Okay good people, read up for some final instructions about Holy Week and Easter! Next weekend we celebrate Palm Sunday and that launches us into Holy Week. Beginning this weekend we are offering Holy Communion outside the church at BOTH the 5:30pm Mass and the 9:30am Mass. Please extend the word to anyone you know who is either uncomfortable coming inside yet or wishes to participate via live streaming in the parking lot on weekends they are not selected to come inside. Also, please know that we do not have adequate wireless bandwidth to service that amount of people without compromising our broadcasting, so you will need to use your own data plan.

We have initiated sign-up for inside worship for Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and our Easter Masses including the Vigil – see Fr. Hans’ column for details. Overflow for all of these liturgies will be in the parking lot, with every possible effort being made to assist you in participating fully, including Holy Communion, veneration of the cross, and sprinkling with baptismal water. I am grateful to each and every one of you for the adaptations you are making and for the ways you are staying connected with Holy Trinity through this challenging year. Well done!

Holy Thursday  – 5:30pm

Good Friday  – 5:30pm
(Note: NO 3:00pm Stations of the Cross this year)

Easter Vigil  – 5:30pm

Easter Sunday  – 8:00, 9:30 & 11:15am

We are asked every year how to get rid of old palms. Since they have been blessed, it is preferable that they not be put in the garbage. Instead they can be burned, returned to the ground (composted), or put in the yard debris bin.

Last week, funeral services were held for JoAnn Johnson. We were also saddened to learn of the death of longtime parishioner Harry “Hoot” Haugsten (services TBD). May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

Easter is approaching, and that means it’s time for the sign-ups for Triduum and Easter liturgies. We will celebrate six total liturgies that weekend: 5:30pm on Holy Thursday, 5:30pm on Good Friday, 5:30pm on Easter Vigil, and 8:00, 9:30, and 11:15am on Easter Sunday.

Given that our regular sign-ups for weekend Mass currently includes about 1,800 people, I figured the most fair thing to do would be if everybody got to participate inside the Church for one of these six liturgies, which means about 250-300 people signed up for each. To maintain our physical spacing, that means we’ll have people sitting in the front pew, people sitting in the window seats, about 20 people in the chapel, and maybe a couple people standing in the narthex.

Sign-ups for Triduum and Easter Liturgies are now available through our website at h-t.org/attendmass. When signing up, you will be asked what your first choice is and what your second choice would be. I recognize that for some of you, one of these liturgies holds particular importance in your personal faith life. If you feel very strongly about being inside for a particular liturgy, simply mark that as both your first and second choice.

If, on the other hand, you are relatively indifferent about which liturgy you get to be inside for, please indicate that in the ‘Comments’ box. My hope is that everybody will get at least their first or second choice, but I recognize this may not be possible.

All of our Triduum/Easter liturgies will be livestreamed, and you are welcome to participate at any or all of them from the parking lot. As Fr. Dave mentioned, we will have communion stations outside for all six liturgies, as we do for our live streamed weekend Masses.

During this time of #Lent we are invited to look to others too with charity, which frees us from the vanity of possessing, from thinking that things are good if they are good for me.

Fasting also means changing our attitude towards other people and towards all creatures: from the temptation to “devour” everything to satisfy our greed, to the ability to suffer for love. #Lent

For What It’s Worth: Thoughts on Faith
Erin Nieves — erin@htsch.org

Meditating on Lent: Using Fr. Dave’s Method of Praying with Scripture, which uses the Bible to pray, we can pray and think about our life, or in this case our Lent. We are roughly 30 days through our Lent this year. Take time to think about what you have done for Lent so far. As you think about this, invite Jesus to think with you. Ask for His help as you ponder and be open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit. You could have this conversation in front of the Blessed Sacrament, to tangibly spend time with Jesus. Take note of everything that comes to mind.

When you invite Jesus to help, trust that what comes to mind can and is a part of that request. This can be as simple as realizing a series of things that you didn’t think had anything to do with Lent are, in fact, related; to thinking about the things you have chosen to do for Lent and evaluating them. Are you surprised by anything that came up? Why? Have you done what you set out to do? Why or why not? Sometimes we choose with good intentions and what we choose changes or deepens from your first intentions. Is this the case for you? Have things gone the way you hoped? Why or why not? In the things that surprised you, was it just a distraction or was it an important reminder or thought? Remember that sometimes seemingly random things can change everything.

After you have reviewed with Jesus the last 30 days, now is the time to employ Fr. Dave’s questions.

In what I’ve just thought about and discovered:
What am I thankful for?
What am I sorry about?
What do I ask of God for OR what is God asking of me?

Now, rest with Jesus in His peace and when you are finished with your prayer, pick up what God is asking you to do for the remainder of your Lent. Holy Mary, Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us as we continue. Amen! +

Lenten Resources
❖ Stations of the Cross. This Friday is our final Stations this Lent; we will not be doing the 3:00pm Stations on Good Friday.
❖ CRS Rice Bowl. If you took a Rice Bowl home (or made one yourselves), please be sure to clearly print your name and parishioner/envelope number on the container (or a piece of paper that you put in the container) before turning it in! If you don’t remember your parishioner/envelope number, please include your address. You can bring it with you when you come to Mass on the weekend or stop by the parish office during the week. You can donate online as well at ht.org/lent#ricebowl.
❖ Walk of the Cross. Christians from every denomination would normally make the annual pilgrimage from Bethel Congregational UCC to St. Cecilia Parish on Good Friday morning. This year’s walk will be a virtual one, held via Zoom at 10:00am on Good Friday! Although we cannot walk together physically, we can still be together in spirit to reflect and pray. All are invited to join: https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85247717396?pwd=S0xQUjZ6R2dVZitWZzjZRNrARUgyQT09

Our Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP) Ministry invites all women of Holy Trinity to gather for a “Journey of Hope” day-long retreat on Saturday, April 17th from 10:00-6:30pm! The retreat will include an opportunity for Confession and attending the 5:30pm Mass. You can attend the retreat in-person in the church or attend online via Zoom. The cost is $50 but financial aid is available. Individually boxed lunches are included, which will be eaten in the school cafeteria and outdoor dining area to ensure safe distancing. Register and pay online at h-t.org/crhp, and contact Carol Liebertz with any questions!

What can you do to support the hungry in your community and around the world? Visit h-t.org/lent#ricebowl to continue your Lenten journey with CRS!

Timor-Leste has the highest rate of child malnutrition in Asia. Many children suffer from stunting, which means their growth is restricted and they cannot develop as well as they should. Home gardens and fishponds are helping families provide better nutrition for their children, but challenges like changing weather patterns make it difficult to grow enough food. Have you ever been hungry? What did that feel like? Feeding the hungry can take many different forms. What is one way you can practice this work of mercy?

To mark the 25th anniversary of the papal encyclical Evangelium Vitae, the USCCB announced a year-long program Walking with Moms in Need to encourage parish communities to “walk in the shoes” of pregnant and parenting women in need. You may have heard (and are now feeling concerned) about how some people have side effects and others don’t after receiving a COVID-19 vaccination. According to the CDC, side effects are normal signs that your body is building protection. They may make it difficult to do daily activities, but should go away in a few days. Those who don’t experience side effects shouldn’t worry, either; the vaccine is still working. Visit h-t.org/health-ministry for a list of common side effects and what you can do to relieve them!
