Good catechists never stop learning and growing, but finding a way to sharpen the mind and renew the heart can be difficult, especially with all the demands on your time. At the St. John Bosco Conference, you not only receive instruction and inspiration from nationally recognized leaders in catechetical ministry, but also times of deep and powerful prayer. Join hundreds of catechists, evangelizers, teachers, and parents this summer for a Spirit-filled experience of the new evangelization with over 100 workshops in all ministry fields. Get the tools to be a better minister, and leave with a new zeal for the ministry to which God has called you!

“...one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all in all.” Ephesians 4:6
