Fourth Sunday of Lent

Sunday, March 14, 2021

Gospel: John 3:14-21

God sent his only Son, not to condemn but to save us

Love Lifted Up

Have you noticed the types of phrases we use when describing something wonderful? I catch myself saying things like being 'over the moon' or 'on cloud-nine.' A friend talks about being in the 'seventh heaven!' Now, that admission may say a lot both of us, but I can't help thinking that our deepest experiences are those that have a power to lift us up. Such experiences take us out of ourselves. They uplift us and we perceive things differently.

Jesus is always inviting us to see things differently. When Nicodemus sought out Jesus, he was in the dark " both really and symbolically. He couldn't see clearly. In the years that followed this late night conversation, Nicodemus became a follower of Jesus and, step by step, was drawn to see things differently. At last he finally did see. When at the end, Jesus was really and truly lifted up, Nicodemus was not too far away.

When we meditate on the crucifix and participate in the Eucharist we also see Jesus lifted up. Perhaps today as I lift my eyes to see him, I might ponder on the mystery of suffering and exaltation and wonder at the love that is lifted up and draws us ever closer, uplifting us as well. (Kathryn Williams)

Safe Haven Sunday

This weekend throughout our Diocese of Savannah, we are observing Safe Haven Sunday. Unfortunately, through the internet and smart phones, information and images are brought into our homes that are harmful and disrespectful to our bodies and souls. As you depart Mass today, you will be given a prayer card and a booklet entitled Equipped, which offers concrete assistance to help you set good boundaries for internet usage in your home. Further information is provided in the booklet, so that as a faith community we can promote good values of holiness, purity and chastity. We ask every household to take a booklet and a prayer card. Thank you for your attention and for your dedication to making your home a "safe haven" for all.

The Diocese of Savannah is committed to providing safe environments and fostering continuous improvement in every organization that sponsors activities and/or provides services to children and youth.
