Family Project for November

Pick 5 items from the 10 November Activities for Catholic Families for your family to complete for the month of November.

Write a short note about the activities that you did as a family. What did you like about the activities? Would you do this again? What did your family learn? If you did a drawing or writing activity be sure to include it. (Yes, pictures and email are accepted.)

Email ALL online Assessments, projects, etc. to sanjuanre1431@gmail.com.

Prayer Check List

Each child will have a list of prayers that they should know by the end of the year in their packet last month. Once your child learns their prayers, returned signed for a special prize.

Sacramental Classes

We will be starting Sacramental Preparation Classes in January. Eligible families will be notified by a letter or email before the end of November.

If you have any question regarding your child's eligibility; contact the Faith Formation office.

Belt of Truth

Truth is the sincerity of the heart. Sincerity leads us to be open to God. The belt of truth involves truth in two places in our hearts and in our minds.

“So, stand fast with your loins girded in truth....” Ephesians 6:14
