

SAINT JOHN NEUMANN

Served as a priest in Pittsburgh for some time in the 1800s

BLESSED FRANCIS XAVIER SEELOS

- Served as a priest for 9 years in Pittsburgh
- For some of that time he was working with John Neumann

SAINT MARY MARGARET ALACOQUE

Known for a strong devotion to the Sacred Heart

SAINT HILDEGARD

- German Benedictine Abbess
- Most well known for her brilliant writings on the Church
- She is a doctor of the Church, which is exceptionally impressive for a woman from the medieval era
- She is also the patron saint of musicians and writers

SAINT JOHN HENRY NEWMAN

- One of the most recently canonized Saints in the Church
- A convert from the Church of England, he chose to become Catholic through studying the truth
- He studied at Oxford

SAINT ELIZABETH ANNE SETON

- She established the first Catholic girls school in the United States
- She founded a religious order after her husband died
- She had 5 children

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

- Patron saint of writers
- Guided ordinary people to live extraordinary lives of grace through a life of prayer, Sacraments and obedience

AND A FEW MISCELLANEOUS SAINTS