

St. Aloysius, Gate of Heaven & Sacred Heart Church

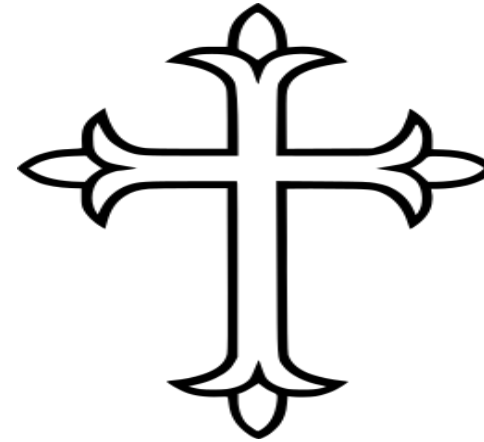

TWENTY- SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEP 26, 2021.

Reflections on Sunday's Readings

Scripture lessons summarized: In the Gospel, we find intolerance among the apostles of Christ. John complains to Jesus that a man outside their group of selected disciples has been exorcising demons in Jesus' Name, despite their attempt to prevent him from doing so. Jesus responds by giving the Apostles lessons in Jesus' own kind of tolerance and in the reward to be given to outsiders for good deeds they have done for the apostles because they are the disciples of Jesus. We also hear the strong warning of Jesus against giving scandal, especially to innocent children, to vulnerable members of the community, and to beginners in the Faith. Jesus instructs the Apostles, and us, that, just as a doctor might remove by surgery a limb or some part of the body to preserve the life of the whole body, so we must be ready to part with anything that causes us or others to sin and which leads to spiritual death.

Life messages: 1) Let us avoid conduct that can lead to giving scandal. We give scandal and become stumbling blocks to others: a) when we are unkind or unjust in our treatment of them, b) when we humiliate them by hurting their pride and damaging their self-image, c) when we discourage, ignore, or refuse to accept them, and d) when we become judgmental of those who are still struggling to reach a level of commitment that we feel is too low to be useful.

2: Let us learn the Christian virtue of tolerance: Christian tolerance asks that we bear with the weaknesses of others (without condoning the evil they do), by: a) remaining true to our conscience and beliefs, b) respecting the differences we encounter, c) working together on projects of common interest, d) affirming what is good in the other person's position, even when we disagree on certain things, and e) allowing the light of Christ to shine through our loving words and deeds.

Blessed Marie Rose Durocher, Virgin

Eulalie was born at Saint-Antoine-sur-Richelieu on October 6, 1811. Her father owned extensive agricultural holdings and her mother, who had studied with the Ursulines in Québec City, instilled in her the values of prayer, justice and openness. Although she had a lively and playful spirit, Eulalie was limited by fragile health.

During the twelve years when she was managing the presbytery in Beloeil and facilitating parish activities, she discovered the pressing need for the education among the people of Québec. She observed that girls had little opportunity to be educated. In 1834, in company with Henriette Céré and Mélodie Dufresne, she founded the Congregation of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, a community dedicated to education in Longueuil.

She died at the age of 38 after six years of religious life. By that time, however, the Congregation had been solidly established. Beatified in Rome in 1982, Mother Marie-Rose rests in the co-Cathedral of Saint-Antoine-de-Padoue in Longueuil.
