Highlights this Week

Reminder: The need for silence. The Church is a sacred space.

- As part of preparation for mass, we ask the faithful to maintain silence upon entering the church and at the end of Mass.
- In place of maintaining silence, say some prayers or go through the readings as you prepare to participate in the sacrifice of the Mass.
- Part of confessing what we believe is to recognize our Lord Jesus preserved in the tabernacle and our silence while in the church is a sign of that recognition and the respect for the real presence of Christ.

Thursday and Friday:

There will be no Mass on Thursday or Friday at Holy Trinity or St. John the Baptist. Fr. Anthony will be joining brother priests for worship in Portland.

FORMED: This week's FORMED recommendations are found on the back page of this bulletin. Getting started is easy: Download the FORMED app to your phone or go to holytrinitybandon.formed.org. Return to Mask Mandate: In charity, we ask you to help us protect our parishioners especially the most vulnerable by using a face mask. Due to the spike in COVID-19 hospitalizations being driven by the spread of the highly contagious Delta variant, face mask/covering is required statewide at all indoor public gatherings beginning August 13, 2021. Effective immediately, face masks are required for all adults and children older than 5 gathered in all Catholic Churches in the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon.

"God loves a cheerful giver."

"Now this I say, he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed."

Pastor's Message

Ephphatha! "Be opened"

(By Faith Catholic Faithful Disciple)

1st Reading: Is 35:4-7a

| 2nd Reading: Jas 2:1-5

| Gospel: Mk 7:31-37

Our oldest son is deaf. I vividly remember watching him notice sounds for the first time in the days after his cochlear implant was activated: the "caw" of a crow, a doorbell, the low rumble of the furnace kicking in. Our job as parents was to provide a running commentary to help him understand the meaning of each sound that so many of us take for granted: "See the birds? That is a crow!" "Your dad is home." "The heat is coming on." I'm reminded of those early days when I read Mark's account of Jesus restoring hearing to the deaf man. While most of us can hear, so often we take the sounds all around us for granted or relegate them to background noise – including the Scripture we hear at Mass each week. As Bishop Robert Barron writes, "This deaf man stands for all of us who do not hear the word of God, who have grown oblivious to it." As we listen to today's readings, we can ask Jesus to open our ears and our hearts to the word of God.

Mark spares no detail in describing Jesus' encounter with the deaf man who had a speech impediment. Jesus places a finger in his ear and spits, touching his tongue, then utters the word "Ephphatha!" ("Be opened") Immediately, the man can hear and speak clearly. When listening to this reading, I often focus on the man's hearing. But Jesus also cured the man's speech impediment, which I think indicates we're not supposed to just hear God's word, we are to speak to it, and speak of it. Once we allow Jesus to open our ears and hearts to the Good News, sharing it will begin to come naturally. There may still be times when our Catholic tongues feel tied, but "Be strong, fear not!" Jesus will give us the words.

Next time you take a drive, listen to the day's Scripture readings. Ask Jesus to open your ears and hearts to his words and show you how best to share them with others.

And most teachers would agree: The more senses we engage, the more we take in. If you have trouble following the readings at Mass, open your missalette and read along silently.

PRAYER

God, our Father,

You sent your only Son, Jesus, on earth

To heal a broken-hearted and wounded world.

He had compassion on those who called on him for help and healing.

He touched the sick and guilt-laden, and they walked away in health and freedom of Spirit.

Visit us now with his saving power

So that we too may be released in mind and body

To praise your healing grace

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Dear Father Anthony,,

Praised Be Jesus Christ!

Please extend my gratitude to your parishioners for reaching goal for the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal. Their generosity will go a long way to support our many ministries in western Oregon and I'm most appreciative of their prayerful consideration and commitment to the Appeal.

May our good and gracious God continue to bless you in faith, love and journey in Christ.

Gratofully yours in Christ,

Most Rev. Alexander K. Sample

We all are very blessed, being such small Parishes, in small towns, to be able to reach our goal for the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal. Both Holy Trinity & St. John the Baptist have much to celebrate for these accomplishments.
