Greetings from Fr. Dave

February is here! Onward we go. Last weekend we had 16 of our students participate in the annual RC Challenge (Roman Catholic Challenge). This is an event held at Valley Catholic each year with hundreds of participants, many traveling from out of state to be here. Students compete over the ability to answer detailed questions about our Catholic faith. I can tell you, I would struggle with many of the questions! They have been practicing for months and I am immensely proud of the showing they did in the competition. You can see their pictures on the school page. Well done all!

This weekend we celebrate the Presentation of the Lord: a ritual of dedication and purification that is done 40 days after birth and that is recorded in Luke’s Gospel. Each week when we come to Mass there is an element of re-surrendering our lives to God, knowing that “We came from God; We belong to God; Our destiny is God”.

Ponder these words of the Sebastian Temple song we’ll be singing at the Preparation of the Gifts as a way of making that surrender:

Take my hands and make them as your own, and use them for your kingdom here on earth. Consecrate them to your care, anoint them for your service where you may need your Gospel to be sown.

Take my hands they speak now for my heart, and by their actions they will show their love. Guard them on their daily course, be their strength and guiding force to ever serve the Trinity above.

Take my hands, I give them to you, Lord. Prepare them for the service of your name. Open them to human need and by their love they’ll sow your seed so all may know the love and hope you gave.

Next Sunday, February 9th, is World Marriage Day in anticipation of Valentine’s Day. We will be doing a simple renewal of marriage vows at all Masses as is our custom. Invite your spouse to join you for Mass if she/he is not usually with you! Blessings to all our married couples.

Holy Father’s Intention for February

Listen to the Migrants’ Cries

We pray that the cries of our migrant brothers and sisters, victims of criminal trafficking, may be heard and considered.

The flowers for this weekend are in loving memory of Reynold Turiano.
Hello, everyone. Doubtless you’re all aware of the tragic death last Sunday of NBA star Kobe Bryant, his daughter Gianna, and seven others in a helicopter accident. Back in 2003, Bryant was accused of rape by an employee of a Colorado spa where he staying to rehab an injury. The charges were dismissed, but the woman went on to file a civil suit which settled out of court.

In a tearful interview, Kobe later admitted to the sexual encounter and talked about how ashamed he was of his behavior, although he claimed it had been consensual. Later still, after listening to the testimony of the woman who accused him, he wrote her a sincere apology, stating that he now recognized that she had not experienced it as consensual.

As you might guess, this whole incident almost cost Bryant his marriage. It required several years of very hard work to convince his wife, Vanessa, that she could trust him once more. Kobe later said that the most important resource for him during this entire time was his Catholic faith. Below is an excerpt from an interview he did in 2015 with GQ magazine in which he describes the turning point for him in terms of finding the motivation to keep going:

“The one thing that really helped me during that process — I’m Catholic, I grew up Catholic, my kids are Catholic — was talking to a priest. It was actually kind of funny: He looks at me and says, ‘Did you do it?’ And I say, ‘Of course not.’ Then he asks, ‘Do you have a good lawyer?’ And I’m like, ‘Uh, yeah, he’s phenomenal.’ So then he just said, ‘Let it go. Move on. God’s not going to give you anything you can’t handle, and it’s in his hands now. This is something you can’t control. So let it go.’ And that was the turning point.”

Kobe would go on to become a dedicated husband and father, as well as one of the all-time great professional basketball players. In the wake of his tragic death, we don’t need to turn him into a saint, but it’s encouraging to see once more the redeeming power of faith, and to be reminded that there is more to all of us than the bad choices that we have made. But for the grace of God, and all that. May he rest in peace.

For What It’s Worth: Thoughts on Faith
Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

What Saint did YOU choose? It’s Confirmation season here at Holy Trinity. Traditionally, our parish celebrates Confirmation right before Lent, which is right now! Our teens and adults have been preparing since Fall, and now we are 20 days away!

So let’s go back to my first question: who is YOUR Saint? If you don’t remember or haven’t thought about it, remind yourself. The reason we choose a new name is because something momentous happens, and we choose a new name to mark the occasion.

We see it in the Bible all the time, like where God renames Abraham, last week I mentioned Saul and Paul, and Jesus renames Peter “rock” and builds the church on him. Thus our Popes choose a new name too. We choose a Saint we want to be more like or that we admire. The Saint, in turn, chooses US. That’s why I asked!

Think about how your Saint has impacted your life. If they haven’t, think again. If you didn’t choose one, choose one right now, today. By the way, we don’t pray to the Saints, we ask them to pray for US! We have a Communion of them living in Heaven living to do just that. Let’s remember to pray for those being Confirmed this month, and while we pray for them, let’s recommit ourselves to the promises we made on our Confirmation day. Haven’t been Confirmed? It’s never too late; email me!

The only people in Heaven are saints. Let’s ask the Communion of Saints to pray for us to help us get there! +

Kid Zone
Cathie Scott – 503.313.5266
cathiescott@gmail.com

Our Kid Zone program provides children ages 18-35 months and 3-4 years with an age-appropriate worship service. This allows their parents to be fully attentive to their own worship during the 9:30am and 11:15am Masses. Head up the ramp from the narthex and go straight down the hall to sign-up and drop-off your child.

Grow Group
Brett Edmonson – brett@h-t.org

After taking last week off, Grow Group is back and ready to wrap up our “Heroes and Heretics” unit! Even if you haven’t been around for our first three sessions, you’re more than welcome to join us this time as we talk about Arianism.

The Arian heresy questioned how divine Jesus really is, famously claiming that there was a time when the Son was not. Why would anyone say this, and why is this heresy still relevant to us today? Come think through these questions with us on Wednesday in Fireside from 6:00-7:30pm.

Following this week, we will transition to a unit on the beautiful and engaging spirituality of Catholic social thought.

Parents: classes begin at 10:45am. Please be ready to pick up your child at 12:00pm. Thank you!

Out of Love: Social Justice Ministry
Eileen Sleva – 503.713.7939 – eileen.sleva@gmail.com

Bearing Witness: Life and Justice for All, the Catholic Social Justice Ministry gathering, took place in Washington DC last weekend, coinciding with the March for Life. Cardinal Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, reminded those gathered that their baptismal call is to promote human dignity, joining in Christ’s saving work of building the kingdom of God.

Citing Pope Francis, he cautioned, “our defense of the innocent unborn needs to be clear… but equally sacred are the lives of the poor, those already born, the destitute, the abandoned and the underprivileged, the victims of human trafficking and every form of rejection.” If we do not help those in need, we have failed Christ, because all persons are related to Christ. This is the call to Christian holiness.

Respect Life Ministry
Gloria Bernard – 503.579.2562 – globernard2@gmail.com

Thousands attended last Saturday’s March for Life down in Salem, where we used our new banner for the first time! It was a wonderful event with music, speeches, and the march itself, filled with pleasant people and families (including many children and young folks). Plus, no rain!

Join us for our monthly meeting next Sunday, Feb. 9th at 12:15pm in the staff lounge (across from school office).

Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP)
Carol Liebertz – CRHP.women.ht@gmail.com

There’s still time to join in our next Women’s CRHP weekend on February 22–23! Build your relationship with Jesus and get to know your fellow parishioners in the spiritual, peaceful setting of the Our Lady of Peace Retreat Center. The cost is $157, but financial aid is available. You can easily register and pay online at h-t.org/christ-renews-his-parish, or stop by the Information Desk in the narthex or the parish office to complete a form in person. In honor of Groundhog Day (the movie) I considered re-running last week’s column about the Random Angels Ministry but then thought that not everyone would appreciate that style of humor (I thought it was funny…). After collecting myself, I did start to think about the fact that every morning each of us likely does wake up to a routine of some sort that is uniquely our own. Some of you may be early risers who jump out of bed with a smile on your face ready to take on the challenges of the day. Others (you know who you are) wake up and the first word out of your mouth is “coofffeeee”. Still others might gradually pry open their eyelids, gather themselves and then roll out of bed.

Like many of you, I am blessed to wake up in a warm bed with a roof over my head. My thermostat is set so that the house is not too cold when I throw the covers back. I can take a warm shower and have clean clothes in my closet. I can choose what I want to eat for breakfast. That’s my groundhog morning. Maybe yours too?

Not everyone is as blessed. A couple of weeks ago I encountered someone who has a completely different experience. She was sleeping under an overhang space and as I approached to talk with her she reminded me we had met a few years ago. It took me a minute to recognize her face, but the more we talked the more I recalled. She shared with me that she is constantly on the move and over the last couple of years had actually been up and down the West Coast. Back in the local area she simply looks different experience. She was sleeping under an overhang space and as I approached to talk with her she reminded me we had met a few years ago. It took me a minute to recognize her face, but the more we talked the more I recalled. She shared with me that she is constantly on the move and over the last couple of years had actually been up and down the West Coast. Back in the local area she simply looks for wherever she could find a place to stay a while.

When I asked what she needed and how we might be able to help she replied “I just want a place to stay; a room I can call my own; a place to wake up every morning.” Not so different from you and me.

As she packed up her bags we got her a little food and a few other things she could use. She expressed her gratitude and walked away in search of the next place to rest. Please pray for her and all of those dealing with housing insecurity.
