parish community together, as we will use the picnic area for social events, faith community building, and in doing so highlight that we are one Body in Christ. I thank Mark Lane, Jeff Turner, Bill Philips, Frank Roeder, Ray Ahumada and Chris MacWhorter who have worked tirelessly to make this project come alive.

I am profoundly grateful to Corrine Clifton, who has used her gift and talent to not only purchase but also plant the roses, care for them, and beautify our church grounds. What a difference the plants have made in our compound.

Your example of stewardship of time, treasure, and talent to build the Church of Christ is very inspiring. On behalf of our parish, I am profoundly grateful to you all.

St. John's: We are planning to repaint St. John's church building. In preparation for this project, some of our parishioners came out last Thursday and worked tirelessly to help clean and prepare the building for repainting. On behalf of our parishioners, I would like to thank James and Pat Huntzinger, Ed Byczek, Gary Dietel, Marty Hunt and John Huttli for working to make our church a better place.

Let's continue to work in unity for Jesus Christ to make his church and our faith community a better place.

May the blessings of Almighty God continue to abide with you.

July 25, 2021: Celebrating Grandparents and the Elderly

- ◆ The Older Generation: They've "seen it all before." Older people have experience of unpredictable and challenging times. They are survivors whose experiences often include migration, war, natural disasters, financial recessions, business failures, to name a few. They can provide perspective in the face of adversity.
- ◆ Grandparents: Our personal bank of memories. Memories help us understand who we are. The elderly can often remember their own parents and grandparents as well as knowing the two generations that follow them. Only they carry the collective experience of five generations. That's a huge wealth on which to draw.
- ◆ The Elderly: Good for mental health. The mental health of young people is enhanced by knowing their place in their own particular family's history. In today's world, the range of contacts of youth are hugely increased by social media, but often these are of their own narrow age range. The presence of the elderly in a young person's life can provide a balance.

For Children

Juan Diego: Messenger of Guadalupe

This is the true story of how the Blessed Mother chose Juan Diego for a key role in a beautiful miracle that would unite diverse peoples and change the course of history. In the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City, the miracle of the tilma of Juan Diego may still be seen, just as it was seen by the bishop in 1531. 36 min

For Adults

Saint Teresa of the Andes: The Story of the First Chilean Saint

A beautiful, epic mini-series produced in Chile that tells the story of the inspiring life of the new young Carmelite saint who lived in the 20th century, died at the age of just 19 years old, and was canonized by Pope John Paul II in 1993. St. Teresa of Jesus of the Andes, known officially as "St. Teresa of the Andes", grew up in a close-knit, upper middle class Catholic family in Santiago, Chile, was very popular with her friends and relatives, entered Carmel at age 19, and died before her 20th birthday.
