In my Monday video last week, I asked for help in reaching out to those who for many reasons are not yet gathered with us for Mass. We continue to make progress towards becoming once again a vibrant worshipping community.

It struck me last weekend especially as we sang the opening song (“Come, Now is the Time to Worship”), how important it is for us to gather together in that worshipping. For sure we need private prayer AND we need our community worship too. Neither on their own is what God is asking of us.

That is why I ask your help in noticing folks who are no longer with us and in reaching out to them. I am especially concerned for those who have just gotten comfortable “doing Mass at home” (on their own schedule, with their pets, in their PJs) and those who have drifted away altogether. 16 months is plenty long to get out of the habit/commitment to join with us weekly.

And, we all welcome back those of you who are here! It’s wonderful to see and hear the engagement of this wonderful parish — before and after Mass, as we worship, and at coffee and rolls afterwards!

As we get more folks back the need for live streaming and parking lot distribution of Communion is diminishing. Beginning Saturday, July 31st we will not be live streaming the 5:30pm Mass or bringing Communion outside. Our Sunday 9:30am Mass will continue to be live streamed as a service to our homebound parishioners and to the group of folks who have been tuning in around the country and beyond. Parking lot distribution of Communion will continue at 9:30am as long as there is a need as well.

Remember to keep our seminarians in your prayers. Here’s some updates for you:

† Shawn has his final days with us this week before returning to Mt. Angel.
† Tristan (from last summer) heads off to Rome to continue studies at the end of the month.
† Dustin (from two summers ago), now a Deacon, heads back to Rome for his final two years.
† James (parishioner) is spending the summer in Nebraska for an intensive spirituality conference before returning to Mt. Angel.
† Justin (parishioner) is at the Cathedral for the rest of July before returning to Rome.

God bless each of them!

Blessings to Dean Cannon and Bella Tinoco-Campuzano, who were baptized this weekend!

The flowers for this weekend are in honor of Ray & Margaret Thiercof’s 50th anniversary. Congratulations and blessings to you!
Hello again, everyone! I returned last Monday from my summer vacation and am now preparing to return to Mt. Angel Seminary for an ISP (Intensive Spirituality Program), which will last for three weeks. Fall semester will commence immediately afterward — which means my last day at Holy Trinity will be this Wednesday, July 21st.

My break back to my hometown of Boise was both fun and fruitful. I spent lots of time with my brother’s family, and spent much time visiting various other family members as well as friends, many of whom I hadn’t seen in over two years due to being away at seminary as well as the COVID restrictions we all had to live under. Additionally, I got to spend time visiting and reconnecting with friends (and fish! — as I had a fly rod with me during my travels) whom I hadn’t seen in many years. I had a wonderful trip — the first time I’ve taken such a trip in many years!

But returning to Beaverton was not bittersweet, as I’ve had a wonderful time here at Holy Trinity. Getting to know many of you has been an absolutely joy, and I’ll leave this place with many fond memories of the folks I’ve come to know. And of course, the mentoring Father Dave has provided for me has been a blessing that should bear fruit in the years to come.

There are so many here at Holy Trinity whom I’d like to thank for all the love and support I’ve been shown since my arrival. This is certainly a most warm and vibrant parish, where the senses of love and community run strong. With a deep sense of gratitude, I want to say a big “Thank You!” to everyone here. This has been a wonderful summer assignment for me!

I also want to say a big “Thank You!” to those who have contributed to all of us Portland seminarians — through the Archdiocese’s annual Seminarian Appeal; through Serra Club; and through Knights of Columbus, Catholic Daughters of the Americas, or any of the other organizations that support vocations, both locally and nationally. Your prayers and support, both directly and through these organizations, help all seminarians in following this call.

Please keep me in your prayers. God bless you all, and thank you for all your love and support!
Are you interested in learning more about the faith and becoming Catholic? Do you need to complete your sacraments? Are you returning to the Church after being away and need a refresher? RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) begins in September! Email Erin to learn more about taking part in these classes, or visit www.h-t.org/rcia.

Our team is hard at work putting together final calendars for K-5th grade Religious Education, First Communion prep., and Confirmation prep. Look for a game plan to be published by mid-August, with programs beginning later in September. In the meantime, if you have any questions about what’s coming down the pipe, feel free to send an email to Chris! All announcements will be made here in the bulletin and on the website.

Keep an eye on our website for our schedule of gatherings and activities.

Let us pray for all the sick that may no one be left alone, that everyone receive the anointing of listening, closeness and care. We can all give it with a visit, a phone call, an outstretched hand.

Join the Sisters for their 58th Annual Family BBQ! Choose from take-out, drive-thru, or limited outdoor eating options to enjoy a delicious meal and support the Sisters and their Retreat House. This year’s menu:

- ★ Full Meal — $12 — Choose between 1/2 Grilled Chicken or BBQ Pulled Pork on a bun (served with baked beans, coleslaw, and corn on the cob)

They’ll also have a dessert booth outdoors, door prizes announced throughout the day, and Sweepstakes cash prizes of $250, $500, and $1,000! Visit olpretreat.org/annual-family-bbq to learn more.
Thank You!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank a few people for their generosity and their time. First, I have to thank all the volunteers who show up every week and are willing to do whatever is needed to help our community.

There have been many times that I have asked volunteers to pick up groceries, produce, dog food, etc. I have one person that I can literally pick up the phone, and will shop for whatever we need. The volunteer support is amazing. They know exactly what needs to be done to make service go well and are willing to do what needs to be done to help the community.

Second I would like to thank all those that donate to the pantry. We have been blessed lately with multiple contributions which included non-perishable foods, home grown vegetables, and monetary donations. Our customers love the variety and are excited to see something new when it comes in. You would not think that a bushel of greens beans could delight a group of people, but that is exactly what we see when they come in.

And lastly, there were a couple of times last week that someone brought the volunteers lunch. It was a wonderful act of kindness and the volunteers really enjoyed it. The falafel, lamb, and chicken wraps were delicious.

So in the spirit of thanks I thought I would leave you with a prayer of thanks. Thank you for the volunteers, those that contribute to the food pantry and those that surprised the volunteers with lunch.

Thank you, Lord, for the blessings you have bestowed on my life. You have provided me with more than I could ever have imagined. You have surrounded me with people who always look out for me. You have given me family and friends who bless me every day with kind words and actions.

Dear God, help us to reclaim our sense of compassion for others, even when we find it difficult to do so. May we treat our brothers and sisters as we would wish to be treated. You created each of us in your image, thus making everyone worthy of our love and compassion. Amen.
