

BLESSED PIER GIORGIO FRASSATI

1901-1925

- Young working man, who loved the outdoors and spending time with his friends.
- He would often invite his friends to Mass, even though they weren't as into their faith as he was.

SAINT MARIA GEORETTI

1890-1902

While Maria was alone, a teenage boy named Alessandro tried to seduce her. When she refused, he stabbed her 14 times. At the hospital, she forgave him before dying. Alessandro soon repented

SAINT ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY

1207-1231

Elizabeth was a princess with a great love for the Lord. Despite her status and wealth, she chose instead to serve the poor. She even built a hospital after her husband's death where she could treat the sick herself.

SAINT DOMINIC SAVIO

1842-1857

Dominic's young, pious life was enough for the Catholic Church to canonize him. St. John Bosco both guided him and wrote his biography, describing his miracles and intense love for God.

SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX

1873-1897

She is famous for her "Little Way," where one does everything out of great love. Thérèse describes herself as the "Little Flower" that sits back and lets Jesus love her.

Her approach is simple and practical. In 1997, St. John Paul II gave her the title of "Doctor of the Church." She is the youngest Doctor of the Church ever.

SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA

1656-1680

Kateri was an Algonquin-Mohawk Native American who converted to Catholicism at the age of 19. Her tribe shunned her, but she was relentless in her love for Jesus for the rest of her life.

SAINT CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA

c. 287 - c.305

Born of noble birth, St. Catherine was already a notable scholar in the sciences and Christianity by the age of 18. The Emperor Maximinus brought out his top men to debate her, but they could not defeat her. Some of them even converted to Christianity and were instantly martyred. The enraged emperor had Catherine beheaded.

SAINT PHILOMENA

c. 291- c. 304

The only Saint canonized purely on miracles. Little was known of her actual life when she was canonized.

BLESSED CHIARA BADANA

1971-1990

The young and popular Chiara suddenly had a rare form of bone cancer, osteogenic sarcoma. She refused morphine, instead wanting to offer up her sufferings for Jesus Christ. She maintained her joyful demeanor, keeping the other patients happy until her death

SAINT JOSE LUIS SANCHEZ DEL RIO

1913-1928

St. José was captured in Mexico during the Cristero War. The government tried to suppress the Catholic Church and mandate secularization. He was tortured and killed, refusing to betray Christ.

SAINT PEDRO CALUNSGOD

1654 - 1672

Pedro was a missionary in Guam, ministering to the Chamorro people. He was pierced by a spear, cut down by a cutlass, and flung into the sea.

SAINT DYMPHNA

14 yrs old

Patron Saint of mental health from the 7th century