Rosary coast to coast Sunday Oct, 07, 2018
 We, in the Unites States, hear the clarion call of the Holy Spirit, through the Immaculata, and each of us sound the reply "I AM GOING IN!" God's unfathomable Mercy is opening the hearts, the minds and the eyes of people of faith. Our Lady's clarion call-the call once trumpeted at Quito, LaSalette, Fatima, Tre Fontane and Alita-is upon us. The time is now to call upon God, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of the Rosary, to heal our country and return it to holiness. Americans across the country are invited to pray Rosary Coast to Coast wherever they can gather. And so we will gather in St. Aloysius@ 4.00pm and we will have the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and we will pray the rosary.

All Souls Day
 On November 2 we celebrate all souls day. Our Christian tradition reminds us of praying for the departed souls in our families. Visiting the cemetery and praying for beloved ones are found in our tradition. Therefore we have two masses on all souls day. The first mass will be at St. Aloysius 9am and the second mass will be at St. Aloysius 7pm. After the first mass at 9am we will proceed to St. Aloysius cemetery for prayer and blessing. All those who can make it are welcome. we have envelop for all souls day, please collect them from back of the Church and write names of the departed souls in your family and return it before November 2.

Sunday Reflections

The central theme: Today's Scripture readings are about the bond of love that marriage creates between a man and a woman, a bond that God intends to be permanent. These readings challenge the spouses to practice the fidelity of their ever-faithful God, honoring their holy covenant marriage commitment before Him.

Life messages: 1) The spouses need to work hard to create a good marriage: Marriage demands that they should become the right person for each another. It means a union based on committed, sharing and forgiving, sacrificial agape-love. It requires a lot of mutual adjustments; generosity and good will to forgive and ask for forgiveness; sincere cooperation in training children and raising them as practicing Catholic Christians; and daily strength from God, obtained through personal and family prayers and punctual participation in the parish liturgy.

2) We need to reach out with Christian sympathy to the divorced and troubled families. There must be compassion, and a challenge to sin no more. Those who are divorced must be taught that God has not abandoned them. The parish community needs to accept them with respect, compassion, and sensitivity. It is the duty of the Christian community to love and support them. We must reach out to those who have been hurt by bad marriages. We may not realize the depth of their pain, but we must be aware of our own frailty. Those who are divorced and remarried must not be excluded from our community. While the Church cannot sanction remarriage unless the previous marriage has been declared annulled by the Diocesan Marriage Tribunal, we must make it clear that the Church is not issuing a condemnation. "They should be encouraged to listen to the Word of God, to attend the Sacrifice of the Mass, to persevere in prayer, to contribute to works of charity and to community efforts for justice, to bring up their children in the Christian Faith, to cultivate the spirit and practice of penance and thus implore, day by day, God's grace" (CCC #1651). The National Catechetical Directory for Catholics of the United States says: "Divorced persons and their children should be welcomed by the parish community and made to feel truly a part of parish life. Catechesis of the Church's teaching on the consequences of remarriage after divorce is not only necessary but will be supportive for the divorced" (No. 131).

3) We need to be aware of the dangers of cohabitation. According to the National Fatherhood Initiative, the rates of depression are three times higher for cohabiting couples than they are for married couples. Cohabiting men and women reported significantly more alcohol problems than married or single men and women. Cohabiting unions have more disagreements, fight more often and report lower levels of happiness than their married counterparts. Male aggression is twice as common among cohabiting couples as it is among married partners. Hence, parents must make sure that children understand that cohabitation is morally evil and not an innocent option for fun.
