Dear Marriage Preparation Participants,

It is a privilege to be part of your preparation for marriage in the Catholic Church. Speaking on behalf of the Marriage Preparation Team, it is a great honor to walk with someone as they journey toward a deeper experience with God.

On Saturday, February 23rd from 8:30am until 5:30pm, the team of five married couples will share some of their own experiences of faith and family as they daily live the vocation of married life. We will gather at St. John Neumann Church (directions enclosed). This meeting place will offer us a warm atmosphere where we can grow closer to each other and to our God.

Our day will begin with coffee and donuts/muffins at 8:30am and follow the pre-cana format developed in the Diocese of Cleveland. We will use the text "A Decision To Love." There will be team couple presentations followed by individual reflection and discussions. Hopefully, we will keep you "on the move" enough and the talks will be "real" enough to make the hours seem few and meaningful. After we celebrate the Sunday Vigil Mass, we will conclude with a special talk, discussion and a prayer service.

To defray the cost of the meeting place, meals, materials, and books, we ask for a donation of $100.00 per couple. I thank you for your attention to this matter and your generosity. If you are unable to make a donation at this time, please write or telephone us to let us know.

I ask that you bring openness to each other for this day that will enable you to talk, share and discover how wonderful you both are. This attitude is essential for growing in love.

We look forward to meeting you on Saturday, February 23, at 8:30am and hold you both in prayer as you journey toward the Sacrament of Matrimony.

Consider yourself registered when you mail your paperwork and registration fee back to us here at St. John Neumann Church. We will send a reminder postcard as we approach the date. As always we'll hold you both in prayer.

In God's Love,

*Lale M. Virostek
