10 days into the New Year and rolling!

Last weekend I spoke in my homily about the central truth of our Christian faith — that each and every person is loved, valued, and treasured by God, and this is not something we can earn, merit, or ever be worthy of. The more we can live out of this CENTER the more we will be people of compassion, empathy, and good will. And, the opposite is also true: when we find ourselves critical, judgmental, negative, that is a sure indication that we are not living out of our authentic center.

This weekend is our final “installation” of the Christmas season with the Baptism of Jesus. Words spoken at his baptism were, “This is my beloved son on whom my favor rests.” Ultimately the GIFT is that those same words are spoken deep into each of our hearts by our heavenly father. Believe this! Live out of it! It’s TRUE!

You do not need to grow, change, or be good to be loved by God. Because we are loved by God we want to grow, change, and be good.
— Brennan Manning

Our amazing school continues to adapt to changing restrictions and metrics and is gradually serving more and more students in-person. Sunday of this weekend (the 10th) the school is hosting a virtual Open House from 12:00-1:30pm. Please see the next page for all the details, and please pass on the information to anyone you know who might be interested!

Blessings to Sander Frisby and Jaelyn Seman, who were baptized this weekend!

We are saddened to announce the recent passing of parishioners JoAnn Benjamin and Bob Hogard. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

Wednesday Bible Study begins this week on January 13th, so it’s not too late to join in!

The seven-week study from Word on Fire (“Conversion: Following the Call of Christ”) is led by Bishop Robert Barron. He illuminates six biblical stories of conversion, demonstrating how six ordinary people, just like us, were met by Jesus where they were and called to a better life through Him. The common theme in each story is the turning of all one’s attention and energy toward an ever deeper, personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Meetings will be held via Zoom on Wednesday mornings from 9:30-11:00am. Email Marilyn ASAP to join in so she can send you the details and get a workbook to you!
Last week, I shared a story about how someone we had helped a couple of years ago was now in a position to be able to help others, if even just a little. I closed the article by encouraging each of you to go make a difference in 2021. Today, I want to talk about a way I hope to do that myself.

For the last six years, I have been working with others to create a non-profit that will more holistically address the needs of those within the community that are dealing with the various forms of economic insecurity. I am pleased to say that this non-profit, called the Beaverton Resource Center, will be opening in February 2021.

Founded on the understanding that economic insecurity is often the result of interlaced issues, the Beaverton Resource Center will be a centralized hub for individuals and families living within Beaverton and the surrounding areas to easily find help. Bringing multiple social service organizations together under one umbrella will, we believe, create an environment where comprehensive support can be provided. Some services we will provide directly, while others will be obtained through our network of partners.

The strength of the Beaverton Resource Center can be broken into three components:

1) A single location for those in need to come to. Our current social service network is strong, but confusing. Knowing where to start is often a difficult barrier that causes many to simply do nothing.

2) A single location for churches, business and organizations to refer people to. Many organizations, including local churches, have no idea how to get people assistance. Now they will.

3) A single place for people and organizations to support. Many want to help, but don’t know what groups or organizations. Staying local is important to some. The Beaverton Resource Center will be focused primarily on Beaverton and surrounding area families, our neighbors. Those needing assistance outside our area of support will be referred elsewhere.

The Beaverton Resource Center will be physically located next door at Beaverton Foursquare. We will not be affiliated with any single church or organization, but rather will partner with many. While COVID is limiting some of what we intend to provide, we feel it is important to start now even if in a limited capacity.

All non-profits run on two things: volunteers and funding. The Beaverton Resource Center is no different. To learn more about how you can help, please go to our website — beavertonresourcecenter.org — or contact me via email (al@h-t.org) or phone (503.641.1842).

Together we will GO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

Chapter Two: “A Stranger on the Road”

“The sight of a person who is suffering disturbs us. It makes us uneasy, since we have no time to waste on other people’s problems. These are symptoms of an unhealthy society.”

With these words, Pope Francis leads us into an understanding of the Parable of the Good Samaritan. Each character in the story lives in us; daily we have to decide to be either a “Good Samaritan or an indifferent bystander.” Pope Francis encourages us “to persevere in love, to restore dignity to the suffering and to build a society worthy of the name.” And, just as the Good Samaritan found support in the innkeeper, we too will find strength in uniting our world “as a family that is stronger than the sum of small individual members.” Can you begin to remove the indifference in your heart?

One way to live out the message of Christmas and follow Our Lady’s example is to participate in the upcoming 9 Days for Life Novena! This takes place January 21-29, and is part of the annual Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children on January 22nd. Each day’s intention is accompanied by a short reflection and suggested actions to help build a culture of life. Participants can subscribe to receive daily emails or text messages. To sign-up and learn more, visit respectlife.org/9-days-for-life.
Contemplating the Baby Jesus, with His humble and infinite love, let us say to Him, very simply: “Thank you for doing all this for me!”
