Greetings from Fr. Dave

Here’s my quote from last weekend’s homily: “Feed your faith and your doubts will starve to death.” The opposite is also true: “Don’t feed your faith and your doubts will thrive.” The Holy Spirit is eager to support and inspire us in doing the things that help keep our faith strong and active. Our cooperation is necessary! Daily prayer, Bible reading, Sacraments, ongoing surrender and ongoing service to those around us are all essential pieces of a full response to the divine Friendship offered us by Jesus!

Friday, November 1st is a holy day in honor of All Saints. Masses will be at 8:15am, 2:15pm (with school), and 7:00pm. We are challenged and blessed by the men and women who have lived their faith with intensity and heroism. May their prayers be an ongoing part of our growth!

Last weekend in the bulletin (which is archived on our website at h-t.org/bulletins-homilies), we had our annual parish report which included both our financial situation as well as some stats on the vibrancy of this parish. We have two Councils that are intimately involved in all of that. Pastoral Council meets monthly to review, plan, and coordinate the “pastoral” work of the parish — worship, outreach, community events, homily series, and seasonal planning. Our chairperson is Michael Rossman and members are Maria Menor, Gary Johnson, Rosemary Schaal, Elaine Workman, Branden Pavalek, and Christina Bongan.

Administrative Council oversees our buildings, finances, and budgeting, and is chaired by Tony Lucarelli. Members are Cathie Scott, Tom Stoffel, Charmin Shiely, Leonard Vuylsteke, and Jeff Szekely. Our school has an advisory council as well to assist with the planning and operation of our school. It is chaired by Eric Hansen. Members are Chris Eddy, Vicky Ginter, Charmin Shiely, Dawn Dersham, Pam Horne, and Katie Walker. I am grateful for the support and wisdom of all three councils!

Holy Father’s Intention for October

A Missionary “Spring” in the Church
That the breath of the Holy Spirit engender
a new missionary spring in the Church.

Hello everyone! Sometimes when Fr. Dave, Fr. Hans, Erin, Ally, and I are sitting in our homily prep meetings on Thursday mornings, DEEP thoughts will occur to us…. Okay, not really. But still. Here are some, hmmm, less-than-philosophical reflections that might keep you entertained as you make your way home from Mass:

✧ If a man is standing in the middle of the forest speaking and there is no woman around to hear him, is he still wrong?
✧ If a deaf person swears in sign language, does his mother wash his hands with soap?
✧ If someone with multiple personalities threatens violence against himself, is it considered a hostage situation?
✧ Isn’t it just a bit unnerving that doctors call what they do “practice”?
✧ When sign makers go on strike, is anything written on their signs?
✧ When you open a bag of cotton balls, is the top one meant to be thrown away?
✧ Would a fly without wings be called a “walk”?
✧ Why do they lock gas station bathrooms? Are they afraid someone will clean them?
✧ If a turtle doesn’t have a shell, is it homeless or naked?
✧ Why don’t sheep shrink when it rains?

Have a great week, everyone!

I encourage you to bring the light of the Gospel to our contemporaries. May you be witnesses of freedom and mercy, allowing fraternity and dialogue to prevail over divisions. #ExtraordinaryMissionaryMonth #MissionaryOctober

FOR WHAT IT’S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH
Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

“Go to the Madonna. Love her! Always say the Rosary. Say it well. Say it as often as you can! Be souls of prayer. Never tire of praying, it is what is essential. Prayer shakes the Heart of God, it obtains necessary graces!” —St. Padre Pio

Perk up people, now is not the time to go to sleep or turn the page! The Rosary is amazing! I can name Saints and Popes who are devoted to Mary and praying the Rosary, and ordinary people like you and me that pray it. If I don’t know how to pray this amazing prayer, and do not pray it, I am cheating myself of knowing Jesus through His mother.

The 20 Mysteries that we pray remind me of His birth and early life, His public ministry, His death and resurrection, and Mary’s connection to it all. The beauty of the meditative repetitive prayers allow my mind the freedom to think and meditate about other things. When I am anxious, frightened, heart broken, in grief beyond words, this holy and beautiful balm soothes, comforts, and gives word to what I cannot. I know that as I pray, Mary prays and is with me.

“Grant, O Lord, that by meditating on these mysteries, we may imitate what they contain, and obtain what they promise, through Christ our Lord. Amen+” Have a great week everybody!

Grow Group
Brett Edmonson – brett@h-t.org

We’re around two-thirds of the way through our unit following the current homily series, “Why We Should Stay,” but it’s never too late to start joining us as we dig deeper into some of the themes of each week’s homily topic.

Last week, we talked about God’s self-revelation in our lives and how we come to know Christ. This time around, we’ll be thinking about the topic of authority, relating it to its roots in Scripture and Tradition.

We’ll see you on Wednesday in Fireside from 6:00-7:30pm! Anyone can feel free to drop in.

In the meantime, if you aren’t on our email list yet and would like to receive weekly updates about what we’re covering, just shoot a message to Ally (ally@h-t.org) to get on the list.

It’s Turkey Time!
As is our tradition, we will again be providing Thanksgiving dinner baskets to families from the Veteran’s Administration, the Beaverton School District, and those who come to our own Food Closet for assistance. Each year we support well over 200 families and I expect this year will be no different.

Starting next weekend and the weekend after, grocery bags, with a list of requested menu items attached, will be placed in the Narthex. If you are able, please take a bag, fill it with the requested items and return it to Holy Trinity the weekend of either November 10th or November 17th.

Of course, no Thanksgiving dinner is complete without a turkey. For those of you who would like to help with the purchase of the turkeys a $25 donation would be appreciated. Any remaining funds will be used to help purchase needed items at the Food Closet throughout the year.

There are three easy ways to donate:

- Place cash or a check in an envelope marked “Thanksgiving” and put it in the regular weekend collection (you can get an envelope at the Information Desk in the narthex).
- Take cash or a check to the Information Desk. They will ensure the donations are directed to our Thanksgiving drive.
- For an online donation, go to h-t.org/donate and select “Food Closet—Thanksgiving Meals” from the drop-down list of giving options. Feel free to call the Parish Office if you have any questions regarding this.

Every year your generosity is overwhelming and the impact you have on so many lives is heart-warming. As always, thanks in advance for all the support you provide. You do

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone who supports our school!

Intel & Nike Matching Gifts

We have recently confirmed that Intel and Nike are no longer approving matching gifts for Holy Trinity Catholic School. We no longer meet their guidelines due to our requirements of Mass attendance and Religion classes. Our category changed from 'educational institution' to 'religious institution'. Mrs. Sheridan is working to establish projects that can be contributed to that are of a secular nature (e.g., our playground, sports, technology).
