

Coronavirus: What We're Doing

March 17, 2020

Beloved parishioners of Assumption, Sacred Heart and St. John Neumann,

First off, our hope is that this note finds you in good health and good spirits. These are unprecedented times to say the least and we are all working our way through all of the elements of life that will be impacted. As a parish staff, we are looking at all of the ways in which we can continue to support you spiritually and find ways to support you in the unique circumstances that we find ourselves in, all while trying to maintain some sense of community in all of this.

Since this is new, we are going to try to do our best, but won't get it perfect. Know that our hearts are in the right place. Here is what we can share today, and what we think will be coming in the near future:

Next, you should already know that in accordance with Bishop Zubik's guidance, all masses (daily and Sunday) have been suspended for the time being. We do not have a timetable for resumption of these, but it will be a few weeks at the very least. Starting today, Word on Fire is offering a Daily Mass that you can watch online.

Also, ALL events scheduled in the next two weeks are assumed to be cancelled. THIS INCLUDES THE FISH FRY. We're working on facilitating some programs and meetings online. Stay tuned...

There is much news travelling about relative to the coronavirus, and we encourage you to stay informed via the best sources. Here are ones that we recommend:
