

Divine Mercy Sunday

Dear friends in Christ,

Happy Easter!

I hope you and your loved ones are safe and staying healthy? Despite the challenges of our time, we are still filled with joy for the celebration of Christ's resurrection during this Easter season. Together with the joy of the season, we need Divine Mercy in our world now more than ever. For within the mercy of God, we can find hope.

This Sunday is the Divine Mercy Sunday. As Catholics, we are called to constantly seek the mercy of God that He gives us in abundance. This Sunday before Mass, I will lead our parishioners in praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. I encourage you and your loved ones to join us in praying and calling on God's mercy in our lives. Remember, another name for God is mercy. He listens whenever we call upon his name. I will livestream the Chaplet of Divine Mercy at 4:30 pm on Saturday, followed by the Vigil Mass at 5:00 pm.

I will also hear confessions this Saturday 3:00pm - 6:00pm.

You may also pick up the most recent copy of the Catholic Sentinel by the church door.

FORMED

On FORMED this week, our parish recommendation for adults is Divine Mercy: The Second Greatest Story Ever Told, a series of 30-minute episodes that tells the story of the great feast we celebrate today, Divine Mercy Sunday. For children we recommend a delightful and inspiring new film about a 9-year-old girl being raised by her widower father, The Adventures of Ocjee Nash.

May the peace of Christ remain in your hearts and in your homes. Stay safe and well, and let's keep each other close in prayer.

May God bless you and keep you.

In Christ,

Fr. Anthony Ahamefule
