

St. Aloysius, Gate of Heaven & Sacred Heart Church

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME AUGUST 01, 2021.

Reflections on Sunday's Readings

Life messages: 1) We receive the spiritual nourishment we need from the word of God and from the Holy Eucharist: In the Holy Mass, the Church offers us two types of bread: a) the Bread of Life, contained in God's Word and b) the Bread of Life, contained in the Holy Eucharist. Let us nourish our souls with this Heavenly Manna and carry Jesus to our homes and workplaces, radiating Jesus' love, mercy and compassion all around us. But we should not take for granted the Divine generosity, that so readily provides these gifts gratuitously, by sharing in the Bread of Life simply as a matter of habit, without repenting of our sins or showing due attention and proper respect. 2 We need to gain the benefits of our Holy Communion with Jesus. Our reception of Jesus in Holy Communion acts spiritually as Food to nourish the spirit, as, similarly, bread and wine act materially for our body. Unconsecrated bread and wine, i.e., material food, (1), is assimilated by our bodies into our substance; (2), maintains physical life, promoting physical growth; (3), dispels fatigue and weakness from, and imparts strength to, the body; (4), affords a certain satisfaction by pleasing the palate; and (5), influences the mind and spirit by the medium of the body. In a similar way, the action of Jesus on our soul in Holy Communion may be described, as (1), uniting us most closely to Himself: Our Lord says: "He that eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood, abides in Me, and I in him" (Jn 6:57); (2), uniting each of us individually to each individual member of the human race by joining us to Himself; (3), imparting actual graces, including strength, the power to withstand temptation, and the desire to practice virtue, while maintaining, deepening, and increasing Sanctifying Grace in the soul; (4), lessening force of concupiscence of the eyes, concupiscence of the flesh and the pride of life, and freeing us from repented venial sin; as a result, one who communicates frequently will feel less sharply the stimulus of anger, envy, uncleanness, and other evil propensities; (5), often affording much refreshment to the soul.

St. Teresa Benedicta

Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein)Virgin and Martyr Edith Stein, born in 1891 in Breslau, Poland, was the youngest child of a large Jewish family. She was an outstanding student and was well versed in philosophy with a particular interest in phenomenology. Eventually she became interested in the Catholic Faith, and in 1922, she was baptized at the Cathedral Church in Cologne, Germany. Eleven years later Edith entered the Cologne Carmel. Because of the ramifications of politics in Germany, Edith, whose name in religion was Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, was sent to the Carmel at Echt, Holland. When the Nazis conquered Holland, Teresa was arrested, and, with her sister Rose, was sent to the concentration camp at Auschwitz. Teresa died in the gas chambers of Auschwitz in 1942 at the age of fifty-one. In 1987, she was beatified in the large outdoor soccer stadium in Cologne by Pope John Paul II. Out of the unspeakable human suffering caused by the Nazis in western Europe in the 1930's and 1940's, there blossomed the beautiful life of dedication, consecration, prayer, fasting, and penance of Saint Teresa. Even though her life was snuffed out by the satanic evil of genocide, her memory stands as a light undimmed in the midst of evil, darkness, and suffering. She was canonized on October 11, 1998.
