Pentecost! May the “power from on high” come upon each of us! That power is the promised gift of the Holy Spirit. In my homily this weekend, I am describing how I have personally experienced that power and how the Holy Spirit has changed my life. I have asked our musicians to sing “Spirit of the Living God” shortly after my homily. I use this often in my own prayer times to invite the Holy Spirit to continue His work in me. Here are the words:

Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.
Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me.
Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.

Our COVID protocols have changed due to the recent guidelines given by the CDC and a memo sent out by Archbishop Sample. Beginning this week we will be implementing the following policies for at least the next two weeks. We expect more changes to come soon. Please be patient, and please be kind and considerate of every person regardless of their views on masks!

+ Masks still required in the church.
+ Center two sections will have unrestricted seating, meaning every row can be used and no spacing required. Side sections will remain every-other row (again, masks required in all areas).
+ Entrance into church can be through any of our doors once again.
+ Choir will not be required to mask.
+ Number of people selected for each Mass will increase by 200.
+ For weekday Masses only, masks will be optional. Seating will be the same as weekend Masses.

Our tradition for Memorial Day will continue this year with the flag being brought forward after the homily and Taps being played at all Masses next weekend. Anyone interested in bringing up the flag at any of the Masses, please shoot us an email and we will get you signed up!

Blessings to Elsie Njenga and Forrest VanDlac, who were baptized this weekend!

Last week, funeral services were held for Patrick Vasnaik and Cathy Davis. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

The flowers for this weekend are in honor of Thomas & Mary Anna Egan as they celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. Congratulations and blessings to you!
The ENTIRE PLAN OF GOD. We don’t really know what that is, do we? St. Paul alludes to it in his farewell speech at Miletus (Acts 20:26-27), but even St. Paul only saw a part of it; HIS part. Whatever “it” is, the enormity of what God has in store for the world is a bit above all our paygrades. Yet we are not completely clueless. We do have the word and example of Jesus to guide us, and the help of the Holy Spirit to inspire, inform, and lovingly impel us to choose and ACT as we should. That prayer from last weekend, “Come, Holy Spirit,” ever on our lips, invites our Advocate to keep us on track. We always want to be on the side of our savior, Jesus Christ. It’s Pentecost Sunday. There is no better time to consider what our part of God’s plan is and should be. It’s ours alone.

From the Pentecost Sequence:

Come, Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!
Come, Father of the poor! Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine.
You, of comforters the best; You, the soul’s most welcome guest; Sweet refreshment here below.
In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe. most blessed Light divine, May that light within us shine and our inmost being fill!
Where you are not, we have naught, nothing good in deed or thought, Nothing free from faint and ill.
Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew; Wash the stains of guilt away: Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray.
On the faithful, who adore And confess you, evermore In your sevenfold gift descend;
Give them virtue’s sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end.
Amen. Alleluia +

HAPPY FEAST OF PENTECOST EVERYBODY! +

SOCIAL JUSTICE MINISTRY
Eileen Sleva – eileen.sleva@gmail.com

Four years ago, Pope Francis launched a global campaign to support migrants and refugees called “Share the Journey.” It is meant to urge Catholics to understand and get to know refugees and migrants who have fled poverty, hunger, violence, persecution, and the effects of climate change in their homeland. In Oregon, our farmers depend upon migrants to work their fields. Today many are afraid to work here because they are targeted, even though we are the oldest sanctuary state in the nation.

Oregon HB 3265, the Sanctuary Promise Act, will advance the rights of immigrants, improve community safety, and preserve local resources in our communities. We encourage you to write to your legislator and urge them to pass this important bill. Pope Francis’ words are a good reminder: “This is not a time for forgetfulness.” Let us remember who we are as a people, and “share the journey” with our brothers and sisters in need. Visit h-t.org/social-justice to learn more about HB 3265 and find contact information for your legislator!

Many of you continue to ask me questions about the Beaverton Resource Center (BRC); mainly what is it and why is it needed. If you go to our website you will find a statement that we hope answers that question:

“Founded on the understanding that economic insecurity is often the result of interlaced issues, the Beaverton Resource Center offers a central hub for individuals and families living in the Beaverton area to easily find help. With a broad range of social service partners in one place, we empower those dealing with hunger, homelessness, and poverty to create stability for a better tomorrow.”

In a nutshell, those dealing with financial difficulties often have more than just one challenge or one issue that contributed to their struggles. Trying to find the resources needed to help address these various aspects can be difficult by itself; finding them at a single location is nearly impossible. The BRC understands these challenges and is working hard to address them by being that place for people to contact. By partnering with others, we are creating a network of services that, when combined together, provides a more comprehensive solution that better addresses the multi-faceted set of issues faced by so many.

Do we have all of the answers? Not even close! But we are confident that over time we can make a difference. As we like to say, we are “connecting those in our community struggling with hunger, housing insecurity and poverty to local resources so that they can make a lasting change for the better.”

Visit beavertonresourcecenter.org for more information, or you can email me at al@beavertonresourcecenter.org.

GO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
A center connecting those in our community struggling with hunger, homelessness, and poverty to local resources so they can make a lasting change for the better.
