Bringing Hope & Healing

“We have been called to heal wounds, to unite what has fallen apart, and to bring home those who have lost their way.”

~ St. Francis of Assisi
An Opening Message from Bishop Deshotel

This year, our theme for the Bishop’s Services Appeal is perfectly illustrated by a familiar Gospel story, the healing of blind Bartimaeus. From it we find a message acknowledging both our own needs and the promise of restoration Jesus Christ offers in love. It is our privilege as His Church to share that love with others, Bringing Hope and Healing.

Amid the noise of the crowd, Jesus heard the lone cry of a blind beggar. On his way to Jerusalem, facing the burden of betrayal, He stopped to heal, His focus on the concerns of another. Many of us carry undue loads of our own this year, yet God calls us to journey together, extending His love. “Bear one another’s burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2).

When you contribute to ministry efforts like the BSA, you offer hope and healing, purpose and recovery to people throughout the Diocese of Lafayette. Together, we can move mountains, and make a difference in the lives of our diocesan neighbors. It is our shared mission through the BSA to reach out beyond our church parishes, Bringing Hope and Healing far and wide.

Please give generously to support the work of the Bishop’s Services Appeal. As a blind man sought Christ to grant him vision, my prayer is that you too will see yourself as part of this effort of renewal and can envision a brighter future for others. Your pledge means that we can make the bold investments needed to Bring Hope and Healing in 2021.

With every good wish, I am Faithfully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend J. Douglas Deshotel, D.D. Bishop of Lafayette
A Focus On Essential Ministries

From family life to Catholic formation to crisis response and support for vocations, the Bishop’s Services Appeal offers spiritual hope, healing and practical assistance to those in our communities in need of God’s divine mercy and care. Generous parishioners make it possible.

“Through faith, hope and charity, the Holy Spirit not only heals us but also makes us healers. These virtues open us to new horizons, even while we are navigating the difficult waters of our time.”

– Pope Francis

Affirming the Culture of Life

The Office of the Pro Life Apostolate of the Diocese works to protect all human life, from conception to natural death. Gifts to the BSA facilitate pro-life advocacy, prayer services, pastoral care and information sharing to raise awareness about this important issue.

“For in hope we were saved.”

– Romans 8:24
The diverse cultures within the Diocese of Lafayette have created unique expressions of the Catholic faith in Acadiana. To lay a stronger foundation for our growing Hispanic community and the future of its families within the Church, the Office of Hispanic Ministry, in collaboration with the Office of Marriage and Family Life, now offers Marriage Preparation and Natural Family Planning programs in Spanish.

Your gift to the BSA provides for the education of 30 seminarians from our diocese whose vocations bring hope for the future of our Church in Acadiana. They have answered God’s call and rely on help now from those of us they will one day serve as priests.
Keeping the Mass front and center along with important liturgical events, the broadcast team in the Office of Communications is connecting our 100,000+ faith family to the Gospel message in a big way, despite the impacts of Covid-19.

“Rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, and persevere in prayer.”
– Romans 12:12

Amplifying the Gospel Message Every Day

Healing the Spirit and Mending the Soul

Grieving is the hardest work an individual will ever do. The Bereavement Ministries of the Office of Marriage and Family Life offer emotional support and pastoral care to help those who have experienced loss and sorrow to find a path to healing.
Turning Destruction into Strength and Hope

Recovery from natural disasters like Hurricanes Laura and Delta can't be mass produced. It's family by family, home by home. Catholic Charities of Acadiana and their Rebuilding Together program have the proven staying power and experience to make every action count as they heal the brokenness.

“He will wipe every tear from their eyes.... Behold I make all things new.”
– Revelation 21: 4-5a

Uniting with St. Joseph

Bringing the entire diocese together, the Office of Worship & Liturgy provided the on-the-ground support to Bishop Deshotels’ call for a Year of St. Joseph. How providential that the diocese chose to commemorate this saint at a time in which we truly need his intercession for protection, comfort and healing.

“May your mercy, Lord, be upon us; as we put our hope in you.”
– Psalm 33:22
You Are Invited to Become a Member

Like all who seek the blessings of God and find Him extravagant in mercy and love, a blind man named Bartimaeus received the longing of his heart, his sight, and a future filled with hope.

You can be that hope to many more as part of the 1918 Giving Society.

Established as a celebrated part of our centennial anniversary as a Diocese, the 1918 Giving Society honors the charity of those who prayerfully contribute significant support, extending the reach of essential Catholic ministry programs throughout Acadiana.

With your noteworthy gift of $1,918 or more, you join caring contributors whose extravagant generosity blesses many by Bringing Hope and Healing.

The 1918 Giving Society celebrates more than a century of Catholic faithfulness in Acadiana. Our tie to our Catholic ancestors is certain, and—in many ways—we face similar concerns: the needs of our young children and young families and of those called to serve them and the rest of us, a new generation of devoted and well-trained priests, as well as providing backbone assistance and guidance to 122 church parishes.

Needs may be timeless, but the generosity of God's people is sure.

In our centennial year, we honored the service of our ancestors and acknowledged the significant needs of a mature Catholic Diocese, establishing the 1918 Giving Society, a commitment to strengthen our ministries and mission for years to come.

In this new season of giving, we invite you to join with other 1918 members who are Bringing Hope and Healing throughout the Diocese of Lafayette.
