From the desk of Fr. Greg.....

On October 14th, 2019, Most Precious Blood Parish celebrates their 90th Anniversary of existence.

On Thanksgiving Day, October 14th there will be two masses celebrated at both Most Precious Blood and Our Lady of Guadalupe. Both masses will be celebrated at 11:00 a.m.

For the mass celebrated at Most Precious Blood we will celebrate the 90th anniversary of the parishes existence.

Congratulations to the parishioners of Most Precious Blood.

This year I have written a letter to all our Parishioners within our Family of Parishes regarding this Year's Thanksgiving Appeal. I ask that with so much reading and information that is now in our bulletin that you find some time to read my personal letter and pray to the Holy Spirit asking for the direction to respond.

My letter will be inserted into your bulletin next weekend.

Thank you for all you do in your parish.

This week our Family of Parishes welcomes some of the Leadership from the Diocese of London to meet with a number of parishioners who have involved with the Transition since July 1st. They are coming to offer extra support to keep the fire burning in our new reality and model of Church.

Once again, I thank the parishioners from Our Lady of Guadalupe for their continued patience during the construction. We have bi-monthly meetings with the Architect and General Contractor and they are doing their best in keeping the interest of all the parishioners at heart.

On behalf of my family, I wish to thank everyone for all their kind notes and expressions of sympathy towards myself and my family during the recent death and loss of my young cousin who died at the age of 23 yrs. May God Bless everyone who grieves the death of a loved one and fill their hearts with understanding and peace.

Have a wonderful week everyone,
Father Greg

When calling in requests for prayers, you must be a direct relative and have permission from that person.

SPIRITUAL PAUSE

A LITTLE FAITH

Today our readings are about faith, frustration, and how much is enough. Habakkuk is a complainer having an argument with God.

Timothy is encouraging a community challenged by cowardice and the apostles want more faith than they have. Things aren't happening fast enough for any of them or for us. All of them and we want God to do something sooner rather than later and we want God to give us a reason to believe that it will all work out. What does God do? God puts it back on them—and us—telling Habakkuk to describe the world he wants; telling the apostles to do more than the expected. Doing more with less is a familiar phrase today and a reminder that a little faith may be enough even for the most difficult times.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The just ones, because of their faith, shall live (Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4).

Psalm — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95).

Second Reading — Bear hardship with the strength that comes from God (2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14).

Gospel — The apostles said to Jesus, "Increase our faith" (Luke 17:5-10).

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Monday: Jon 1:1 — 2:2, 11; Jon 2:3-5, 8; Lk 10:25-37

Tuesday: Jon 3:1-10; Ps 130:1b-4ab, 7-8; Lk 10:38-42

Wednesday: Jon 4:1-11; Ps 86:3-6, 9-10; Lk 11:1-4

Thursday: Mal 3:13-20b; Ps 1:1-4, 6; Lk 11:5-13

Friday: Jl 1:13-15; 2:1-2; Ps 9:2-3, 6, 16, 8-9;
Lk 11:15-26

Saturday: Jl 4:12-21; Ps 97:1-2, 5-6, 11-12;
Lk 11:27-28

Sunday: 2 Kgs 5:14-17; Ps 98:1-4; 2 Tm 2:8-13;
Lk 17:11-19

TRUNK N' TREAT- SAVE THE DATE

We are so excited to announce that are planning our 2nd Trunk n' Treat this Halloween on Sunday, Oct. 27th

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Sometimes human relationships go awry, but Christ’s choice for us is irrevocable. In marriage celebrations, the Church always recalls God’s faithfulness to help prepare married couples for enduring the inevitable rough spots. The Byzantine liturgy does this by adorning the couple with crowns that remind them of the martyr’s crown. The couple therefore takes on a vocation of witnessing to the sacredness of life in all of its suffering and joy, and of keeping their eyes fixed on the banquet of heaven.

In Eastern theology, people have a liturgical vocation to give God praise, and marriage fits within that plan. It is not so much saying prayers that counts, but becoming prayer. Interestingly, in this liturgy the couple never utters a word other than joining in the community’s chants; there are no marriage vows as such. There is therefore not a hint of our Western Christian sense that marriage is a legal contract. Rather, it is all about living out one’s baptismal vocation, embracing the cross, pouring oneself out in love, and opening to the grace of the Holy Spirit.

NATIONAL CATHOLIC HEALTH CARE WEEK

Catholic health care starts with a spiritual purpose: a deep-rooted calling to serve everyone and to come to each other with vulnerability. The inaugural National Catholic Health Care Week is being planned for Oct. 6 – 12. It is a celebration of an unwavering commitment to serve Canadians, journeying with people throughout their lives, and offering healing in body, mind, and spirit. People have received care in small towns and urban centres for 400 years. Catholic women of faith laid the foundation for today's health system. They were driven by audacious bravery, steadfast belief in the sacredness of each person, and unshakeable willingness to offer love and hope. Today, Catholic health care is flourishing. Catholic Health Care continues the legacy of the Sisters, working closely with funders and partners to be responsive to the changing and growing needs of individuals and families across the country. They are leaders and advocates, making the health system stronger. For more information please visit www.dol.ca/nchcw.

QUO VADIS

Quo Vadis is Latin for "where are you going?" Tradition states that St. Peter asked Jesus this question as Peter was fleeing Rome due to the persecutions. St. Peter was cut to the heart by Christ's response and returned to Rome to accept martyrdom. Is Jesus calling me to be a Catholic priest? It's not an easy question to answer. It takes prayer and study to discover your true vocation. Quo Vadis is a discernment group of men like you who love Jesus Christ and His Church, and who are willing to talk with other like-minded men about their future. The group meetings aren't meant to convince you that priesthood is your vocation. You could very well be called to marriage or to another vocation. But if you're a faithful Catholic man between the ages of 18 and 35 – even if you're currently dating – at some point you have to ask yourself whether God is calling you to be a priest. Contact Fr. Danny Santos for more information at dsantos@dol.ca
